Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: Good morning. Jesus is alive among us.

People: Good morning to you also. He who was born in a stable and placed in a lowly manger grew to full manhood. He came to bring us joy, hope, and peace.

Pastor: Yes, and to bring us full forgiveness for our evil deeds and shortcomings. We join together this day to worship Him and to ask His loving mercy to be present in each of our personal lives.

People: Then let us ask for His forgiveness.

All: Glory and praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ. And honor be given to Your Holy Name. Come to each of us with Your healing mercy.

For we have come short of Your expectations of all of us. We have erred and strayed from Your ways like lost sheep. We are guilty, truly guilty, of losing our true way of living as human beings in Your world. We need Your forgiveness and leadership to help us live as we should. Help us and heal us, Lord Jesus. Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Praise Versicle (No. 517)

Pastor: O Lord, open our lips.

People Sing: And our mouths shall show forth Thy praise.

Gloria in Excelsis (p.489)

Sacrament of Holy Baptism (10:30 a.m.)

Please leave this Bulletin in the Pew when you leave so it can be used at subsequent Midweek Lenten Services.

Each year during Lent we have a coordinated program that includes our worship on Sundays and our midweek Lenten Services on Wednesday evenings. In 1976 we used the Gospel of Mark. In 1977 it was the Gospel of Luke. This year, 1978, we will be using the Gospel of John for our study and meditation of the Life of Jesus. Your personal reading of each passage before you come to worship will help add meaning to these experiences.

As in previous years, during 15 minutes preceeding the Wednesday Evening Lenten Services we will have an old-fashioned hymn-sing of favorite hymns and devotional songs. This is open to all ages and we will use all the Hymnals we have available. The Pastor will lead this weekly event, so please come prepared to request a hymn or song you especially like. We will do our best to honor all requests.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: The Season of Lent is happening among us, and I call each of you to consider how you are making it happen in your own life.

People: We are here today to give expression to our concern that all Christians remember and commemorate the life, ministry, suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Pastor: Lent means more than just remembering. It involves a different attitude about our usual routine and different actions that help us identify with the suffering of Jesus and other needless suffering.

People: Then let us use this opportunity to recognize how we have fallen short of God's full expectations of us.

Pastor: Yes, let us ask for His forgiveness.

II: Gracious and forgiving God, we give you thanks for loving us enough to send your only Son, Jesus Christ, to redeem us from our sinful ways and words. In Him and through Him we ask that your mercy may not stop toward us. Bring to each of us the personal forgiveness we need to help us change our thinking and our deeds. May we be refreshed that your kind of love may happen as we serve you, one another, outsiders and even our enemies. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

THE CROSS AND THE CROWN

Why did Jesus have to suffer torture and experience what mortals call "death"? Because that was His mission. Mark tells us (10:45), "For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Thus it was with Jesus. He came into a world filled with intolerance and injustice; a world where men followed the "party line," and any who attempted to challenge the established order were obliged to recant or be put to death. He had a gift to offer more precious than earthly freedom--the gift of eternal life.

Few would accept the gift. The ultimate in human agony would be required of Jesus. When it was all over, a few would know the glorious truth. They would "go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature".

And, since "The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant before his Lord" (Matt. 10:24) we too, must be ready to make sacrifices. There is no crown for those who will not share the burden of the cross.

The "burden of the cross" is not something we have but something we need. It is the brokenness needed for our human pride and self-sufficiency. It is the pouring out of God's forgiveness for our sinfilled thoughts, words, and deeds. It is our need to experience a broken and contrite human spirit, necessary to receive the fulness of God's love.

When they came to the place called
"The Skull" they nailed Jesus to the cross there, and the two criminals
one on his right
and one on his left

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin:

Pastor: The Season of Eastertide helps us spread the joy of Easter beyond just one day. We can share with our relatives, friends, and neighbors the victory won over death and the grave.

People: We can rejoice because Christ's triumph was for us. A new era is dawning. A new day is happening. Death is swallowed up in victory. Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, has risen from the dead.

Pastor: And standing alive among His apostles, Jesus came with words of peace and reassurance. He comes to us to share with us His victory over our sins.

People: Therefore let us respond with words of our repentance. Let us ask His forgiveness.

All: Living Christ, come and be present with us here. Bring to each of us the new life we need. May the sins we have done and the evil thoughts in our minds be replaced by rejoicing and good deeds. Cleanse us with your living love that new life may spring forth among us. Take away our faults and prepare us for eternal life. Amen

Kyrie (No. 518) and Assurance of Pardon:

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Mark 12:28-34

Message: Film - "Martin The Cobbler" narrated by Alexandra Tolstoy

"Martin the Cobbler" is an animated film of Tolstoy's short story on the theme,
"Where Love is, God is".

It is the story of a cobbler who has lost his family as well as all interest in life.
He hopes only to die. In a dream he hears a voice, which he assumes is the Lord's, promising to come and visit him the next day. The following day instead of being visited by the Lord, people in need arrive at his doorstep and he helps them. By evening Martin is disappointed that his "special guest" has not arrived. Shortly after, an extraordinary vision reveals to him that in caring for others he has met his "special visitor". In helping others his despair is replaced by hope and he goes out to join his fellow townspeople in their winter festival.

Please excuse the dust you might see on the floors or elsewhere. Our pew renovations are incomplete, so the dust from the foam rubber of the old cushions has not been completely removed. A thorough cleaning will be done when the pews are finished.

The Pew Fund is still in need of approximately $1,000.00 to pay for the reupholstering work. For those who are interested, a pew may be sponsored at a cost of $80.00. Anyone who has given $50.00 and who desires to do so, may add to the $50.00 and be a sponsor. Pew sponsors will receive special recognition in the Honor Roll Booklet and will receive the Certificate of Appreciation.

Donations are now being accepted in the Church Office for the Young Women's Guild 6th Annual Flea Mart to be held on Saturday, May 20, 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Remember, something old to you is somebody else's treasure. Refreshments will be sold. Mrs. Sadie Zinn is taking orders for cruellers, phone 675-1309 or the Church Office, 276-0393.

The Church Council has designated Sunday, September 17, 1978 as the date for celebrating our 105th Anniversary (Birthday). Plans include a single worship service on that day at 10:00 a.m., special choral music, and a fellowship luncheon-birthday party. Note the date and plan to be here.

Our sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Mr. George H. Dannettel, whose funeral was held on Tuesday.

We ask you to register your attendance using the Attendance-Communion Cards distributed with the Bulletins by the Ushers. This procedure will continue throughout Eastertide until and including Pentecost Sunday (May 14). All having a perfect attendance for that period of time will be listed in the June issue of the United Endeavor.

We welcome all visitors to our worship today and always.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin
PASTOR: The Festival of Pentecost has arrived and we celebrate God's gift to us of the Holy Spirit.

PEOPLE: We would like to celebrate as if there were tongues as of fire over each of our heads. We would like to stand up and shout the glory of God, but we are more restrained by our churchly tradition.

PASTOR: That tradition is also informed and fed by God the Holy Spirit. We have been nourished and enriched as by a mother's love.
We have become a family of persons who can teach others what it would be like to be a family of nations.

PEOPLE: In our shortsightedness we fail to see all the signs of your kingdom among us.
We seldom praise God for small gifts of grace.
We even miss opportunities to love and help strangers.

PASTOR: Then let us confess our sins.
ALL: Come Holy Spirit anew into our lives.
Bring strength where our spirits are weak.
Bring courage where our spirits fail. Bring love where we let hate or anger happen. Bring mercy where we need forgiveness. And bring joy when we are found to be sad. Lift our spirits from the commonplace and ordinary.
Move us beyond our average expectations. And grant us ultimate peace. Amen

PASTOR: Lord, have mercy upon us.

PEOPLE SING: Lord, have mercy upon us.

PASTOR: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

PASTOR: The Season of Pentecost has arrived and we celebrate God's Gift to us of the Holy Spirit. We praise God the Three in One.

PEOPLE: We would like to celebrate as if there were tongues as of fire over each of our heads. We would like to stand up and shout the glory of God, but we are more restrained by our churchly tradition.

PASTOR: That tradition is also informed and fed by God the Holy Spirit. We have been nourished and enriched as by a parent's love. We have become a family of persons who can teach others what it would be like to be a family of nations.

PEOPLE: In our shortsightedness we fail to see all the signs of your kingdom among us. We seldom praise God for small gifts of grace. We even miss opportunities to love and help strangers.

PASTOR: Then let us confess our sins.

ALL: Come Holy Spirit anew into our lives. Bring strength where our spirits are weak. Bring courage where our spirits fail. Bring love where we let hate or anger happen. Bring mercy where we need forgiveness. And bring joy when we are found to be sad. Lift our spirits from the commonplace and ordinary. Move us beyond our average expectations. And grant us ultimate peace. Amen

PASTOR: Lord, have mercy upon us.

PEOPLE SING: Lord, have mercy upon us.

PASTOR: Christ, have mercy upon us.

PEOPLE SING: Christ, have mercy upon us.

PASTOR: Lord, have mercy upon us.

PEOPLE SING: Lord, have mercy upon us.

PASTOR: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

PEOPLE SING: And our mouths shall show forth Thy praise.
