EASTER PEACE

The Savior's Easter greeting to His mourning disciples was a word of peace.

The peace that Jesus gives is the peace of which the angels sang o'er Bethlehem's plain. It is the peace of God which passeth all understanding. It comes when men have been reconciled to God, when the soul has been filled with the joy of the knowledge of salvation.

It is the peace which buoys us up at the departure of loved ones in death, for we know that they, if they be faithful, are in the hands of this God who gives peace throughout eternity.

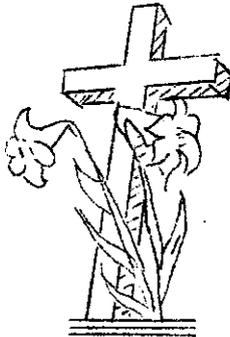

May this peace be in your possession this day.

AN EASTER PRAYER

May the glorious dawn of Easter morn
And all that it imparts,
Bring hope anew to everyone
And love to troubled hearts!

May the glory of our risen Lord,
Shine so the world may find
True brotherhood, with prayer and faith,
For peace to all mankind!

May the beauty of this glad springtime
Bring a radiant joy and cheer - -
And Easter's story told again,
Bring our Saviour very near!

Mother's Day

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH

May 13, 1973

Mothers Day is a family day. On this day we not only gather as families in church and home, but give thanks unto God for our family circle, for each other, for Father and Mother.

Thus, it is proper that we remember departed mothers, fathers and family members in the placing of memorials with our church. Our memory of departed loved ones is sacred, and through our giving we praise God for the faith which keeps us all united.

The position of a father in the family circle is just as important as that of a mother. Though after the father is gone from the home because of working requirements, yet his place within the family circle cannot be diminished.

Because the above is true the celebration of Father's Day is of equal importance to Mother's Day and our remembrance of departed fathers as tender as that of our mothers no longer with us.

The placing of Memorials with the Church to honor our fathers in memory is an outward manifestation of this great concern. May we, as we have given these Memorials, find a joy in the act of giving. May we also have a sense of thankfulness for our faith through which we are assured of life eternal from our God for all who love and serve the Lord in life.

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH

East Ave. & Dillon Str.

Baltimore, Maryland

The Christian faith meets man in every emergency and condition and exigency of life; and girdles the grave with the rainbow of hope and sows seeds of the promise of eternity among the soil of our sorrow which bloom in later days into the flowers of everlasting life.

We bear evidence today to this faith as we lovingly and reverently memorialize departed loved ones in these gifts to the church we love through the faith we express.

CHRISTMAS

1973

A wife and mother sat beside the casket of her beloved husband. It was only a few days before Christmas.

Some say, "What a terrible time to have a death in the family, at Christmas, when all should be merry."

Anytime is a terrible time for death in a family unless, at Christmas and through out the year, we can remember that at no time are we or our beloved dead outside the concern of our loving, heavenly Father. Always He loves us. Always He provides a place for us, here on earth, or in glory, if we love Him.

Thus as we think of our departed loved ones at this Christmas season, may we not be despondent at our loss, but thankful that He is greater than death, and forsakes not His own, at Christmas nor at any other time.
