EASTER - - - 1974

Ida Norton Munson wrote these meaningful lines -

Because upon the first glad Easter day
The stone that sealed His tomb was rolled away,
So, through the deepening shadows of
    death's night,
Men see an open door.....beyond it,
    light.

Easter is truly an open door, an open door by which we can come into true fellowship with our Father God, through Christ our Lord. The Cross is not the victor; the grave is not the conqueror. Christ broke the sadness, the gloom of Good Friday. The light of the Resurrection gives us the evidence that we need not be disconsolate at the death of loved ones. Easter means that their death, as ours, is not, will not, be final. The light of everlasting light shines in Easter. Thus we know that in Christ and His Resurrection they, and we, are victorious. Because of Easter we have the promise of everlasting life, which is a state of glory and joy.

THE WORLD NEEDS EASTER

The world must know that there is God,
Who marked the way that we should trod,
By sending Christ to us, His Son...
The Truth, the Way, the Only One.

Thus God prepared for us the way,
When Jesus all our debts did pay...
For our forgiveness met the price,
Of death through utter sacrifice.

And God, through His own promised Word,
Abiding hope in hearts has stirred,
For Christ arose! No death, no strife...
Just faith in Him - Eternal Life!

MOTHER'S DAY, 1974
(Festival of the Christian Home)

The home is still the bulwark of the nation. As the home grows weak in its influence for good morals in living in behalf of its members, so also eventually the national scene weakens in its observance of high morality in its affairs. The potent of the home in all of life cannot be diminished.

Thus we honor our homes today and our Mothers, from whom come so much of the influence of goodness and strength in family and personal life.

We memorialize our dear Mothers who have gone ahead to glory by our memorial gifts. We honor our living mothers with our love and affection of this, their day.

FATHER'S DAY MEMORIALS

BIRTHDAY MEMORIALS

ALTAR FLOWERS

1974

Each year two days are set aside in honor of our parents - Mother's Day and Father's Day. Though the first has been given greater importance in many lives, the second ought not be slighted. For, our father should be as tightly held in our love as our mother. Both are God-given. Because each is a gift of God to us, just as we are to them, we should respect and honor each highly. Not only for physical sustenance and for watchfulness over us do we respect and honor each, but moreso for the love each has bestowed upon us.

Thus it is proper we highlight this day in our services, and thus it is proper also we place gifts of memory with our beloved church to honor our departed father, just as we love and respect those fathers still with us.

Through our faith we can meet any of the exigencies of life even to the departure of loved ones unto life eternal.

Because of our faith we can be in the constant assurance that they and we are always in the love of God, which love sustains us in our deepest need, which love inspired us with a strength to face life in our sorrow and to conquer despair and despondency through forceful Christian living.

We bear evidence to that faith today in our Totenfest celebration, a celebration in which the joy of the Christian position is expressed. Because Christ lives, we and they who believe in Christ will also live.

We place our love gifts and memorials with the church because of this Christian joy. We thus memorialize our departed love ones.

THE MESSAGE OF CHRISTMAS

O Light of the great God
Which has shined in our darkness -
Lord of Life -
Light for us the Fire of Life
In this our House of Prayer.

O Lord, look upon us;
We lift to Thee our lamps,
Even our hearts,
Let them be lit up with Thy Light.

Great God of all goodness,
Lord of Life - Spirit of Holiness,
Thou art worthy to be worshipped by
all men,
Great God - we children worship
We kneel before Thee.

We worship,

We worship.

Anon.

LET US KEEP CHRISTMAS

Let's keep Christmas always
And ever in our hearts,
Not just for a season
Or just a day apart.

Let's keep quiet kindness
Of cattle, standing by,
Let's keep joyous music
of Angels from the sky.

Let's keep love and worship,
As shepherds did, that night,
Let's keep all the glory
Of starlight, shining bright.
