100TH ANNIVERSARY NOTE

The Choir desperately needs male voices and female voices as well to sing during the Anniversary Sundays in September. If you can't be a chorister all through the year, won't you at least assist for the Anniversary. The group will begin to rehearse in August, so as to be in the peak of condition by the second Sunday in September. Please come and help. You don't need a trained voice, just the ability to sing a tune. Give your name to Mr. Bankett, our Organist-director. Date of the first rehearsal to be announced.

I will make them to come and worship.

—Rev. 3:9

ONE MAN'S LIFE

Here is a young man who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another village. He worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty, and then for three years he was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never owned a home. He never had a family....

He never went to college. He never put his foot inside a big city. He never traveled 200 miles from the place where he was born. He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credentials but himself....

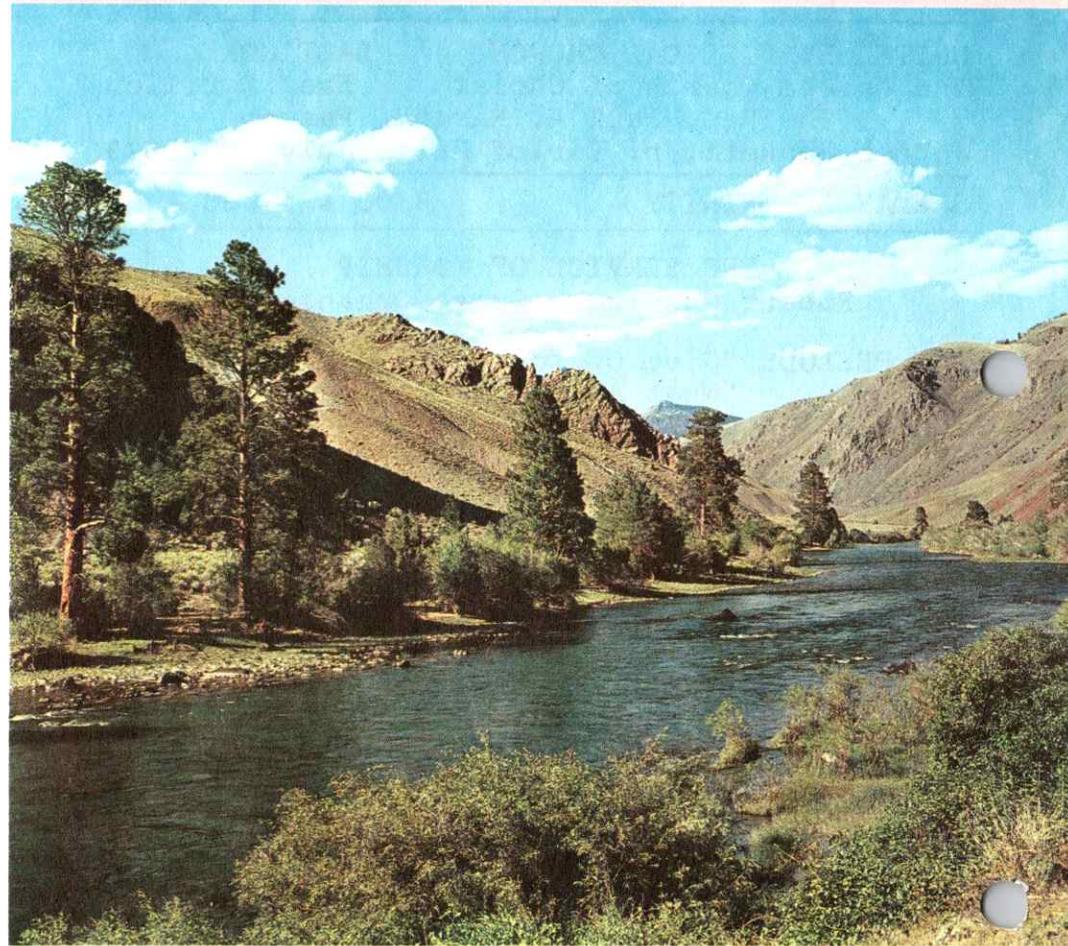

While he was still a young man the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to his enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial.

He was nailed to the cross between two thieves. While he was dying his executioners gambled for the only piece of property he had on earth, and that was his coat.

When he was dead he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend. Nineteen centuries wide have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race and the leader of the column of progress....

All the armies that ever marched and all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man upon this earth as has that one solitary life.

Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
If I ascend to heaven, thou art there!
If I make my bed in hell, thou art there....
If I say, "Let only darkness cover me, and the light about me be night," Even the darkness is not dark to thee,
the night is bright as the day;
for darkness is as light with thee.

Youth Service today at 9:40 a.m.

If you are attending the early service, we invite you to remain for this fine service produced by our youth. It continues until 10:20, with the late service beginning at 10:30 a.m. Our youth do a good thing in this service each month.

Sermon Series to conclude - The series on the being of God, by Pastor Rasche, will conclude with the services of next Sunday, the 1st Sunday in September. Because our Anniversary Communion will not be until Sept. 9, we will not have the Sacrament at next Sunday's services.

Anniversary Services and Events soon upon us.

The month of Sept., 1973 is soon to arrive. It is during this month that we have planned, for over a year, to honor the 100th birthday of our congregation in a series of celebrations lasting all month. Let us prepare for these special events by holding aside each Sunday of this month for our presence at the Anniversary services (beginning with Sunday, September 9th each week. With Communion on the 9th at the regular hours of 7:45 and 10:15 a.m. at which services the Pastor will bring an Anniversary message, the schedule moves for the following Sundays to 10 a.m. (Church School at 8:45 a.m.) with guest speakers preaching each Sunday. Following each service will be a Coffee Hour in Friendship Hall and the opportunity to study the Anniversary Historical Display.

During the week of September other events are planned:

 a Mardi Gras celebration on Friday, Sept. 14
 a Community night on Friday, Sept. 21
 an Anniversary Dinner-Dance, Sat, Sept. 29
 Further, both an Anniversary Program book and an Anniversary Historical book are being prepared for distribution to member families. These will come to you within the near future.

And he began again to teach by the sea side.

A LITANY FOR WORLD ORDER

Leader: That this very earth, now outraged by wars and clouded by armaments, might be an earth of peace, goodwill and order,

People: Father, this is our desire.

Leader: That these cities.....that sprawl like rubbish heaps, might really be human homes, light and bright, and sound and lovable,

People: Yes, Lord, this is also our prayer.

Leader: That commerce might be a network of intelligent cooperation instead of a savage strife of competitive interests,

People: Father, we promise to be concerned in these matters concerning our world.

Leader: That trade might be honest, open, and human-hearted; that wealth might be tempered, thoughtful and sacrificial, that no people might consider themselves as of more importance or above other peoples in our world,

People: Give us, O God, the might to assume responsibility to bring this to pass.

Leader: That the nations might be of one heart and mind, and all peoples free in a land which they know as their own,

People: On this World Order Sunday, we do take cognizance of these matters and vow to be your emissaries in this task of involving World Order in our day. (Amen)

People: We bless thee, O Lord.

2. Turn to p. 22 in front of Hymnal for the Confession of Sins and unite in this at the proper time, also be prepared to unite in singing the Agnus Dei (526) immediately after the Lord's Prayer.

3. Though we invite all members to receive the Sacrament each month, if you desire not to receive it (children not confirmed cannot receive it) please remain in your pew when the others move to the altar, permitting them to pass in front of you to and from the altar.

4. As you kneel at the altar to receive the wafer, please extend your hand as a receptacle into which the wafer can be placed rather than reach for the wafer.

5. People will sing the 'Amens.' Also we will sing a communion hymn, #214, singing a stanza each time a group at the altar returns to their pew. We will begin with stz. 1 and proceed through the stanzas, then begin again, as many groups or 'tables of communion' we may have. This will be done without individual announcement.

THE LITANY OF FAITH

Leader: O God, as we come before you in this service of worship, we are conscious of your Kingdom, both the mystery of it and the knowledge of it we have from Christ Our Lord. We acknowledge your Lordship over all you have created,

People: Be Lord of our beings and master of our thinking, and governor of our actions.

Leader: We confess our belief in you,

People: Make faith and trust the cornerstone of our lives.

Leader: We pray for your help in answering your invitation to be a part of your Kingdom,

People: Let us never feel too good or too bad to be in your presence. Impress upon us, O Lord, that your kingdom is for those who do your will, and that such persons are of every race and creed and nationality.

Leader: Let us never presume that we alone have cornered all the truth. Yet assure us that in Christ, we have the way, the truth and the life,

People: Let us always willingly invite others to participate with us in worship, study and serving.

Leader: Let us beware of drifting away from you, or of finding other things to do,

People: So may we heed your call, become one of your people right now, and remain loyal and true to you until the day when we stand face to face with you in heaven.

We pray through Jesus Christ our Lord(Amen)

Pastor: Let us together enter upon the following statement of the need for God's Pardon,

People: Almighty and most merciful God, we acknowledge and confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word and deed; that we have not loved thee with all our heart and soul, with all our mind and strength; and that we have not loved our neighbor as ourselves. We beseech thee, O God, to forgive what we have been, to help us to amend what we are, and of thy mercy to direct what we shall be; so that we may henceforth walk in the way of thy commandments, and do those things which are pleasing in Thy sight

Pastor: Good Lord, we stand before Thee in the need of Thy forgiveness. May we know, that for as many of us as do believe in Thy Word and are sincere in our penitence, that for those there does come the forgiveness of our sins, and this through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

A LITANY OF THANKS

Leader: Thank you, Lord, for loving us even when we have despised You,

People: Yes, Lord, we thank You.

Leader: For seeking us even when we have not looked for you,

People: We are grateful, O Lord.

Leader: For guiding us perhaps most carefully precisely when we think we are quite able to find our own way,

People: We do thank you, O Lord.

Leader: We express appreciation for your forgiveness of those things wherein we may feel we are doing what we think is right when it may be contrary to Your will,

People: For Your wisdom we are grateful.

Leader: We are glad that You are our Father even when we do not act as Your children,

People: We thank you, God.

Leader: We rejoice in the knowledge you present beside us even when we would deny Your existence,

People: These are all blessings that remind us that we are human, but that we can depend upon You, Our God, to bless us. For this we give thanks, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

JESUS IS COMING AGAIN

1. Marvelous message we bring,
Glorious carol we sing,
Wonderful word of the King;
Jesus is coming again!

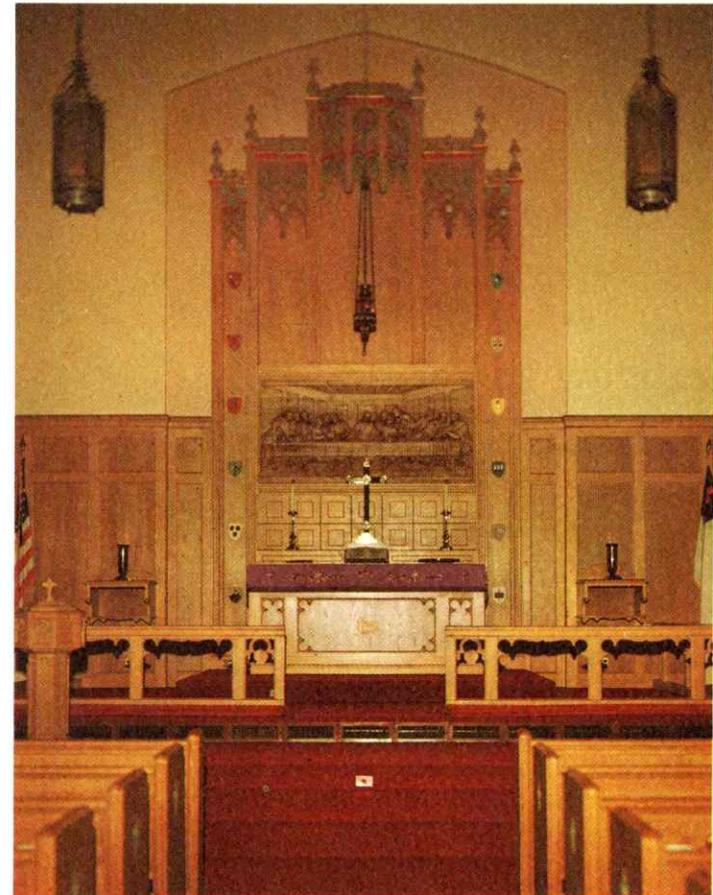

CHORUS: Coming again, Coming again,
Maybe morning, maybe noon.
Maybe evening and maybe soon.
Coming again. Coming again.
O what a wonderful day it will be!
Jesus is coming again!

2. Forest and flower exclaim, Mountain and meadow the same
All earth and heaven proclaim;
Jesus is coming again.

3. Standing before Him at last Trail and trouble all past,
Crowns at His feet we will cast;
Jesus is coming again.

Leader: Eternal and Ever-living God; you have revealed to us how heaven and earth shall pass away, and all history find its ending in you. This day we pray that we may be found ready for life in your new creation,

People: Let us prepare to meet our God.

Leader: Thank you for this life and for revealing yourself in Jesus of Nazareth, that we may receive and respond to your love now.

People: May we be prepared for your coming, Lord Jesus Christ.

Leader: Let us call all men to faith in God! Make us your channels to reach men in our world with your invitation to eternal life. May we be effective witnesses to your love,

People: Protect us from straying or failing you. Keep us from being lulled into careless and unthinking apathy, in which we may be left out of your kingdom. Let us be ready, always, and so at the time of your coming.

Leader: Strengthen us in constant service. May we see all around us the needs of men, and, because of your love, so freely given to us, may we gladly serve these needs, and so do your will,

People: For we are those who are to serve, rather than be served. Help us walk the pathway of all your saints. Include us in the company of those who have lived by faith in Christ, and through us, pass on the heritage of true religion to future generations. (Amen)

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: If in our individual hearts there is a sense of our unworthiness before our just God and we express our sense of guilt to Him and ask forgiveness, He will forgive us. Those who are penitent, come with me now unto God and ask forgiveness.
People: Lord God, in this season of expectation, when we are being led by Your Word to the expectation of Jesus coming in grace and glory, we ask of you the cleansing of our hearts, that our preparation may be fostered in a clean heart. Accept our sorrow for sins committed and forgive these sins, we pray, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Sing 'Amen')

THE LITANY OF ADVENT

Leader: The Bible says, 'In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God.' It further says, 'He was in the beginning with God.'

People: Lord, we thank thee for Thy messages of revelation in the Holy Bible.

Leader: This Word of God came to earth in the person of Jesus to live and dwell among men, to be their Saviour,

People: Yes, Lord, we especially thank Thee for the Lord Christ, given to us as a Lord and Saviour.

Leader: Thus in the Advent season we do bring to mind the coming of the Lord on Christmas and use these days as days of solemn expectation.

People: O Father, may our expectation be great and may it be the expecting of Thy spiritual gifts thru the same Jesus.

Leader: This season is also a season of preparation of our very hearts to receive the Lord Christ within ourselves as our personal Saviour,

People: May we, O God, be so attuned to Thy goodness that we may live holy lives and thus be proper receptacles for the Lord Christ within to dwell. Be with us and bless us in these holy days. (Amen)

Pastor: God spake these words, and said,
I am the Lord thy God; Thou shalt have no
other gods before me.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thy self to them nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

that the days may be long upon the land
which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee. Amen.

THE LITANY The Ten Commandments

Pastor: God spake these words, and said,
I am the Lord thy God; Thou shalt have no
other gods before me.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not make unto thee any
graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thy self to them nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children
unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Remember the sabbath day, to keep
it holy.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Honor thy father and thy mother;
that the days may be long upon the land
which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not kill; thou shalt not commit adultery; thou shalt not steal.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor, thou shalt not covet.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee. Amen.
