PENTECOST SUNDAY

MEMORIALS ON MOTHER'S DAY

(Festival Of The Christian Home)

As we present these memorials we do so with a profound sense of thankfulness for the gift to us of our mothers, fathers and families.

We are blessed people to have had such good gifts from Almighty God. Our lives have been and always will be enriched by the experience and memory of having God-fearing and love-practising parents.

May these lives we live always be expressive of this gratitude.

Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come.
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come.
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

Amen

Sunday, June 18, 1978

June 18, 1978

It has been rightfully said that a person has difficulty developing a mature concept of the fatherhood of God without knowing what it is like to experience the love, concern and leadership of a human father. Even substitute fathers, as in the case of adoption, are important for this concept to be developed within a growing child or young person. Therefore, what Father's Day helps us celebrate is the Christian love, concern and leadership of fathers, who, by God's grace, exhibit in their personal lives what God the Father, made available to our Lord Jesus Christ.

Remembering our fathers through memorials gifts such as are represented by this booklet, indicates our continuing gratitude to God for the gift of fathers which he has given to us. Deeds of Christian love, concern and leadership in the past can also be expressed by each one of us through similar kinds of deeds in the present and in the future.

Pastor Hengen

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you
for a little while --
Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears.

And hug your sorrow to you
through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;

And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do
all things the same,

Feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways,

Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
and I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near;

And never, never
be afraid to die,
For I am waiting you in the sky!

CHRISTMAS TRIBUTES - 1978

A PRAYER AT CHRISTMAS

Eternal Father, we have been singing the songs of Advent during these Sundays. We have been reminded in many ways of the coming of your Son.

Born in a manger, the Messiah came to the world in a stable. And he was to spend his whole life in humble places.

We think about some of the religious and good people of the day who missed his coming because he was in a stable and not a palace. The people who looked and waited for the Messiah, but missed him because he was born in a cow's stall.

We pray that we will not be blind to the coming and presence of Christ in our time. Help us to see your Son not alone in the great churches, but in the smelly stables and slums, in the barns and business places, in the manglers and market places.

Too much we think of your presence among stained glass windows and enclosed in beautiful brick buildings, and forget that you are in the midst of unsightly surroundings. You are in the midst of need, human need, to bring help. You are even found in places that smell with dishonesty. In our journey to find you, open our eyes to where you are present.

We pray in these days of Advent for your coming into our lives. Be born in us. Come, Lord Jesus, into our minds to illuminate our thoughts, to direct our thinking, to turn us to the truth. Come into our hearts to cleanse us from unrighteousness and to direct our affections to things which are above. Come into our decisions where the struggle of choosing between good and evil takes place. Come into our homes to direct our family life, that our homes may be places of peace and joy. Come into every part of this church, that we may not stray from our mission, but be doing your work here.

Amen

SILENT NIGHT

Silent Night! Holy Night!
All is calm, all is bright;
Round yon virgin mother and Child,
Holy Infant so tender and mild;
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

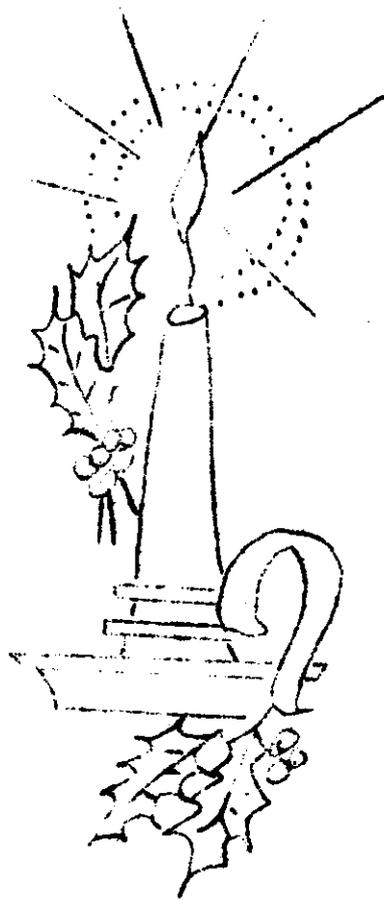

Silent Night! Holy Night!
Darkness flies, all is light;
Shepherds hear the angels sing:
Allelula! Hail the King!
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent Night! Holy Night!
Guiding Star, lend thy light!
See the eastern wise men bring
Gifts and homage to our King!
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent Night! Holy Night!
Wondrous Star, lend thy light!
With the angels let us sing
Alleluia to our King!
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.
