*THE OPENING HYMN (Tune, #282)

Our Father's God, from out whose hand, the decades fall, like grains of sand,
We meet today, thy people, free, But loyal to our Church and Thee.
To thank Thee for the years now past, To ask Thee that Thy blessings last.

We give Thee praise for saints now gone For men whose work has lasted long,
For Pastor, people, hand in hand, Who labored here at Thy command.
This church is what it is today Because these folk did work and pray.

In service and in Sacrament, Our faith is strengthened, evil spent;
At altar and in humble home Thy glory through our lives is shown.
Our way to Paradise is sure As we in faith are made secure.

O make us through the coming years a Church of strength, which per-severes,
In loving people where they are; In seeking them from near and far.
To bring them to a love of Thee, For now and through eternity. (Amen)

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: As we are here at our 100th birthday as a congregation, we come in thanks for blessings past. But we also recognize the need to permit our God to give cleansing through the forgiveness of sins. Thus, may we now draw nigh to God's throne of love and mercy and make the confession of our sins.

People: Almighty God, whom we worship and adore, we come unto Thee humbly and sincerely, beseeching Thee to cleanse us from sin and bring unto us through Thy Spirit a sense of righteousness. We confess sorrow for our sins and beseech Thee to give us of Thy grace. Forgive our sins, we implore Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

Our Drama: "The Challenge of the Cross" by Charles A. Marsh.

Our drama today has made such an impress upon the church at large that it has been translated into Spanish, Chinese and the dialects of India. Some 100,100 copies of this drama have been published through the years.

Produced here some years ago, we are happy to announce that the play's director is the same Mr. Albert Witzke, who produced in at the previous occasion. Our cast this morning is as follows:

Evangel: Miss Carol Jones

First Disciple: Miss Janice Houck

Second Disciple: Miss Lynn Stinchcomb

Third Disciple: Miss Linda Pate

Fourth Disciple: Miss Christine Palermo

Fifth Disciple: Miss Linda Gronberg

Sixth Disciple: Miss Barbara Jones

The Senior Choir will also participate in the drama.

We express appreciation to these who have contributed to our service this Anniversary Sunday.

We invite you to remain after the service today for the Anniversary Coffee Hour in the hall downstairs, Friendship Hall. While visiting with friends and fellow-members, you are invited to view again the exhibits in our Anniversary display.

Next Sunday: Regular services for the 1st Sunday in October at 7:45 a.m. and 10:15 a.m. with the Sacrament of Holy Communion at both services. This will be World Wide Communion Sunday and we shall receive a special offering for World Neighbors, our annual fall special offering for the relief of suffering and the need for rehabilitation throughout our world.

And we pray that all unity may one day be restored

Chorus: And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love.

Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love. (Amen)

We will walk with each other, We will walk hand in hand (repeat)

And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land.

We will work with each other, We will work side by side (repeat)

THE CONFESSION OF SINS (those communing, join in this Confession)

Almighty God, merciful Father: I, a poor sinner, acknowledge and confess my manifold sins, which I from time to time have committed, by thought, word and deed, against thy Divine Majesty. I do earnestly repent, and am heartily sorry for these my misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto me. I have no other comfort or hope than thy grace, which aboundeth above my guilt, and the precious merits of my Lord Jesus Christ. Longing after this grace, I say: Father, I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy child. Grant unto me pardon and peace, and strength to lead a new and righteous life, by the power of Thy Holy Spirit, through the same Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen

THE QUESTIONS OF FAITH (those communing, please make answer)

Pastor: I now ask you before the omniscient God, and upon the evidence of your own conscience:

Do you acknowledge and deplore your many sins with contrite heart?

Do you truly believe that our heavenly Father is willing, for Jesus' sake, to forgive all your sins?

Do you fully resolve to submit yourself in future to the gracious direction of the Holy Spirit, so that you may no more purposely sin, but be enabled to follow after holiness?

If this be your purpose then make this manifest by saying, 'I Do.

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor: Upon this humble confession which you have made, as a Minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, and by His authority, I declare unto you, who do truly repent and heartily believe in Jesus Christ, and are sincerely determined to amend your sinful life, the fact that God does forgive your sins and I make this proclamation in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.
