Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: When we come into God's place for praise and prayer, we are reminded of His promise to make us a holy people. We remember who He is and whose we are.

People: We lift our voices in the praise He deserves. We show our gratitude for His many gifts to us.

Pastor: And when we remember God's special gift of Himself in His Son, our praise increases. We rejoice at how wonderful God is towards us. His Spirit inspires our spirits.

People: While we were helpless, at the right time Jesus Christ died and rose again for us. He came to us to become our way toward righteousness and salvation. And that reminds us of our sin and our need for repentance and forgiveness.

Pastor: Then let us ask His forgiveness.

All: Holy God, apart from us, yet present among us, we come like wondering sheep without a shepherd. We have been unfaithful to your covenant with us. We need your forgiving love. And we ask that you transform us as you come out of our future into our present. Lift us from our proneness to do evil and grant us new life in your coming kingdom. Help us to find renewed joy in our willingness to serve you through serving others. For we ask in Jesus' name.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Call to Confession and Confession Of Sin
Pastor: The Hebrew prophet, Jeremiah, was concerned about life in the city. He spoke about what it meant to live with the true living God in Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah. He stated God's case against the people for all the wrong they had done in forsaking Him by burning sacrifices to other gods and worshipping the work of their own hands.

People: We are city-dwellers too. Can it be that we also are victims or guilty of that same idolatry?

Pastor: Jeremiah remembered the seven centuries of God's faithfulness to His people. He linked God's action in that history to the lives of the people and he linked spiritual idolatry with social injustice.

People: We claim to be God's people too. God has been good to us. We have tried to be faithful. But justice has not happened for all.

Pastor: The unfailing love and justice of the Lord has been proclaimed personally in Jesus of Nazareth. He confirmed the message that we treat as ultimate in our lives has an impact on the rest of our living here in this city.

People: Then let us acknowledge our sinful ways. Let us confess how wrong we have been and change our lives.

All: Our lives are corrupted by idol worship. We follow fads and run from one sin to another. The greed of many forces wages and prices to increase. The poor and the humble are pushed aside as exploitation replaces their innocence. Speak pardon and peace to us, O God. Identify us with the innocent suffering of Jesus. Give us a new peek into a different future. Help us to form His new community here in this city where we live now. In Jesus name we pray. Amen

All: Most holy and merciful Father: we confess in thy presence the sinfulness of our nature, and our shortcomings and offenses against thee. Thou alone knowest how often we have sinned, in wandering from thy ways, in wasting thy gifts, in forgetting thy love. We have refused to shoulder the troubles of others, and turned from our neighbors. We have often ignored the pain of the world, and passed by the hungry, the poor, and the oppressed. O God, in thy mercy, forgive our sin and free us from selfishness, that we may choose thy will and obey thy commandments; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Silence and Meditation - Pew Prayers

Prelude: Fantasy (Contemporary Mode) Finney

*Processional Hymn 31

*Solemn Declaration, Psalm 86:8-10 (p.525)

*Gloria Patri

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: The Hebrew Prophet, Jeremiah, was concerned about life in the city. He spoke about what it meant to live with the true living God in Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah. He stated God's case against the people for all the wrong they had done in forsaking Him by burning sacrifices to other gods and worshipping the work of their own hands.

People: We are city-dwellers too. Can it be that we also are victims or guilty of that same idolatry?

Pastor: Jeremiah remembered the seven centuries of God's faithfulness to His people. He linked God's action in that history to the lives of the people and he linked spiritual idolatry with social injustice.

People: We claim to be God's people too. God has been good to us. We have tried to be faithful. But justice has not happened for all.

Pastor: The unfailing love and justice of the Lord has been proclaimed personally in Jesus of Nazareth. He confirmed the message that what we treat as ultimate in our lives has an impact on the rest of our living here in this city.

People: Then let us acknowledge our sinful ways. Let us confess how wrong we have been and change our lives.

All: Our lives are corrupted by idol worship. We follow fads and run from one sin to another.

The greed of many forces wages and prices to increase. The poor and the humble are pushed aside as exploitation replaces their innocence. Speak pardon and peace to us, O God. Identify us with the innocent suffering of Jesus. Give us a new peek into a different future. Help us to form His new community here in this city where we live now. In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: A Hebrew psalmist has told us that God is great and terrible, that He is to be feared and worshipped above and beyond all the false gods we might produce and seek to put in His place.

People: Great is the Lord God, and greatly to be praised in all His wonder, mystery, and majesty!

Pastor: A contemporary writer has written:

"(God) is no cold, silent heavenly power that sits self-sufficiently upon his throne and scatters gracious alms among his subjects. He displays a great passion for creation, for human beings, and for the future."

People: We see and know that passionate God in His caring for this world, in the passion of Jesus Christ, and in the caring of people inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Pastor: Then let us ask His forgiveness for our own idolatry and our own lack of passionate caring.

All: O Lord our God, we remember that your wrath against us is an expression of your wounded love. We ask your forgiveness for our stupidity in not recognizing You as You really are. We ask Your mercy for our not fully caring for all our neighbors. Bring pardon and peace to us, for we ask it in Jesus' name.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: A hebrew psalmist has told us that God is great and terrible, that He is to be feared and worshipped above and beyond all the false gods we might produce and seek to put in His place.

People: Great is the Lord God, and greatly to be praised in all His wonder, mystery, and majesty!

Pastor: A contemporary writer has written: "(God) is no cold, silent heavenly power that sits self-sufficiently upon his throne and scatters gracious alms among his subjects. He displays a great passion for creation, for human beings, and for the future."

People: We see and know that passionate God in His caring for this world, in the passion of Jesus Christ, and in the caring of people inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Pastor: Then let us ask His forgiveness for our own idolatry and our own lack of passionate caring.

All: O Lord our God, we remember that your wrath against us is an expression of your wounded love. We ask your forgiveness for our stupidity in not recognizing You as You really are. We ask Your mercy for our not fully caring for all our neighbors. Bring pardon and peace to us, for we ask it in Jesus' name.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Praise Versicle (No. 517)

Pastor: O Lord, open our lips.

People Sing: And our mouths shall show forth Thy praise.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: In John's Gospel Jesus declares himself to be the friend of his disciples. He calls them to himself and calls them into a new life of friendship. He, too, have been called out of our homes to experience that friendship here.

People: Greater love has no person than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Pastor: In Luke's Gospel Jesus is described as one who accepted public sinners or criminals. He was seen in bad company. He ate and drank with disreputable people. He was a friend to sinners and tax collectors, those known to be without friends.

People: Greater love has no person than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Pastor: We have been called and are called to become friends of Jesus. We are called also to be friends with those whom Jesus chose to be His friends. Let us recognize our own lack of friendship and our own sin in not being friends with those who need us most to be their friends.

All: Gracious and loving God, we acknowledge how we have not always been a friend to those who needed us most. We apologize for our shortsightedness. We ask your forgiveness for seeking our own way instead of the way that Jesus taught us. Pardon us and receive us anew as friends of Jesus. In His name. Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: In John's Gospel Jesus declares himself to be the friend of his disciples. He calls them to himself and calls them into a new life of friendship. We, too, have been called out of our homes to experience that friendship here.

People: Greater love has no person than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Pastor: In Luke's Gospel Jesus is described as one who accepted public sinners or criminals. He was seen in bad company. He ate and drank with disreputable people. He was a friend to sinners and tax collectors, those known to be without friends.

People: Greater love has no person than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Pastor: We have been called and are called to become friends of Jesus. We are called also to be friends with those whom Jesus chose to be His friends. Let us recognize our own lack of friendship and our own sin in not being friends with those who need us most to be their friends.

All: Gracious and loving God, we acknowledge how we have not always been a friend to those who needed us most. We apologize for our shortsightedness. We ask your forgiveness for seeking our own way instead of the way that Jesus taught us. Pardon us and receive us anew as friends of Jesus. In His name. Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: Good morning Everyone!

People: Good morning Pastor!

Pastor: And a special welcome to our visitors

People: Yes, we welcome them among us.

Pastor: But not every stranger or visitor feels as welcome as they could when they are with us. Perhaps we need to help them feel at home while they are here. It should be different here than it was for Mary and Joseph when they went to the inn.

People: We know we are not always as friendly
as we could be, especially to those in need.
And we need God's help to show us a better way.

Pastor: Our Advent Season helps prepare us for the coming of Jesus Christ. He came in history as a little child and as a friend to the helpless and hopeless. His future coming will bind us together with all His friends, even those we may consider our enemies. We may even discover His presence as a visiting stranger.

People: We would pray for better preparation.

All: Come Lord Jesus, into our worship, into our homes, and into our lives. Take from us our sinfulness. Lift our burdens and renew in us our ability to love each other, even strangers. Help us to move closer to the full joy of God's Kingdom among us. Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

CHRISTMAS

“No Vacancy.” Like star and shepherd, that sign greeted Jesus’ birth.

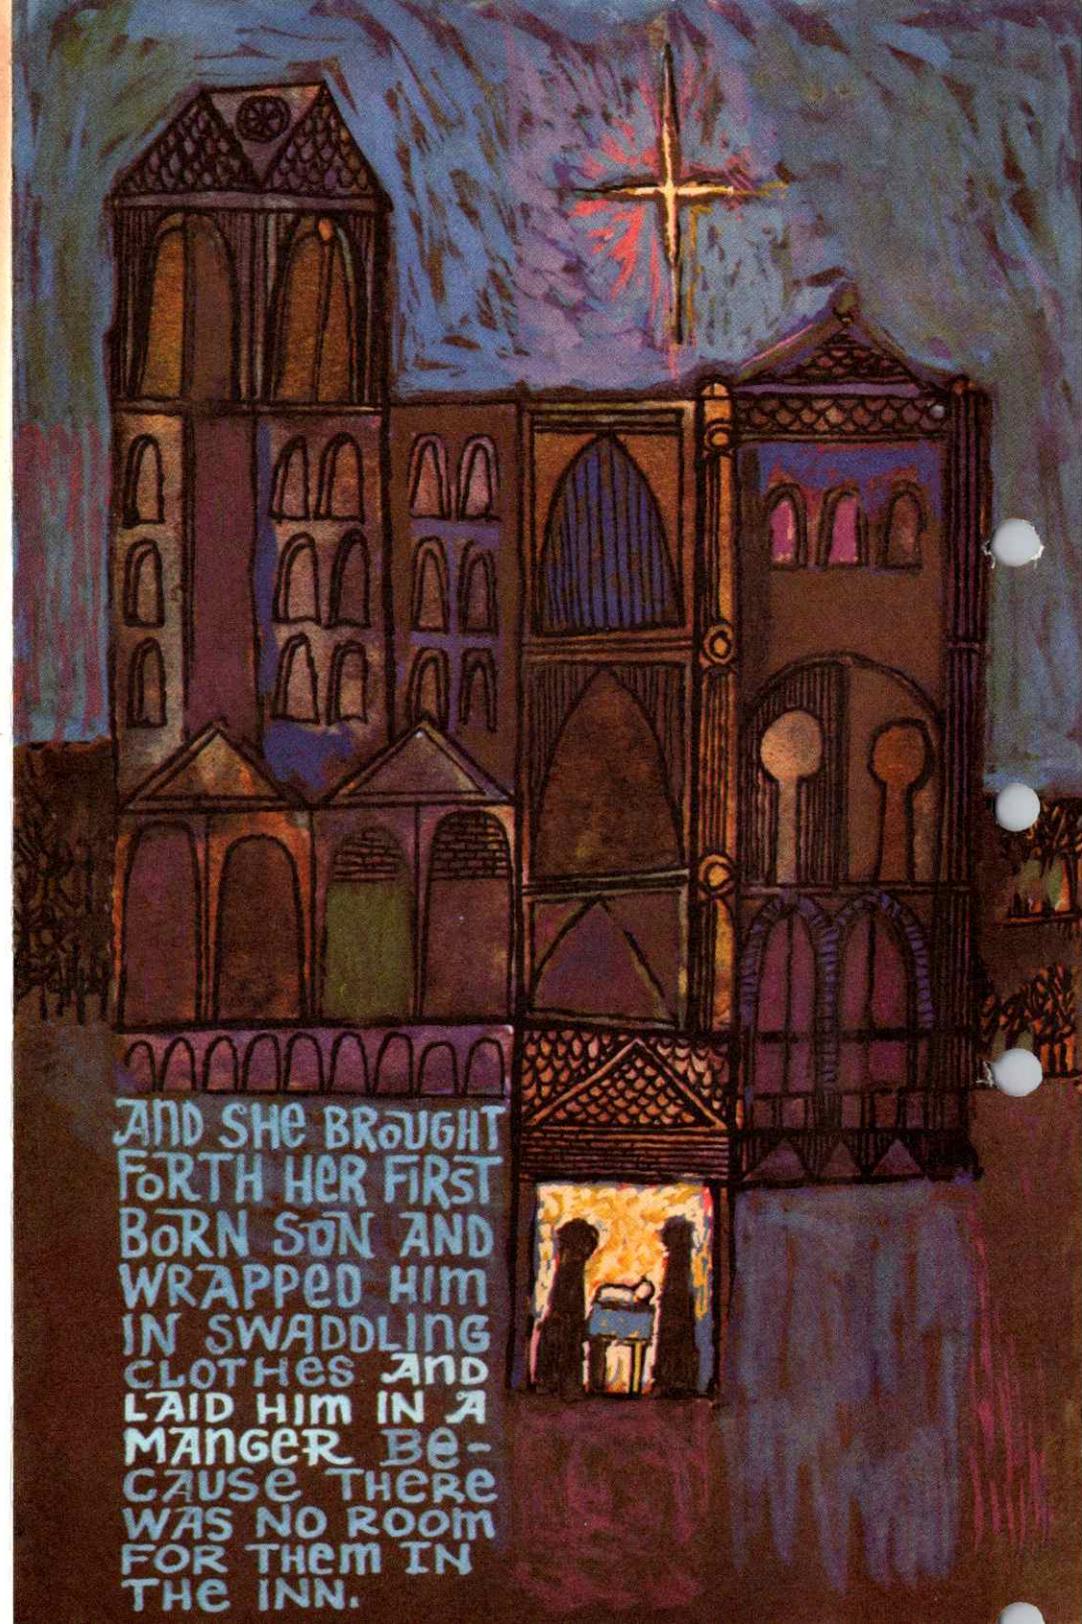

It blocked the door of a Judean inn, pilgrim-packed. It was a ring of steel around fearful Herod’s royal house. Outside Rome’s imperial palace, it was written in the glint of a cold-eyed sentry, guarding preoccupied Augustus, invincibly oblivious to God’s invasion by a Son.

God got in. At first, it was a donkey’s feedbox. Later, it was hearts of fishers and farmers, tax collectors and housewives. He circled the Mediterranean on apostles’ feet. Empires rocked, music was set throbbing on air, cathedrals were thrust up to sky, continents and seas were crossed. People found mastery and newness, judgment and joy, purpose and peace in him.

Now, busy, anxious, and preoccupied, we too bar his way. We seal thought and feeling and action from the shaping of his inborn life. But he gets past our souls’ sentries. They who march for justice find him comrade on their road. Against all chaos he stirs us to hope of peace on earth. In love, man serves man and, before his face, sees standing this God-Man.

He is not hid in some cave of our past, but is present to us, that rock on which our history rests. Our inky void of being is made bright with the light of his life. Eternity rings with his praise. Alleluia!

George Siudy

THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT

Prelude: The Noels of L. Claude D'Aquin

*Processional Hymn 88

*Solemn Declaration, Psalm 98:1-3 (p.531)

*Gloria Patri

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: Good morning Everyone!

People: Good morning Pastor!

Pastor: And a special welcome to our visitors.

People: Yes, we welcome them among us.

Pastor: But not every stranger or visitor feels as welcome as they could when they are with us. Perhaps we need to help them feel at home while they are here. It should be different here than it was for Mary and Joseph when they went to the inn.

People: We know we are not always as friendly as we could be, especially to those in need. And we need God's help to show us a better way.

Pastor: Our Advent Season helps prepare us for the coming of Jesus Christ. He came in history as a little child and as a friend to the helpless and hopeless. His future coming will bind us together with all His friends, even those we may consider our enemies. We may even discover His presence as a visiting stranger.

People: We would pray for better preparation.

All: Come Lord Jesus, into our worship, into our homes, and into our lives. Take from us our sinfulness. Lift our burdens and renew in us our ability to love each other, even strangers. Help us to move closer to the full joy of God's Kingdom among us.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Praise Versicle (No. 517)
