TAKE A GOOD LAST LOOK

Give your final sigh of appreciation, utter your last statement about the beauty of our sanctuary at Christmas. This week the decorations will be removed, and the beauty will be gone until another Advent-Christmas. We do want to take this opportunity to thank the Decorations-Altar Committee who have so wonderfully been responsible for arranging our decorations during Advent. All through the year this committee, composed of Mr. and Mrs. George Sauer and Mrs. DeVaughn, gave of their time in changing altar hangings, arranging special floral decorations and keeping the chancel in perfect order.

We also want to express appreciation to Mr. John Lenning who comes every week at 7 a.m. to open the church and get things ready for worship, and then returns after the late service to close and lock the buildings.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: As we come unto God in the sense of imperfection, of needing his strength and His forgiveness, He does truly forgive our sins and grant us His forgiveness. Let us then make unto Him our confession.
People: Have mercy upon us, O God, according to thy loving kindness. According to the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out our transgressions. Wash us thoroughly from our iniquities, and cleanse us from our sin. Against thee have we sinned and done evil in thy sight. Create in us clean hearts, O God, and renew a right spirit within us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

THE KYRIE ELEISON, #518 in Hymnal

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us
People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us
Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us
People sing: Christ, have mercy upon us
Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us
People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor: God is aware of our petitions unto Him, and has promised that as often as we approach Him in supplication, that often will He hear us and cleanse us from our sins. Thus I announce to you that God does forgive your sins, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE PRAISE VERSICLE, #517 in the Hymnal
Pastor: O Lord, open Thou our lips
People sing: And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

*THE HYMN No. 225
A LITANY FOR LAITY SUNDAY

Leader: We praise thee, O Lord, for all valiant men and women who in days gone by, in days when persecution and trial were their lot; in days of spiritual darkness, gave their lives in dedication for thy church on earth. For all heroic dedication and willing sacrifice of lay people,

People: We bless thee, O Lord.

Leader: For those who have used their minds for the extension of thy kingdom, who have given us their writings in God's Word and in the other virtuous writings, to guide and lead us in holiness,

People: We praise thee, O Lord.

Leader: For unlettered men and women, who, by the example of dedicated lives and consecrated action; by simple kindness and warmth of heart, have made thy church a praise upon earth,

People: We bless thee, O Lord.

Leader: For the furtherance of brotherly feeling within thy church; for the sense of common concerns which draw us ever closer together,

People: We praise thee, O Lord.

Leader: We thank thee for the knowledge that lay people are important in Thy cause; that Thou dost expect much of us in the furtherance of Your Kingdom,

People: Accept our gratitude and make us workers for Thee. (Amen)

OUR PARTICIPANTS THIS MORNING

The Liturgist for our services is Mr. George Tuerk, an industrialist and the President of our Church Council.

The Reader of Scripture is Mrs. Roberta Jackson, housewife and Church member.

The Preacher is Mr. William Single, III, a lawyer and member of the Church Council.

We thank these and the laypeople of the choir plus our Acolytes and the Ushers for making this truly a Laity Sunday. We have many active laypeople in our congregation for which we ought to be grateful. An active church needs active members.

We are not of the night, nor of darkness

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: We are not worthy of the love of God nor of His mercy and forgiveness. Yet He would love us and grant us His absolution from sins, if we are sorry for these sins. May we therefore, humble, and in cognizance of our need for cleansing, now come in faith and make our confession.

People: Dear God, we are your children come home this morning unto yourself. We know that though we may try very hard, still we are not without sin, and so, for those sins we have unwillingly committed as for those purposely done, we ask your pardon and cleansing. Grant us new grace and new strength in your presence, we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

THE LITANY OF SELF-DEDICATION

Leader: Teach me, dear Lord, to keep kind and gentle in all the events of life - in disappointments, in thoughtlessness of others, in the insincerity of those I trusted, in the unfaithfulness of those on whom I relied,

People: Lord, help me to be mindful in these things.

Leader: Help me to put myself aside - to think of the happiness of others, to hide my little pains and heartaches, so that I may be the only one to suffer from them,

People: Lord, teach me the lesson of self-abasement.

Leader: Teach me to profit by the suffering that comes to me, Help me to use it that it may mellow me - not harden or embitter me, that it may make me patient, not irritable; that it may make me broad in my forgiveness; kindly, sympathetic and helpful.

People: O Lord, do help me to rededicate myself to the observance of these Christian virtues. (Amen)

Leader: Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires are known, and from whom no secrets are hid,

People: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts, by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love Thee, and worthily magnify Thy holy name.

Leader: Almighty God, from whom came life, love and all things good,

People: We consecrate our lives and souls to Thee this hour.

Leader: With the prayer in our hearts that we may be found worthy to carry to our fellowmen words of assurance and messages of hope,

People: We lift our voices in earnest desire that we may not be found wanting when opportunities of service come our way.

Leader: In gratitude to the great God above, from whom proceedeth every good and perfect gift, and for blessings that come to us, we know not how,

People: We give thanksgiving, praying that we may spread joy and blessing into the lives of those who have less than is ours.

Leader: In loving service of our churches which seek to spread abroad the message of our loving Saviour, which can break the shackles of wrong-doing and bring liberty to the soul,

People: We do seek to give ourselves, that people may possess the light of the gospel which brings reward to the soul and peace to the heart. To this end we consecrate ourselves. (Amen)

Pastor: We are not good enough, any of us, to claim the love of God, nor His forgiveness and mercy. But He, being the eternal God, and being love perfect, is mindful of us, His Children, and would grant us forgiveness of our sins. If you desire the cleansing of your sins, come with us now unto God and ask forgiveness.

People: O God, we your children, do come to you, and I, with the others would ask the cleansing of my sins by Your love. Forgive me my sins, cleanse me of unrighteousness and grant me your grace to live a better life in the days ahead. I would love and serve you faithfully. People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us

People sing: Christ, have mercy upon us

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us

People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor: Because of God's utter goodness and therefore His unwillingness to hold Him self apart from any who seek Him, I inform you that, for as many of you who are sincere, God does forgive your sins, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

THE PRAISE VERSICLE, #517 in Hymnal

Pastor: O Lord, open Thou our lips

People sing: And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

*THE HYMN (Tune: #76) No. 216

THE LITANY FOR QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY

Leader: Send forth to us, Lord God, your Holy Spirit, and pour upon us the manifold gifts of your grace. For we your people are gathered together to celebrate your presence among us, and to ask for your blessings upon each one of us.

People: Dwell in our lives, that we may each be guided to use the gifts you have given us.

Leader: Help us to use the gift of life to protect and guide those entrusted to our care; and grant that we may be responsible in the exercise of our strength,

People: Help us to use the gift of life to enrich and care for those entrusted to us; grant that we may be faithful in the exercise of our love.

Leader: As you stand among us, Lord, so is love present here, for you are love,

People: Put into us your love, and overflow our lives with its richness.

Leader: In love may we avoid the pride and selfishness of power, and deal with others with respect, and with honor,

People: In love, may we avoid arrogance and jealousy of others; and stand in the beauty of love's kindness and forbearance.

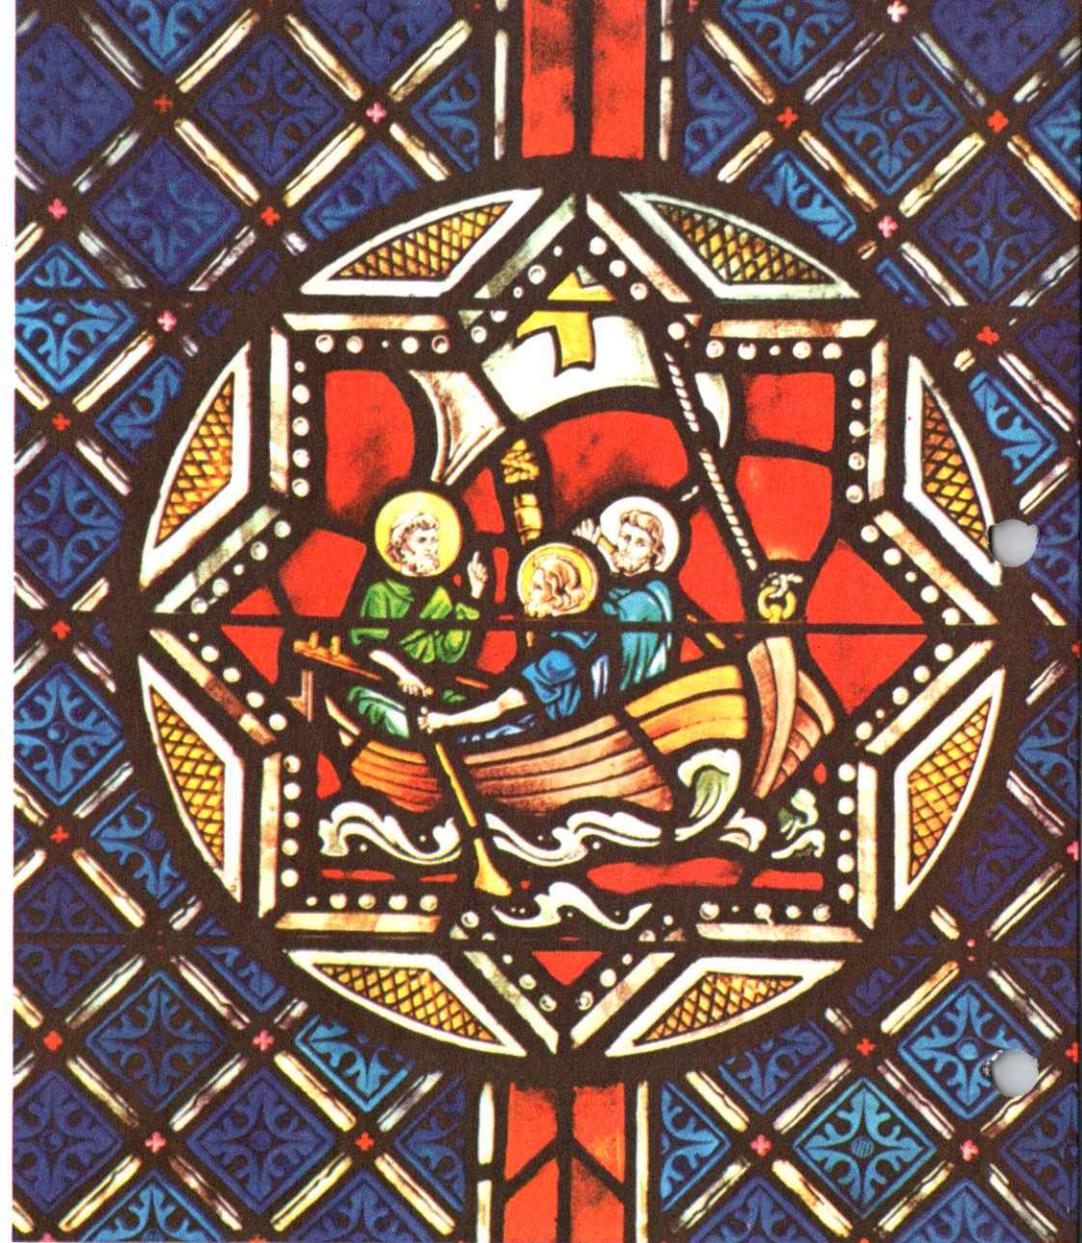

Leader: As your Son came to minister to others, so may we, his people care for the needs of men.

People: And in all our doings, may we glorify you - Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen

WE THANK YOU

We are appreciative to our youth for the preparation of the banners which hang in our sanctuary for the Lenten Season. It is a distinct service to the church these youth render.

MEETINGS, EVENTS, NEWS NOTES

Bible Story Hour- Mrs. Rasche begins the group of Bible stories this morning at 9:10 in Friendship Hall. This is an informal gathering for men, women and youth. Will continue through 1st 4 Sundays in March. You are welcome.

Church School, 9 a.m., for all age groups.

Children's Choir - We seek to organize a children's choir this morning after the late service, with rehearsal from 11:30 to 12 noon each Sunday. Your children ought to be in this group. Meeting in Friendship Hall.

Scouts - full contingent of Scout meetings for Boy and Girl Scouts, tomorrow.

Sewing Group - Tues. at 10 a.m.

Church Council, Tues. at 8 p.m.

Ladies Aid, meets on Wed. at 12 noon.

Midweek Service - Another of the informal Lenten services here in the sanctuary on Wed. at 8 p.m. Come, you will receive much good from these services. Based on questions from the Catechism. Fellowship Hour follows each service, with Bake Sale. Sale this week by the Church School.

Work Day for Lenten Sale on Thurs., Fri. We need all the help we can get for this tremendous task of preparing materials for sale on Fridays. Work here all day Thurs. and on Fri. a.m.'s.

Confirmation

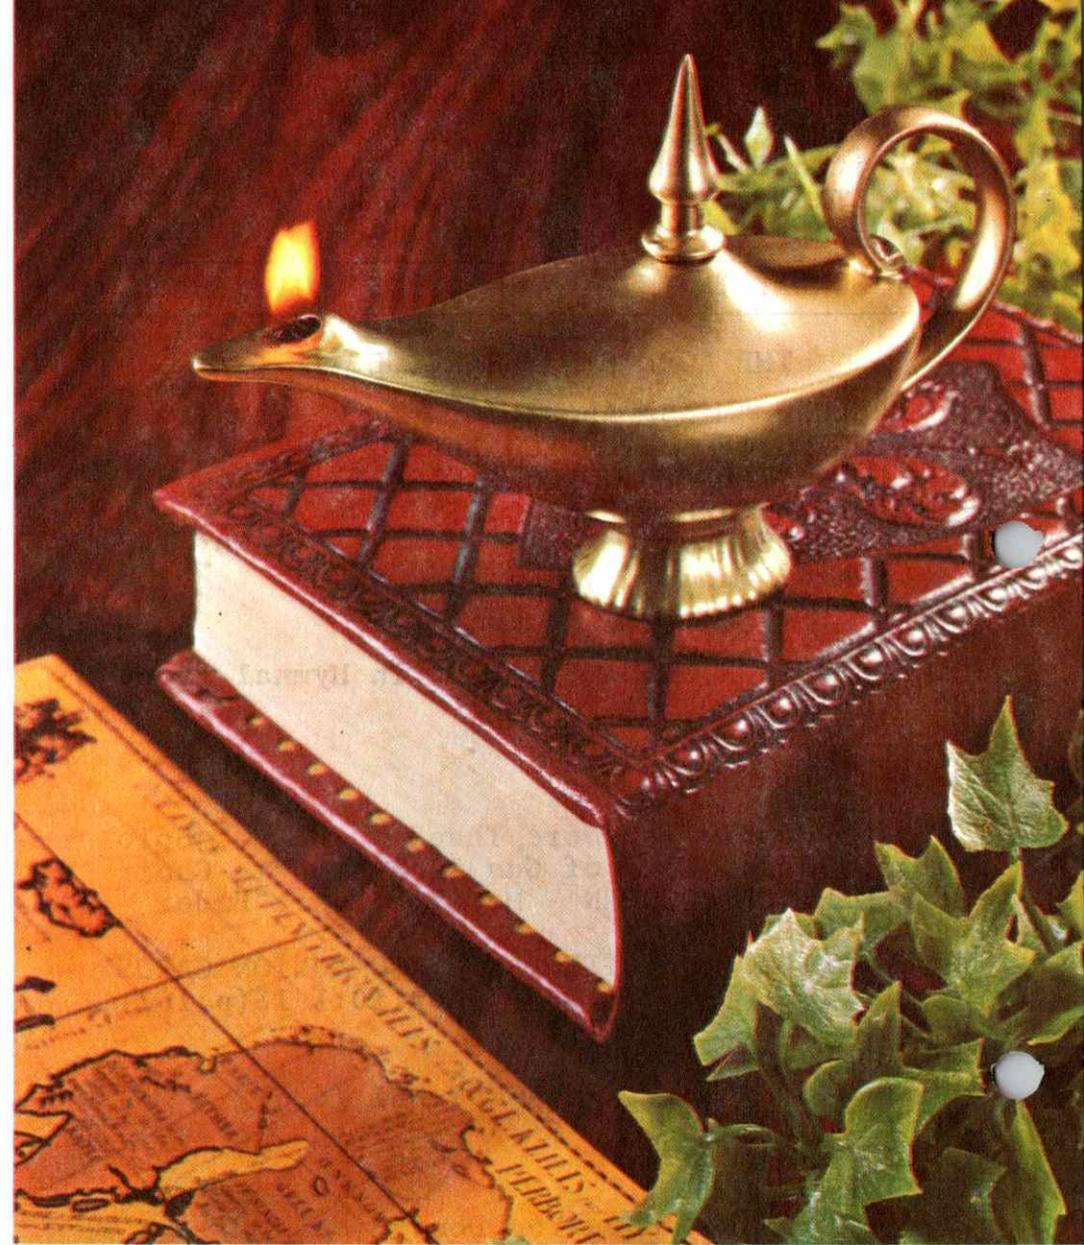

1st yr. class, Sundays at 9 a.m.

2nd yr. class, Thurs., 7:30 in the Gym.

Lenten Sale, Friday. Get orders in, Wed. p.m.

Next Sunday - Services at 8:00 and 10:15 a.m. with the message and liturgy for the 2nd Sunday in Lent. We shall observe Girl Scout Sunday in the 10:15 a.m. service.

Get your questions in. Consult the Catechism in pew racks (front pews) and write down the question about which you desire more information. Or, state the question about the faith you may have in mind. We use these Wed. evens.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: Beloved in the Lord, let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God, our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

People: Almighty God, our Maker and Redeemer, we poor sinners confess unto Thee that we are by nature sinful and unclean and that we have sinned against Thee by thought word and deed. Therefore we flee for refuge to Thine infinite mercy, seeking and imploring Thy grace for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ. Have mercy upon us, and for His sake grant us remission of all our sins, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

Leader: Here we see the greatness of Your love that banishes all fear,

People: To the Lord we express this allegiance now and forever.

Leader: Here may we learn the obedience of Him "who humbled himself and became obedient unto death - even the death of the cross."

People: To the Lord we would vow a following of His way and would show our deep concern that His strength be in Us. With the hymnwriter we say,

By the light of burning martyrs

Leader: From weakness of judgment; from the indecision that can make no choice, and the irresolution that carries no choice into act, strengthen our eye to see and our will to choose the right; and from perplexing others with uncertainties,

People: Yes, Lord, save us.

Leader: From weariness in continuing struggles; from despondency in failure and disappointment; and from all exaggerated fears and vexations,

People: Lord, we pray thee to redeem us.

Leader: In all times of temptation; when we are prone to follow pleasure, to leave duty for amusement, to indulge in distraction and dissipation, and to degrade our high calling; and in all times of frailty in our flesh,

People: Dear Lord, give us Thy strength.

Leader: Give us knowledge of ourselves, our powers and weaknesses, our spirit, our imagination, our truth; teach us by the standard of Thy Word, by the judgements of others, by examinations of ourselves; give us earnest desire to strength ourselves continually by study, by diligence, by prayer and meditation; and from all facies, delusions and prejudices of habit or temper, People: O Lord, hear these petitions we make. (Amen)

THE LITANY FOR EASTER

Leader: On this glorious, holy morning, let us praise and thank God for His goodness,

People: Glory be to You, O Lord God Almighty, for You have over-come death, and granted resurrection life to Your obedient Son, Jesus Christ, that the way to eternal life might be opened to all who will trust and believe in Him.

Leader: Let us be joyful in the new hope which Jesus' resurrection gives to all believers,

People: As Christ lives, we pray that we, too, may have new life, after we pass thru the portals of death. Grant this, by Your almighty power.

Leader: Let us ask God's help to put aside the old flavorings of sinful living,

People: Call and challenge us, Heavenly Father, to put aside our grudges, our jealousies, our hatreds; for they lead us to unhappiness, and loneliness and strife.

Leader: Let us accept God's presence, and, with it, His way of life,

People: Guide and strengthen us to put into our living the qualities of trust, faithfulness, love and mercy; for they can enrich our lives, and make us blessings to all we meet. Let us take the joy of the Resurrection into all we do. (Amen)

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: Our God has extended to us the privilege of coming unto him in humility requesting the forgiveness of our sins and the cleansing of our lives from sins effects. May we at this moment come unto Him as His children, seeking this forgiveness. May we confess our sins.

People: O God, we come in the name of our risen Christ to confess that we are not holy, neither good. We express the need for the cleansing you have promised and the sense of sins forgiven, that we may be stronger in righteousness and better enabled to live the kind of good life we know you expect. Grant this, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

THE LITANY

Leader: Our Lord and our God. You have brought Jesus Christ forth from the grave, defeating sin and death on our behalf; enter into our struggle with temptation, and into our efforts to live by faith, and help us to entrust our lives to you.

People: Grant that we may know our Saviour well: That he trusted God in all things; that he chose God's truth over man's follies; that he was faithful and loyal to the last; that he has been exalted to eternal glory.

Leader: Help us to overcome the enemies of faith; the selfishness that would smother love; the greed that blinds us to concern; the indulgence that destroys discipline; the indifference which leads to bitterness; the fear that cuts off hope.

People: Strengthen us by your Spirit to live by faith: by risking our best efforts to serve others; by openness to your Word and to prayer; by joining in the many efforts of your people; by showing your love to others, far and near.

Leader: Heavenly Father. We, your people, bring before you this day our deepest concerns for ourselves, our world, our loved ones and friends; for Jesus' sake, hear our prayers and bring your blessing, your peace, your healing and strengthening to our needs

People: We ask this in the name of our Risen Lord and Master. (Amen)

Leader: Our Father, we thank you for showing us through Christ that your love for us is constant, and help us to use your love through our faith and trust in your Son,

People: When the present circumstances of life wear us down, call to remembrance our baptism and your acceptance of us. When the evil one takes control and we sin, remind us of the cross, and your forgiveness given us. When death draws near for us or a loved one, make vivid the promised eternal life which you will give us.

Leader: Merciful Creator, we thank you for making us the ones who continue the work of your Son, and pray that you will give strength to us for the mission you have set before us,

1.As soon as you take your seat please fill out the Attendance-Communion card and pass to center aisle for collection.

2.Turn to p. 22 in front of Hymnal for the Confession of Sins. Also be prepared to unite in the singing of the Agnus Dei (#526).

3.We have 'open communion.' All who have received training for the Sacrament either here or at another church are invited to attend.

4.People will sing the 'Amens' in the service. Also participate in the singing of the Communion Hymn,#214, singing a stanza as each group leaves the altar.

MRS. MARY ELLEN KITCHEN, OUR GUEST

Our guest speaker this morning is Mrs. Mary Ellen Kitchen, the approved nominee of the Church Council and the Pastor for the position of Associate Pastor of the Church. We were happy to have Mrs. Kitchen with us last Sunday as liturgist, and today as our guest speaker. Following each of our services today there will be a Fellowship Hour in Friendship Hall, to give you the opportunity to get acquainted with Mrs. Kitchen.

Then, at both services next Sunday, at 8:00 and 10:15, at the conclusion of the service, a congregational meeting will be called to present the opportunity to all members to express their opinion through the ballot in reference to the calling of Mrs. Kitchen as the full-time Associate Pastor of the congregation.

EVANGELISTIC CRUSADE DRAWS NEAR

The week of May 19 is our Evangelistic Week here, with services each evening at 7:30 with the message brought by our evangelist, Dr. Preston Sartelle. Also 'prayer' service each morning at 7 a.m. and Bible Hour each morning at 10 a.m. Let's put all else aside for this week and be here constantly to make the week a success. Assist the Lord in making a resurgence of renewal in our church life

People: O sing to the Lord a new song: For He has done marvelous things.

Leader: We rejoice in the resurrection of Jesus Christ in this Eastertide season, and for the astounding news that, through our faith and trust in him, we may have eternal life with you. Set our eyes and our hearts on that goal, O Lord.

People: All the ends of the earth Have seen the victory of our God.

Leader: As you have commanded your followers to proclaim your love of Christ to all the world, so help us never to hoard the blessings which you have given us, but, as good managers, to use them to help others, and to invite them to find new life in you, and the hope of your actions in Christ.

People: Make a joyful noise to the Lord, All the earth: Break forth into joyous song and sing praises.

Leader: Blessed Lord God, accept the worship and praise which we have brought unto you this day; and continue our worship in living which acknowledges and shows your Lordship; and from our worship, inspire our thoughts, words and deed, that they may be joyful praises to you, Our Father.

WE WELCOME OUR EVANGELIST

WE INVITE YOU TO PARTICIPATE ALL WEEK

We want to extend a hearty word of welcome to our evangelist for this Evangelism Crusade the Rev. Dr. Preston Orr Sartelle, of Bristol Tennessee. Dr. Sartelle comes to us through the offices of the Presbyterian Evangelistic Fellowship. He will present the message in each service this morning and will be in activity throughout the week here.

Early each morning, at 7 a.m., he will lead us in an 'early bird' Prayer session. This will be in Friendship Hall(entrance from Dillon St.) and will be about ½ hr. in duration. You are invited to this, as you are on your way to school, or to work, or even as a housewife making special effort to be here.

At 10 a.m. each day (again in Friendship Hall) Dr. Sartelle will conduct a Bible Hour,

"and rest yourselves under the tree."

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: The Word of God says, 'The mercy of God endureth forever.' It is in this mercy that God forgives the sins of the penitent. If you truly desire such forgiveness, then make your confession unto God.
People: Almighty God, be pleased to forgive my sins, committed against your goodness. Strengthen me to do your will, thru Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE KYRIE ELEISON, #518 in Hymnal

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us
People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us
Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us
People sing: Christ have mercy upon us
Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us
People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor: Because it is the promise of God, and He never forsakes His promises, I announce to you that God forgives your sins if you are truly humble, and I make this proclamation through Jesus Christ our Lord.
(Amen)

THE LITANY OF JESUS' WORDS

Leader: Jesus said, I am the light of the world.

People: We are the light of the world....
Let our light so shine that men may see our good words and glorify our Father which is in heaven.

Leader: Jesus said, I am the true vine.

People: We are the branches.....Let our fruit so invigorate that men may see the fruitfulness of its power and glorify our Father, the husbandman.

Leader: Jesus said, I am the bread of life.

People: We are the bread of life.....Let us ourselves so nourish mankind that they, being sustained, may glorify the giver of all sustenance.

Leader: Jesus said, I am the living water.

People: We are the waters of life....Quench the thirst of this parched world.

Leader: Jesus said, I am the door.

People: We are doors.....Let us be opened so wholeheartedly that men may see the welcome of our brotherliness and glorify the Father.

Leader: Jesus said, I am the good shepherd.

People: We are shepherds.....Let us be responsible for bringing the children of God into that flock which encompasses the whole earth.

Leader: Jesus said, I am the way, the truth, the life.

People: We are ways, truths, lives...Let our ways, truth, lives, so lead and declare the way of God that men may glorify Him by their lives. We pray this, O Lord.
(Amen)

THE LITANY OF ANNIVERSARY

Pastor: We praise Thee, O Lord, for the hosts of valiant men and women who, through the years of Christian history, have served Thee in the pastorate of Thy Church, throughout the world,

People: We bless Thee, O Lord.

Pastor: For the manner in which Thy people have followed the direction and guidance of these consecrated leaders so that Thy Church has prospered in the fulfillment of its commission to bring the gospel of salvation to millions of the world's children,

People: We give Thee thanks.

Pastor: We would this day thank Thee for a particular ministry which reaches a half-century mark, and for the advance of Thy Kingdom achieved, through Thy grace, by this Thy servant, Ralph Weisser, in those areas in which he has served,

People: We glorify Thy name, O Lord.

Pastor: Father of all mankind, may Thy spirit of wisdom and holiness, courage, patience, charity and zeal, which has been bestowed upon him, continue to be Thy blessing unto him, that he may further serve Thee stalwartly and faithfully. Be with his wife as she also continues the life of dedication and service with him unto Thee. In the sunset of a life-work may they know the blessings Thou hast in

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: Our faith holds up the necessity of coming unto God in our individual lives, requesting the forgiveness of our sins and expressing our sorrow for sins committed. If you are desirous of this forgiveness and if you are penitent for sins, join us now in this confession.

People: Eternal God, our judge and redeemer: we confess that we have tried to hide from thee, for we have done wrong. We have lived for ourselves. We have refused to shoulder the troubles of others, and turned from our neighbors. We have often ignored the pain of the world. O God, in thy great mercy, forgive our sins and free us from selfishness, that we may choose thy will and obey thy commandments; through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

People: We thank and praise you, Lord God.

Leader: For the creation of our Universe, with its balance and majesty:

People: We thank and praise you, Lord God.

Leader: For the infinite variety of life, and the provision for each form to live and reproduce:

People: We thank and praise you, Lord God.

Leader: For your making time, and creating space; and for your declaration that in the last day, you will make all things new:

People: We thank and praise you, Lord God.

Leader: For bringing to us, and showing to us God's love, and his will for human lives:

People: We thank and praise you, Jesus.

Leader: For your steadfast faith in the Father, and for your complete trust in him through your suffering and death, that brought you his victory in the resurrection

People: We thank and praise you, Jesus.

Leader: And, O Holy Spirit, we praise and worship your presence with us, which has called unto faith, and which constantly strengthens us, and helps us to grow. Never leave us, and always work in us the fruits of Christian living.

People: Take away our sin, and save us that, freed from punishment and fear, we may serve you with glad hearts.

Leader: Holy Spirit, God with us, our helper, guide and friend,

People: Move in our hearts, and stir us to new life, that we may reject sinful ways, and strive to live for you.

Leader: Bless and direct your people in all the world,

People: That the Holy Christian Church may be united in spirit, with each member drawn to the others as they live for you.

Leader: As we follow in a long line of men and women of faith,

People: Help us to learn from them, and keep us a part of your redeemed, that we may dwell with all your saints eternally. We pray through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)
