(UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST)

EAST AVENUE AND DILLON STREET BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

Jesus' Impress on the Disciples

Wednesday, July 27, 1966

Read John 1:35-42

[Jesus] said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying. — John 1:39 (RSV)

JOHN the Baptist directed two of his followers to Jesus.
Jesus invited them to abide with Him on that memorable day.
The impress of His person was evident for the rest of their lives.

Jesus' personality made a life-changing imprint on the disciples. Here was personal attractiveness that won them. The quality of character, the authority of His integrity, the wholesomeness of His life radiated from Him. What the sun is to the flower, Jesus became to their souls.

He influenced His disciples by His persuasiveness. The charm of His words and person was magnetic. A triumphant spirit was evident. He awakened their response. Differing individualities and temperaments were quickened. Impetuous Peter, quiet Andrew, humble Matthew, doubting Thomas, and James and John, the "sons of thunder" — all were challenged.

Jesus attached disciples to Himself by His purpose — the purpose He had in mind for them. They left all and followed Him.

PRAYER: O God, we offer our gratitude to Thee for Thy Son Christ. Forgive us our sins. By His life, teachings, examples, love, death, resurrection, and ascension awaken us to larger purposes. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Those who obey Christ will experience who He is.

Today, as in many industries, the funeral profession has seen the emergence of national, and even international funeral service conglomerates. But unlike other industries, these conglomerates rarely promote their presence. Often there isn't even a name change.

Are you aware that many of the local funeral homes in this community are now owned and operated by these conglomerates?

As a family-owned and operated funeral firm, we believe we are better prepared to serve your family. There are many reasons why:

Personal pride
A focus on families, not profits
A long term commitment to our community

To the Glory of God in Celebration of 125 years

IRVIN SMITH

Memorials

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want He maketh me to lie down in green pastures He leadeth me beside the still waters He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for H is name sake Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies T hou anointest my head with oil my cup runneth over Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. a
