

THE United
Evangelical Church

East Avenue and Dillon Street
BALTIMORE, MD.

*Constitution
and By-Laws*

Preamble

For the maintenance of truth and order in the proclamation of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in order to express more fully the oneness in Christ, we, the Congregation, have adopted this Constitution.

ARTICLE I—NAME

The name of this Church is United Evangelical Church, located in Baltimore, Maryland, and is incorporated in accordance with the laws of the State of Maryland under the following corporate name: The United Evangelical Church. This Church is affiliated with the United Church of Christ.

ARTICLE II—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1—Conditions of Membership

Any person may become a member of this Congregation who:

- (a) Is baptized in the name of the triune God; and
- (b) Professes his belief in the Apostles' Creed, and accepts the interpretation of the Holy Scriptures as given in the symbolic books of the United Church of Christ; and
- (c) Agrees to pledge himself to this Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 2—Application for Membership

Application for membership must be made to the Church Council, or to the Pastor.

Section 3—Methods of Admission

Membership in the United Evangelical Church may be obtained by:

- (a) Persons who have been received into its Communion by Confirmation after having been duly instructed in the doctrine of the United Church of Christ; or
- (b) Public confession of faith based on the Apostles' Creed before the assembled Congregation, except in such cases where the Church Council deems it justifiable that this confession be made before the Pastor privately; or

(c) A letter of transfer issued by a recognized Protestant Church of which the applicant is a member in good standing; or

(d) A re-statement of faith made before the assembled Congregation, or in private at the discretion of the Church Council.

Section 4—Reception of Members

Applicants who have been approved by the Church Council and Pastor shall be received into membership at a regular Church service, according to the ritual of the United Church of Christ, except in such cases as the Church Council or Pastor deem it advisable to permit private reception.

Section 5—Discipline

Members guilty of misconduct which brings reproach upon the Church shall be disciplined in accordance with the rules hereinafter set forth in the By-Laws.

Section 6—Transfer of Membership

A member who desires to sever his relations with this Church shall make personal application in writing to the Church Council for a letter of transfer, which will be granted if the member is in good standing.

ARTICLE III—ADMINISTRATION

Section 1—Church Council

The governing body of the Church shall be a Church Council, which shall consist of twelve members, six of whom shall be elected annually to serve for a period of two years. No Council member shall serve more than three consecutive terms, but shall be eligible for re-election after a lapse of one year. The Church Council shall:

(a) Have jurisdiction and oversight of the Congregation, and all of its organizations; and

(b) Be responsible for the care and control of the property of the Congregation, whether real or personal, as a sacred trust in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, and of this Constitution and the By-Laws of the United Evangelical Church.

Section 2—Junior Church Council

There shall be a Junior Church Council of this Congregation, whose members shall be appointed by the Church Council.

ARTICLE IV—PASTOR

The Spiritual Leadership of this Church shall rest in the hands of an Ordained Minister duly sanctioned by the United Church of Christ.

Section 1—Selection

After careful investigation, the Church Council shall recommend to the Congregation, for its consideration, the name of a minister whom it believes is fully qualified to assume the duties of the pastorate of the United Evangelical Church.

Section 2—Election

No Minister shall be considered for election as pastor of this Church until he has presented a guest sermon to the Congregation.

Section 3—Severance of Relations

To sever the existing relationship between Pastor and Congregation a three month notice in writing shall be required by either party unless earlier separation shall be amenable to both parties.

ARTICLE V—ORGANIZATIONS

All Church organizations are under the jurisdiction of the Church Council, and they shall report to the Congregation as the Church Council deems necessary.

ARTICLE VI—AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

Section 1—Amendments

Amendments to the Constitution shall be submitted to the President of the Church Council in writing, signed by three voting members of the Congregation for consideration by the Church Council. If, in the opinion of a majority of the Church Council, the proposed amendment or amendments warrant the consideration of the Congregation, said amendment or amendments shall be introduced at the next Congregational meeting. If, in the opinion of a majority of the Church Council, said proposed amendment does not warrant such consideration, it may be brought before the Congregation through a written petition signed by twenty-five members in good standing which shall be submitted to the President of the Church Council. Action on the proposed amendment or amendments shall be taken at the subsequent regular or special Congregational meeting. All members shall be notified by mail of the proposed amendment prior to said meeting.

Section 2—Approval

A two-thirds affirmative vote of the members present at the said Congregational meeting is necessary to adopt any amendment to this Constitution. A quorum being that as described in the By-Laws, Article VI, Section 4.

Section 3—Other Constitutions

By adoption of this Constitution all former Constitutions and Amendments are declared repealed.

BY-LAWS

The following shall be the By-Laws of the United Evangelical Church, and are intended to implement the provisions of the Constitution of this Congregation so as to enable the governing body of said Church to more effectively perform its duties.

ARTICLE I—ASSOCIATION

Section 1—

Contributions to the United Church of Christ

This Congregation shall contribute regularly toward the support of all phases of the United Church of Christ.

Section 2—Synodical Meetings

Delegates and alternates from this Congregation shall attend the annual meeting of the Synodical Conference with which this church is affiliated. Said delegates and alternates shall be selected prior to said annual meeting.

Section 3—Expenses

Traveling expenses and registration fees of both the Pastor (or Pastors), and delegates shall be defrayed by the Congregation.

ARTICLE II—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1—Duties of a Member

It shall be the duty of every member to take an active part in all functions of the Church to the glorification of God and the uplifting of mankind. Such duties shall include:

- (a) Regular attendance at divine worship; and
 - (b) Devout use of the Holy Scripture; and
 - (c) Fervent prayer for the welfare of the Church;

 - (k) Regular partaking of Holy Communion.

Section 2—Inactive Member

(a) An inactive member is one who, according to the Church records, for the preceding year has not fulfilled the duties and obligations of Church membership as set forth in Article II, Section 1, such inactive status to be determined by the Church Council after due deliberation.

(b) A member who has failed to fulfill the responsibilities of Church membership for the preceding year without satisfactory explanation shall not be privileged to vote or hold office.

Section 3—Voting Privileges

Members of good and regular standing who have attained the age of eighteen years shall be qualified voters at any congregational meeting of this Church.

Section 4—Dismissal

All members guilty of unchristian conduct which brings reproach upon the Church shall be referred to the Church Council for such action as it shall feel necessary. Such member shall have the right of appeal at the next Congregational Meeting.

Section 5—Deletion

Any member who fails to fulfill the responsibilities of Church membership for a period of one year shall be notified that he is classified as an inactive member. If the same situation prevails after the second year such inactive member shall again be notified as to his status and unless remedial action is taken by said member, his name shall be deleted from the membership rolls.

Section 6—Transfers

All transfers shall be governed by Article II, Section 6, as outlined in the Constitution.

Section 7—Reinstatement

Any member who has been dismissed, deleted or transferred shall be received as new member after favorable action shall have been taken by the Church Council upon the written application of the person.

ARTICLE III—ADMINISTRATION

Church Council

(a) Only such members are eligible for election as have attained the age of twenty-one and have been members in good standing for one year or more.

(b) 1. At the September meeting of the Church Council the President of the Council shall appoint a nominating committee of three members from said body to secure candidates to run for election to the Church Council.

2. They shall interview the candidates, obtain their consent to serve and report their nominees to the Church Council.

3. Names of the nominees shall be placed on a ballot alphabetically and additional nominations, not to exceed three from the floor, may be made by the Congregation prior to the election.

4. The six candidates obtaining the most votes are elected.

5. The newly elected members of the Church Council shall be installed into office in accordance with the prevailing custom by the Pastor on the Sunday following their election.

6. The President of the Church Council, after a majority vote, shall declare the office of any member vacant who is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings without a reasonable or acceptable excuse.

7. The President of the Church Council shall within two (2) months fill any vacancy that occurs in its membership for the unexpired portion of the term.

(c) The officers of the Church Council shall consist of the President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Financial Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected by the Church Council prior to the conclusion of the December meeting to assume their duties January 1st of the succeeding year.

ARTICLE IV—MEETINGS AND DUTIES OF THE COUNCIL

Section 1—Regular Meetings

The Church Council shall meet regularly on the first Tuesday of each month but may, in exceptional cases, change the date of any particular meeting.

Section 2—Special Meetings

(a) The Church Council may be called into special meetings by its President at any time; and

(b) In the absence of the President, the Vice-President shall have the authority to call said special meetings; and

(c) In the absence of the President and Vice-President said special meeting may be called by a quorum of the Church Council, and presided over by the Treasurer.

Section 3—Quorum

Seven duly elected members shall constitute a quorum for the regular transaction of business. Meetings shall be presided over by the President, or, in his absence, by the Vice-President, or, in their absence, by the Treasurer, Financial Secretary, or Recording Secretary in that order.

Section 4—Duties of the Officers

(a) President—It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Church Council and the Congregation. He shall be ex-officio member of all committees. All committees shall be appointed by the President.

(b) Vice-President—In the absence of the President, it shall be the duty of the Vice-President to perform the duties of the President. He shall be a member of the Property Committee.

(c) Recording Secretary—The Recording Secretary shall keep accurate minutes of the proceedings of the Congregational and Church Council meetings. He shall incorporate into the minutes of the Church Council reports of all committees. He shall keep a record of all documents placed in the safe deposit box. He shall, upon the expiration of his term of office, deliver to his successor all records, papers and all other properties belonging to the Congregation which may be in his custody. He shall receive for his services the sum of Thirty-five dollars ($35.00) per annum, payable quarterly.

(d) Financial Secretary—The Financial Secretary shall keep accurate records of all Church monies received; render a complete monthly statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Church and all special funds at the regular meetings. The Financial Secretary shall be a member of the Finance Committee. He shall, upon the expiration of his term of office, deliver to his successor all monies, papers and other Church properties belonging to the Congregation which he may have in his custody. He shall receive for his services the sum of Thirty-five dollars ($35.00) per annum, payable quarterly.

(e) Treasurer—The Treasurer shall receive all Church monies, issue receipts to the proper party, and keep an accurate account thereof. All monies received by him shall be deposited promptly in the duly authorized depository as specified by the Church Council. He shall turn over to his successor all funds, books, accounts, papers, and other property of the Congregation in his custody at the expiration of his term of office. He shall receive for his services the sum of Twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per annum, payable quarterly.

(f) All officers with the exception of the Recording Secretary shall be bonded by a corporate bond in the amount of Five thousand dollars ($5,000), the premium for which shall be paid out of Church funds.

(g) All checks drawn on the checking account of the Church shall be signed by three officers of the Church Council. The same to apply to deposits withdrawn from saving accounts.

Section 5—Duties of the Church Council

(i) Engage and exercise control over all employees and determine their salaries.

(j) Support the United Church of Christ to the best of the Congregation's financial ability.

Section 6—Junior Church Council

The Junior Church Council is instituted for the purpose of training and developing young people for future service as members of the Church Council, and for giving the younger element adequate representation in the governing body of the Congregation. In order that members of the Junior Church Council may become acquainted with the spiritual and business affairs of the Congregation, the Junior Church Council shall be invited to the meetings of the Church Council with voice in the deliberations, but no vote, except when granted by the Church Council. Junior Church Council members shall be chosen for committees for which they are particularly fitted by age, association and experience.

ARTICLE V—PASTOR

Section 1—Duties of the Pastor

It shall be the duty of the Pastor to set a good example to his Congregation and be responsible for all Church services; to direct the work of religious education; administer the Holy Sacraments; visit the sick; comfort the distressed; and to perform all such other duties as are required of a Pastor. He shall keep accurate records of all services performed and present an annual report to the Congregation.

Section 2—Selection of a Pastor

(a) In case of a vacancy in the Pastorate of the United Evangelical Church, the Church Council shall notify the President of the Synod or Conference and receive from him the names of candidates.

(b) A Pulpit Committee shall be appointed to select a candidate for the Pastorate of this Church. The committee shall, after receiving names of candidates from the Synod or Conference President and those recommended by members of the Congregation, contact all candidates to ascertain the names of those interested in the position of Pastor. Upon receiving a tentative choice the committee shall visit the minister in his home field of labor wherever practical, interview him, hear him preach, and ascertain his qualifications from personal observation and information that may be secured from reliable sources. The committee shall decide on the minister who in its judgment is best qualified to fill the vacancy and recommend his election to the Church Council. The Church Council shall invite him to deliver a guest sermon and meet with the Congregation informally afterwards. Every member of the Congregation shall be invited by mail to meet the visiting minister.

Section 3—Election of a Pastor

(a) Election of the Pastor shall take place at a special meeting called within two weeks after the prospective Pastor has visited the Congregation. A majority vote of the members present shall be necessary for election. Voting shall be by ballot. Every member shall be notified by mail of the time, place and purpose of this meeting. This special meeting shall be announced from the pulpit at least one Sunday prior to the meeting.

(b) A written Call stating salary and other sustaining benefits, signed by the President and Secretary of the Church Council, shall be sent to the Pastor-elect.

(c) The Pastor-elect shall assume his duties within three months after his acceptance of the Call.

Section 4—Rights of the Pastor

The Pastor is ex-officio member of the Church Council, all committees and all organizations within the Church. As long as he is Pastor no other minister shall perform any religious ceremonies in connection with the work of the Church, including weddings, funerals, and baptisms without first obtaining his permission.

Section 5—

Severance of Relations of Pastor and Congregation

Upon the termination of his services as Pastor, he must turn over to the Church all books, papers, seals and other property of the Church in his custody.

ARTICLE VI—CONGREGATIONAL MEETINGS

Section 1—Regular Meetings

The annual meeting of the Congregation shall be held the last Friday in January, at which time all organizations of the Church shall present a written report of their aims and accomplishments.

Section 2—Election Meeting

(a) This meeting shall be held the last Friday of November at which time members of the Church Council shall be elected.

(b) At this meeting the budget for the coming year shall be presented for consideration by the Congregation, and such other business that may come before the Congregation.

Section 3—Special Meetings

(a) The President of the Church Council shall call a special meeting upon the demand of two-thirds of the members of the said Council or of twenty-five (25) voting members of the Congregation in good standing. The latter demand must be made in writing stating the reasons thereof.

(b) Notice of such special meeting and its purpose shall be given from the pulpit on two consecutive Sundays. In case of emergency where a meeting is deemed necessary on shorter notice, notification from the pulpit may be omitted.

Section 4—Quorum

Twenty-five (25) members in good standing shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VII—COMMITTEES

The following committees shall be appointed by the President of the Church Council prior to the January Church Council meeting:

(a) Property Committee—This committee shall consist of four (4) members, one of whom shall be the Vice-President of the Church Council. This Committee shall maintain all Church property and make and present plans for any property improvements.

(b) Finance Committee—This committee shall consist of four (4) members, among whom shall be the Treasurer and Financial Secretary. It shall be responsible for the finances of the Church; the proper counting of the monies; the banking of the same; the proper paying of the bills and planning the budget for the ensuing year. This budget is to be presented to the Church Council at its November meeting for consideration.

(c) Membership Committee—This committee shall consist of a chairman and four members. Its duties shall be to prepare and conduct visitations of the Church.

(d) Altar Committee—This committee shall consist of a chairman and one other member. Its duties shall be to place flowers in the chancel, have the responsibility for altar changes and the everlasting light. It shall also have care of the communion and altar ware, and in addition decoration of the sanctuary at special occasions.

(e) Church Fellowship Committee—This committee shall consist of the chairman and three (3) members. It is responsible for the planning of all-year fellowship programs of the Congregation, and to place into the Church calendar Church-wide events of fellowship which shall be a benefit to the Congregation.

(f) Christian Education Committee—This committee shall consist of a chairman and representatives of all Church organizations. It shall study, with representatives of all groups of the Church, the entire education program of the Church and seek to undergird the thrust of Christian education in the total life of the Church; to help organizations to enrich the year's activities through proper program planning.

(g) Calendar Committee—This committee shall include the Recording Secretary of the Church Council, and in addition, such other personnel of the Church who may be qualified. This committee shall receive requests for the use of the Church property for special occasions and make recommendations to the Church Council for its approval. It shall use its influence to prevent an excessive number or a massing of social functions. All organizations of the Church planning special functions should consult this committee before fixing the date. It may suggest to organizations suitable times for particular entertainments.

(h) Ushering Committee—This committee shall consist of the head usher and the assistant usher whose duties shall be to provide sufficient members to welcome the Congregation and all visitors at the Church Services, conduct them to their seats, and to assure their physical comfort; receive the offering at the Church services and turn it over to the Financial Secretary or Treasurer for the proper handling of same. It shall assist at the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

(i) Music Committee—This committee shall consist of three members; one from the Church Council, the organist and the Pastor. It shall be responsible for the organization and maintenance of a choir of an adequate size. It shall, to the best of its ability, promote the use of good music in all religious services, and use all means in its power to develop in the Congregation a growing understanding and appreciation of truly good music in divine service.

(j) Auditing Committee—This committee shall consist of a chairman and two members, at least one of whom shall not be a member of the Church Council. It shall audit the books of the Church and shall submit a report in writing. In this report it may express its opinion as to the financial condition of the Church and shall be entitled to make suggestions that it may deem advisable to improve the method of handling funds or the general financial condition of the Church.

(k) Spiritual Committee—This committee shall consist of a chairman and five other members. Its duties shall be:

1. To have concern for the study of the membership of the Church; and
2. To work hand in hand with the Pastor on charity; and
3. To assist the membership committee in cases requested by the Pastor; and

4. To be of assistance in spiritual matters when requested by the Pastor and be responsible for all communion services.

All committees shall come under the jurisdiction of the Church Council.

ARTICLE VIII—AMENDMENTS TO THE BY-LAWS

Proposed amendments to these By-Laws shall be submitted to the President of the Church Council in writing signed by three voting members of the Congregation for consideration by the said Council. A two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Church Council shall be required for adoption.

By adoption of these By-Laws all former amendments and By-Laws are hereby repealed.

This Constitution and By-Laws, which have been revised and adopted this 25th day of January, 1963, are consecrated and dedicated to the Glory of God.
