COME TO THE SAVIOUR

1. *Come to the Saviour now,
He gently calleth thee;
In true repentance bow,
Before Him bend the knee;
He waiteth to bestow
Salvation, peace and love;
True joy on earth below,
A home in heaven above.*

2. *Come to the Saviour now,
Ye who have wandered far;
Renew your solemn vow,
For His by right you are;
Come, like poor wandering sheep
Returning to His fold;
His arm will safely keep,
His love will ne'er grow cold.*

3. *Come to the Saviour all,
Whate'er your burdens be;
Hear now His loving call,
"Cast all your care on Me."
Come, and for every grief,
In Jesus you will find
A sure and safe relief,
A loving Friend and kind.*

UNITED EVANGELICAL UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
East Avenue and Dillon St. Baltimore, Md.
The Rev. W. Scott Hengen, III - Pastor

Sunday, June 19, 1977

June 19, 1977

It has been rightfully said that a person has difficulty developing a mature concept of the fatherhood of God without knowing what it is like to experience the love, concern and leadership of a human father. Even substitute fathers, as in the case of adoption, are important for this concept to be developed within a growing child or young person. Therefore, what Father's Day helps us celebrate is the Christian love, concern and leadership of fathers, who, by God's grace, exhibit in their personal lives what God the Father, made available to our Lord Jesus Christ.

Remembering our fathers through memorial gifts such as are represented by this booklet, indicates our continuing gratitude to God for the gift of fathers which he has given to us. Deeds of Christian love, concern and leadership in the past can also be expressed by each one of us through similar kinds of deeds in the present and in the future.

Pastor Hengen

UNITED EVANGELICAL UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

MEMORIAL SUNDAY

November 20, 1977

M E M O R I A L S U N D A Y
November 20, 1977

Our unity with those Church members and other Christians who have passed beyond this earthly scene into that new and continuing life made possible through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ is well expressed in the poem by William Walsham How found in our Hymnal at #417 and #418. By comparison, the triumphant life built on faith and trust and hope that begins in our everyday "here and now" leads us to an anticipated, unmatched, and unexcelled glory none of us can fully comprehend. Jesus Christ made that possible! And we can use the words of that poem to help remind us of that future reality.

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world
 confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress,
 and Their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-
 fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

MEMORIAL SUNDAY
November 20, 1977

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's
farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
Alleluia! Alleluia!

CHRISTMAS TRIBUTES

A PRAYER AT CHRISTMAS

Eternal Father, we have been singing the songs of Advent during these Sundays. We have been reminded in many ways of the coming of your Son.

Born in a manger, the Messiah came to the world in a stable. And he was to spend his whole life in humble places.

We think about some of the religious and good people of the day who missed his coming because he was in a stable and not a palace. The people who looked and waited for the Messiah, but missed him because he was born in a cow's stall.

We pray that we will not be blind to the coming and presence of Christ in our time. Help us to see your Son not alone in the great churches, but in the smelly stables and slums, in the barns and business places, in the mangers and market places.

Too much we think of your presence among stained glass windows and enclosed in beautiful brick buildings, and forget that you are in the midst of unsightly surroundings. You are in the midst of need, human need, to bring help. You are even found in places that smell with dishonesty. In our journey to find you, open our eyes to where you are present.

We pray in these days of Advent for your coming into our lives. Be born in us. Come, Lord Jesus, into our minds to illuminate our thoughts, to direct our thinking, to turn us to the truth. Come into our hearts to cleanse us from unrighteousness and to direct our affections to things which are above. Come into our decisions where the struggle of choosing between good and evil takes place. Come into our homes to direct our family life, that our homes may be places of peace and joy. Come into every part of this church, that we may not stray from our mission, but be doing your work here.

Amen
