There will be no special congregational meeting today. Because of a low bid for painting the Nave and cleaning the ceiling, it was not necessary for the Church Council to secure further authorization in order to proceed with this project. A contract has been let for the painting to be done in August, by action of the Church Council. A special congregational meeting is planned for September 10, 1978 to consider participation in the Pastor's Doctoral Project.

Pastor Hengen will be on vacation the next 2 weeks. For pastoral services, contact the Church Office. The Rev. Dr. Ralph Weisser will be our substitute for the next two Sundays.

The Church Council has designated Sunday, September 17, 1978, as the date for celebrating our 105th anniversary (birthday). Plans include a single worship service on that day at 10:00 A.M., special music, and a fellowship luncheon-birthday party. Note the date and plan to be here.
