Call to Confession and Confession of Sin:

Pastor: Jesus came into the city amid shouts and praises to God from the people. The waving of palm branches and the laying of garments on the street gave evidence of His true royalty.

People: But those people were like us. Their joy and praise were short-lived. Their words changed from "Hosanna" to "Crucify Him". Therefore we would lift our voices in a prayer of confession.

All: God our Father, we have sinned. We have sinned against you, against your Son, Jesus Christ, and against the Holy Spirit. Our love for you and for our friends, neighbors, and enemies is not as it should be. It does not nearly match your love for us. Have mercy upon us; change us into your faithful creatures; and help us to fulfill your mission and purpose for this world; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the night in which he was betrayed, took bread; and, when he had given thanks, he brake it and gave it to his disciples, saying, take, eat; this is my body, which is given for you; this do in remembrance of me.

After the same manner also, he took the cup, when he had supped, and, when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, drink ye all of it; this cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you, and for many for the remission of sins; this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

THE CROSS AND THE CROWN

Why did Jesus have to suffer torture and experience what mortals call "death"? Because that was His mission. Mark tells us (10:45), "For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Thus it was with Jesus. He came into a world filled with intolerance and injustice; a world where men followed the "party line," and any who attempted to challenge the established order were obliged to recant or be put to death. He had a gift to offer more precious than earthly freedom--the gift of eternal life.

Few would accept the gift. The ultimate in human agony would be required of Jesus. When it was all over, a few would know the glorious truth. They would "go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

And, since "The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant before his lord" (Matt. 10:24) we too, must be ready to make sacrifices. There is no crown for those who will not share the burden of the cross.

The "burden of the cross" is not something we have but something we need. It is the brokenness needed for our human pride and self-sufficiency. It is the pouring out of God's forgiveness for our sinfilled thoughts, words, and deeds. It is our need to experience a broken and contrite human spirit, necessary to receive the fulness of God's love.

the Seven Last Words

Father, forgive them;
for they know not what they do. ✠ Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise. ✠ Woman, behold, thy son! Behold, thy mother! ✠ My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? ✠
I thirst. ✠ It is finished. ✠ Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit.

We express our gratitude to United Evangelical Church, United Church of Christ, and the Rev. W. Scott Hengen, III, Host Pastor for their cooperation and help to make this service possible here today. We appreciate, as well, the support of clergy and members of other churches of Canton and Highlandtown than those represented in the leadership of this service.

the Seven Last Words Father, forgive them;
for they know not what they do. ✝ Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise. ✝ Woman, behold, thy son! Behold, thy mother! ✝ My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? ✝
I thirst. ✝ It is finished. ✝ Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin:

Pastor: Sometimes our worship seems like empty ritual, a stream of worn-out words, and a mere repeating of out-dated ideas.

People: And yet we remember those early Christians were possessed by a new spirit, seemed filled with a powerful fire, and appeared intoxicated with a life-giving enthusiasm.

Pastor: On this the Church's birthday celebration we come together to express our praise and joy.

People: And to confess our sins and shortcomings as fellow-ministers in Christ's Church.

All: Eternal God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we come to this time and place as your disobedient children. Our worship has been misplaced. We have served ourselves instead of your purposes for us. Even our happiness is not built upon the joy of serving others. Forgive and recreate us as your new creatures. Change and redirect us by the living presence of the Holy Spirit in every aspect of our lives. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen.

others. Forgive and recreate us as your new creatures. Change and redirect us by the liv-pect of our lives. In Jesus' Name we pray.*

Amen.
