Call to Confession and Confession of Sin:

Pastor: We come to adore the Living God who is the ground of all that is, who holds us in being, and without whom we could not be.

People: Out of universal silence, God's living word has come forth to give form and beauty to the world, to give purpose to human life, to declare the forgiveness of our sins, and to free us from the fear of death.

Pastor: Beyond praise to the God of all persons and things and to Jesus Christ our Saviour and Lord, we come in His Spirit, given to each of us at our baptism, to share together in the fullness of His grace.

People: Since Christ has called us to make every moment meaningful for the mission of His church, we also come to confess our sins.

All: Supreme Ruler of all time and space, who loved us so much that you gave your only Son to suffer and die for us, accept our confession of ourselves as believers who have sinned. Lost in the world's confusion, we are often unsure of ourselves. Carried by the world's love for false gods, we too are idol worshippers. And held by the world's dealings with death and destruction, we participate in the murder of truth and goodness. Forgive us, renew us, and then use us as faithful believers, through Jesus Christ.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce, therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

"WE WOULD SEE JESUS"

1. We would see Jesus; lo! His star is shining,
Above the stable while the angels sing;
There in a manger on the hay reclining,
Haste, let us lay our gifts before the King.
2. We would see Jesus, Mary's Son most holy,
Light of the village life from day to day,
Shining revealed through every task most lowly,
The Christ of God, the Life, the Truth, the Way.
3. We would see Jesus on the mountain teaching
With all the listening people gathered round
While birds and flowers and sky above are preaching
The Blessedness which simple trust has found.
4. We would see Jesus in His work of healing
At eventide before the sun was set;
Divine and human, in His deep revealing
Of God and man in loving service met.
5. We would see Jesus; in the early morning
Still as of old He calleth, "Follow Me:"
Let us arise, all meaner service scorning
Lord, we are Thine, we give ourselves to Thee!

Amen

Of such is the kingdom of heaven

Pastor: We come to adore the living God who is the ground of all that is, who holds us in being, and without whom we could not be.

People: Out of universal silence, God's living word has come forth to give form and beauty to the world, to give purpose to human life, to declare the forgiveness of our sins, and to free us from the fear of death.

Pastor: Beyond praise to the God of all persons and things and to Jesus Christ our Saviour and Lord, we come in His Spirit, given to each of us at our baptism, to share together in the fullness of His grace.

People: Since Christ has called us to make every moment meaningful for the mission of His church, we also come to confess our sins.

All: Supreme Ruler of all time and space, who loved us so much that you gave your only Son to suffer and die for us, accept our confession of ourselves as believers who have sinned. Lost in the world's confusion, we are often unsure of ourselves. Carried by the world's love for false gods, we too are idol worshippers. And held by the world's dealings with death and destruction, we participate in the murder of truth and goodness. Forgive us, renew us, and then use us as faithful believers, through Jesus Christ.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce, therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

● Call to Confession and Confession of Sin:

Pastor: We are here today to bring special praise to the same Living God who has made possible our lives and our life together.

People: From nothing, God has made His world and us, brings order out of chaos, and points us forward in hope to an ultimate completion of all He has begun by His Spirit.

Pastor: As Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, God moves, acts, and leads us to proclaim His wonder, mercy, and love through the forgiveness of our sins and the misdeeds of others against us.

People: Our mission, then, is twofold: to experience together God's forgiving love and to share with others the power of forgiving those who have wronged us.

● All: We come together as sinful believers, O God, to ask that our sins and the sins of others be forgiven. In Christ we see our forgiveness and our freedom from the world's sin happening. Include us within His circle of inclusive love that through the Word, Sacraments, and ministry of Christ's Church we may move beyond our confusion, our love for false gods, and our murder of truth and goodness. Free us to become renewed in our commitment as faithful believers to tell, to do, to become, and to celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ. Amen

Pastor: We come to worship the Living God who has created this world, preserved it until now, and provides for its future.

People: We join together to express our joy, to lift our hearts in adoration, to remember God's many gifts to us, to hear His Word to us, and to celebrate the opportunity to serve others.

Pastor: We also come together to confess before God our sinful ways and words to acknowledge our sins of pride, envy, anger, self-indulgence, anxiety, and laziness.

People: And to find in Christ Jesus, our Lord, the forgiveness and mercy we need to renew our life together as a believing community

*Processional Hymn 77

Solemn Declaration, Psalm 145:1-3 (p.557)

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin:

Pastor: Good morning everyone!

People: Good morning Pastor!

Pastor: It is a good morning because God has made the world and us who live here on "spaceship earth".

People: And that same God maintains this world. It is sustained in the delicate balances of force and counterforce by God's infinite love. Therefore, we bring our praise and thanksgiving to that loving God.

Pastor: Do we have even more to be thankful for?

People: Yes, God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit shows how much he cares for us in myriads of other ways. And especially in Jesus Christ do we find both the forgiveness of our sins and shortcomings and the hope of eternal life with God.

Pastor: Then let us confess our sins.

All: We come, O God, recognizing our limited and finite lives within the whole of creation. And we ask forgiveness for how we have misused the good earth made available to us. We confess the pollution of the air and water. We apologize for thinking of ourselves better than we really are. We even acknowledge how we have used other human beings like ourselves in mammoth schemes for our own advantages. Change us anew into loving and caring persons. And like Jesus Christ, our Lord, may we be able to communicate the good news of His coming Kingdom to others through our words and deeds. In His Name we pray. Amen.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce, therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Pastor: Luke 18:9-14 (p. 79)

People: We join together now in humility conscious of both our individual and our corporate sinfulness. We confess to injuring each other here and elsewhere by envy, jealousy and hate. In this process we have weakened our own souls. Hear us, O Lord, as we recognize that our confession implies both repentance and a determination to do better in the future. Grant us now your loving forgiveness and in the future your kind assistance. (Silent prayers of personal confession.)

Assurance of Pardon

Pastor: *In spite of our sinfulness, one fact remains unchanged; that fact is the forgiving love God has had for us in the past and has for us right now. And He will always have this love for us.
That good news brings each of us to a new life through Jesus Christ, our Lord. (Amen)*

Pastor: The Season of Advent is here.

People: We prepare ourselves for Christ's coming.

Pastor: We proclaim His coming in human form and into our personal lives anew.

People: He comes to proclaim good news to the poor, sight to the blind, freedom to the captive, healing to the sick, and justice to the downtrodden.

Pastor: And He comes with faith, joy, hope, and new life to those who respond with repentance and turn from their evil ways to Him.

People: We respond, then, with our confession. We seek to turn from our evil ways. And we turn to Him and His Light for new direction in our total lives.

All: As Father, O God, in sending your Son You have shown your fatherly love for us. As Son, O God, You have shown You are one with us. And as Holy Spirit, O God, You are present here to help us fulfill our destiny. Take from us our faults. Help us to see better our mistakes. Point us to the humility of a helpless infant Child that we may see our own abuses of power. Turn our selfishness into gifts of love. Remake our lives into examples of personal caring. And develop us into a community of outreaching concern so we can use our strengths and our abilities to proclaim the good news of Your Coming. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen

CHRISTMAS EVE

8:30 p.m.

Enjoy the beauty of God's House in silence
PRELUDE: Prelude on "The Coventry Carol"

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 112

CHRISTMAS GREETING AND CALL TO CELEBRATE:

Pastor: Advent has ended and Christmas is here. I greet you in the Name of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. And I call you to forsake the ill-intended ways of the outside world in order to give your full attention to the celebration now beginning. Join me as together we bring praise and honor to the Living God, who through the Gift of His Own Son showers blessings of fulfillment, forgiveness, justice, and joy upon us.

People: We heed your call and bring greetings to you and to each other. We respond in faith to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. We are encouraged by the hope made sure by God's incarnation into our kind of humanity. And we are enriched by His never-ending love, given to each of us as an infant-child too fragile to feel secure without our kind of caring love.

Pastor: The faith, hope and love that you bring this night is also shared by others too sick, too feeble, too scared, or too unconcerned to be with us here in this place of worship and beauty. Therefore, our lives of faith, our words of hope, and our deeds of love must speak louder than the songs we sing. And our worship of the Christ-child can never remain just within these walls, but reach out like the beams of a star to those in need of

His guiding light.

People: We come here this night, as came the shepherds and kings to the manger in Bethlehem, to celebrate the giving of God's most precious gift to us, His only begotten Son. And we come as a response to that Gift to give of ourselves to Him, to His Church, and to others. With praises on our lips and love in our hearts, we are here to share together the story of that most blessed event.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin:

Pastor: Joy to the world and to the church, for our Lord has come in human form to save us.

People: Yes, come as an infant child to set us free and to lead us like a shepherd into new joy.

Pastor: Come into His presence with singing and into the courts of His stable with praise.

People: The manger invites us to step forward and see the Gift God has given us. And we find God has presented us with the most precious gift of all. Emanuel, God Himself is with us. Alleluia!

Pastor: Come, then, as on bended knee, to bring homage to this King of kings and queens, to this Lord of lords and ladies, to this Son of the most high God.

All: Most holy, yet humble, Christ-Child we come to You as our Savior. We bring with us our worldly problems and concerns. We have misused the human power You have given us. We have spent our talents in wrong directions. We have worshipped false gods. And we have experienced the darkness of sin. Speak pardon and peace to us. Change us into the true followers You would have us become. Bring to us anew the Light that we need. And grant us Your reassuring love to guide us toward Your future.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you."

just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.
