Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: We say we believe in God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. And we mean to say we put our total trust in a Creator God who has made this world possible. We have faith in a father-like God who loves all persons with all the love they will ever need.

People: And we remember the total story of God's Son, Jesus the Christ. He was sent to be our Redeemer. He became our Saviour. He is our risen Lord.

Pastor: The gift of the Holy Spirit has made it possible for us to say and believe all that. God's conversion of each of us happens when we openly acknowledge how and when and where we have fallen short of God's full expectations for His Church.

People: Yes, we need to confess our sins.

All: God the Trinity, we have fallen short of your expectations of us. We have been wrong. We have done wrong things. We have thought wrong thoughts. We have not always done every thing we could. But we seek to do better. We want to strive toward our highest potential. Have mercy on us and forgive us. For we ask it in Jesus' name.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Pastor: The Letter to the Ephesians says that we have been blessed in Christ with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places. And just as we have been chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world was established, so also are we to be holy and blameless in His presence.

People: To have been chosen that far in advance means that God must have included us in all His future plans. To believe that is most astounding. It must mean that long before we were even here, God cared about us in His Son, Jesus Christ.

Pastor: To be chosen like that, however, means that we can take no credit for being chosen. It means God chose us as a gift, as an opportunity. And it means we were chosen for a special purpose. That purpose is the same purpose for which Jesus came, a plan for the fulness of time to unite all things in Him, both in heaven and on earth.

People: Such a super plan is almost beyond our ability to know what it would be like. And it sets our own personal plans and church plans in their true perspective. We need to be sure our plans fit with God's total plan in Christ.

Pastor: Then let us begin by recognizing our sinfulness and our need to believe that God would also forgive us.

All: We praise You, God, for choosing us. We praise You, God, for giving us our true purpose in Jesus Christ. Take from us our sinfulness. And grant us the pardon and peace we need to do better. In Jesus' name we pray.

East Avenue and Dillon Street Balto., Md.

Opening -

"What A Friend We Have In Jesus"

"Jesus I'm His, Jesus He's Mine"

I. Narrator:

Welcome to our program "Follow The Shepherd". It has been said that the land in which Jesus lived was the land of shepherds. The shepherd was important to the life and economy of Palestine. He fed the sheep, protected them and cared for their needs in every way. They belonged to Him and followed His leading. We have learned that Jesus is the Good Shepherd who knows and loves us. The Nursery Department will tell us about being an example in faith.

Nursery -

"How I Love Jesus"

Bible Verse - Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men.

Song: "Jesus Love"

II. Narrator:

A second way to be an example of Jesus is through Love. We are examples in Love when we follow Jesus. Let's listen to the Beginner Department tell about Love.

Kindergarten - 4 and 5 years old

Song: "It's A Small World"

VII. Narrator - A fifth way to be an example for Jesus our good Shepherd is through our purity. Barnabus was an example in faith, kindness, stewardship, boldness and evangelism. Hear now some of our favorite songs after which we will move to the next hall for refreshments.

Bible Verse

Four ways I can serve Him.

God's Son, Jesus the Christ. He was sent to be our Redeemer. He became our Saviour. He is our risen Lord.

Pastor: The gift of the Holy Spirit has made it possible for us to say and believe all that. God's conversion of each of us happens when we openly acknowledge how and when and where we have fallen short of God's full expectations for His Church.

People: Yes, we need to confess our sins.

All: God the Trinity, we have fallen short of your expectations of us. We have been wrong.
We have done wrong things. We have thought wrong thoughts. We have not always done everything we could. But we seek to do better. We want to strive toward our highest potential.
Have mercy on us and forgive us. For we ask it in Jesus' name.

Amen

it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock and it will be opened to you." "If we and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Pastor: A Hebrew psalmist has told us that God is great and terrible, that He is to be feared and worshipped above and beyond all the false gods we might produce and seek to put in His place.

People: Great is the Lord God, and greatly to be praised in all His wonder, mystery, and majesty.

Pastor: A contemporary writer has written: "(God) is no cold, silent heavenly power that sits self-sufficiently upon his throne and scatters gracious alms among his subjects. (Rather,) He displays a great passion for creation, for human beings, and for the future."

Pastor: Then let us ask God's forgiveness for our own idolatry and lack of passionate caring.

All: O Lord our God, we remember that your wrath against us is an expression of your wounded love. We ask your forgiveness for our not recognizing You as You really are. Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: A Hebrew psalmist has told us that God is great and terrible, that He is to be feared and worshipped above and beyond all the false gods we might produce and seek to put in His place.

People: Great is the Lord God, and greatly to be praised in all His wonder, mystery, and majesty.

Pastor: A contemporary writer has written: "(God) is no cold, silent heavenly power that sits self-sufficiently upon His throne and scatters gracious alms among his subjects. (Rather) He displays a great passion for creation, for human beings, and for the future."

People: We see and know that passionate God in His caring for this world in the life and passion of Jesus Christ, and in the caring of people inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Pastor: Then let us ask God's forgiveness for our own idolatry and lack of passionate caring.

All: O Lord our God, we remember that your wrath against us is an expression of your wounded love. We ask your forgiveness for our not recognizing You as You really are. We ask Your mercy for our not caring enough for all our neighbors. Bring new pardon and peace to us all, for we ask it in Jesus' name.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: The Hebrew prophet, Jeremiah, was concerned about life in the city. He spoke about what it meant to live with the true living God in Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah. He stated God's case against the people for all the wrong they had done in forsaking Him by burning sacrifices to other gods and worshipping the work of their own hands.

People: We are city-dwellers too. Can it be that we also are victims or guilty of that same idolatry?

Pastor: Jeremiah remembered the seven centuries of God's faithfulness to His people. He linked God's action in that history to the lives of the people and he linked spiritual idolatry with social injustice.

People: We claim to be God's people too. God has been good to us. We have tried to be faithful. But justice has not happened for all Pastor: The unfailing love and justice of the Lord has been proclaimed personally in Jesus of Nazareth. He confirmed the message that what we treat as ultimate in our lives has an impact on the rest of our living here in this city.

People: Then let us acknowledge our sinful ways. Let us confess how wrong we have been and change our lives.

All: Our lives are corrupted by idol worship.

We follow fads and run from one sin to another. The greed of many forces wages and prices to increase. The poor and the humble are pushed aside as exploitation replaces their innocence. Speak pardon and peace to us, O God. Identify us with the innocent suffering of Jesus. Give us a new peek into a different future. Help us to form His new community here in this city where we live now. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: We come to worship the living God who has created this world, preserved it until now, and provides for its future.

People: We join together to express our joy, to lift our hearts in adoration, to remember God's many gifts to us, to hear His word to us, and to celebrate the opportunity to serve others.

Pastor: We also come together to confess before God our sinful ways and words and to acknowledge our sins of pride, envy, anger, self-indulgence, anxiety, and laziness.

People: And to find in Christ Jesus, our Lord, the forgiveness and mercy we need to renew our life together as a believing community.

All: Forgive us, O God, for when we have been so sure of our own goodness we have looked down on others. Forgive us, O Christ, for when we have been displeased when others succeed. Forgive us, O Holy Spirit, for when we have lost our temper or nursed a grievance. And forgive us, O Holy Trinity, for when we have been lukewarm Christians. Move us beyond our remembering of past misdeeds, lift us from our sinful situation, and grant us sufficient grace to overcome our wrong doing, for we ask these things in the name of Him who became one with us to provide us the fullness of life, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: In John's Gospel Jesus declares himself to be the friend of his disciples. He calls them to himself and calls them into a new life of friendship. We too, have been called out of our homes to experience that friendship here.

People: Greater love has no person than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Pastor: In Luke's Gospel Jesus is described as one who accepted public sinners or criminals. He was seen in bad company. He ate and drank with disreputable people. He was a friend to sinners and tax collectors, those known to be without friends.

People: Greater love has no person than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Pastor: We have been called and are called to become friends of Jesus. We are called also to be friends with those whom Jesus chose to be His friends. Let us recognize our own lack of friendship and our own sin in not being friends with those who need us most to be their friends.

All: Gracious and loving God, we acknowledge how we have not always been a friend to those who needed us most. We apologize for our shortsightedness. We ask your forgiveness for seeking our own way instead of the way that Jesus taught us. Pardon us and receive us anew as friends of Jesus. In His name.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find, knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Confession of Sins and Assurance of Pardon

Pastor: Luke 18:9-14 (p.79)

People: We join together now in humility conscious of both our individual and our corporate sinfulness. We confess to injuring each other here and elsewhere by envy, jealousy and hate. In this process we have weakened our own souls. Hear us, O Lord, as we recognize that our confession implies both repentance and a determination to do better in the future. Grant us now your loving forgiveness and in the future your kind assistance. (Silent prayers of personal confession.)

Pastor: In spite of our sinfulness, one fact remains unchanged; that fact is the forgiving love God has had for us in the past and has for us right now. And He will always have this love for us. That good news brings each of us to a new life through Jesus Christ, our Lord. (Amen)

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: We are now in the Advent Season. That means we are looking forward to what is coming to us. It means this is a four-week period of our coming toward Christmas. And each week we will light one more candle on our Advent Wreath until the central one is lit on Christmas Eve.

People: We eagerly await your coming, O Christ. Help us, O God, to be ready! Inspire us, O Holy Spirit.

Pastor: Each Sunday we will add something new on this pilgrimage of faith. We will move from preparation and astonishment to insight and adventure. Each theme will help us be more ready for His coming.

People: Prepare us, O God! Astonish us, O Christ! Give us insight, O Holy Spirit! Provide us an adventure, O Holy Trinity!

Pastor: This pilgrimage commands our complete attention and participation. Our readiness, each week, begins with our need for forgiveness. We are not perfect. We must ask God's forgiveness. We must seek God's mercy. We must knock on the door of God's grace and goodness. Therefore, let us pray that God will forgive us.

All: Each Advent week brings us closer to Christmas. We hear the sounds of Christmas coming. We see the sights that Christmas is near. Make our lives ready by the indwelling of the eternal. Change our selfish attitudes into gifts we give others. Transform our concern for ourselves into worship of the Christ-child. Forgive us of our sins, and grant us the mercy we need. For we ask, seek, and knock in the Name of Jesus the Christ.

Amen

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: We are now in the Advent Season. That means we are looking forward to what is coming to us. It means this is a four-week period of our coming toward Christmas. And each week we will light one more candle on our Advent Wreath until the central one is lit on Christmas Eve.

People: We eagerly await your coming, O Christ. Help us, O God, to be ready! Inspire us, O Holy Spirit.

Pastor: Each Sunday we will add something new on this pilgrimage of faith. We will move from preparation and astonishment to insight and adventure. Each theme will help us be more ready for His coming.

People: Prepare us, O God! Astonish us, O Christ! Give us insight, O Holy Spirit! Provide us an adventure, O Holy Trinity!

Pastor: This pilgrimage commands our complete attention and participation. Our readiness, each week, begins with our need for forgiveness. We are not perfect. We must ask God's forgiveness. We must seek God's mercy. We must knock on the door of God's grace and goodness. Therefore, let us pray that God will forgive us.

All: Each Advent week brings us closer to Christmas. We hear the sound of Christmas coming. We see the sights that Christmas is near. Make our lives ready by the indwelling of the eternal. Change our selfish attitudes into gifts we give others. Transform our concern for ourselves into worship of the Christ-child. Forgive us of our sins, and grant us the mercy we need. For we ask, seek, and knock in the name of Jesus the Christ.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Praise Versicle (No. 517)

People Sing: And our mouths shall show forth Thy praise.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today we receive into active membership:

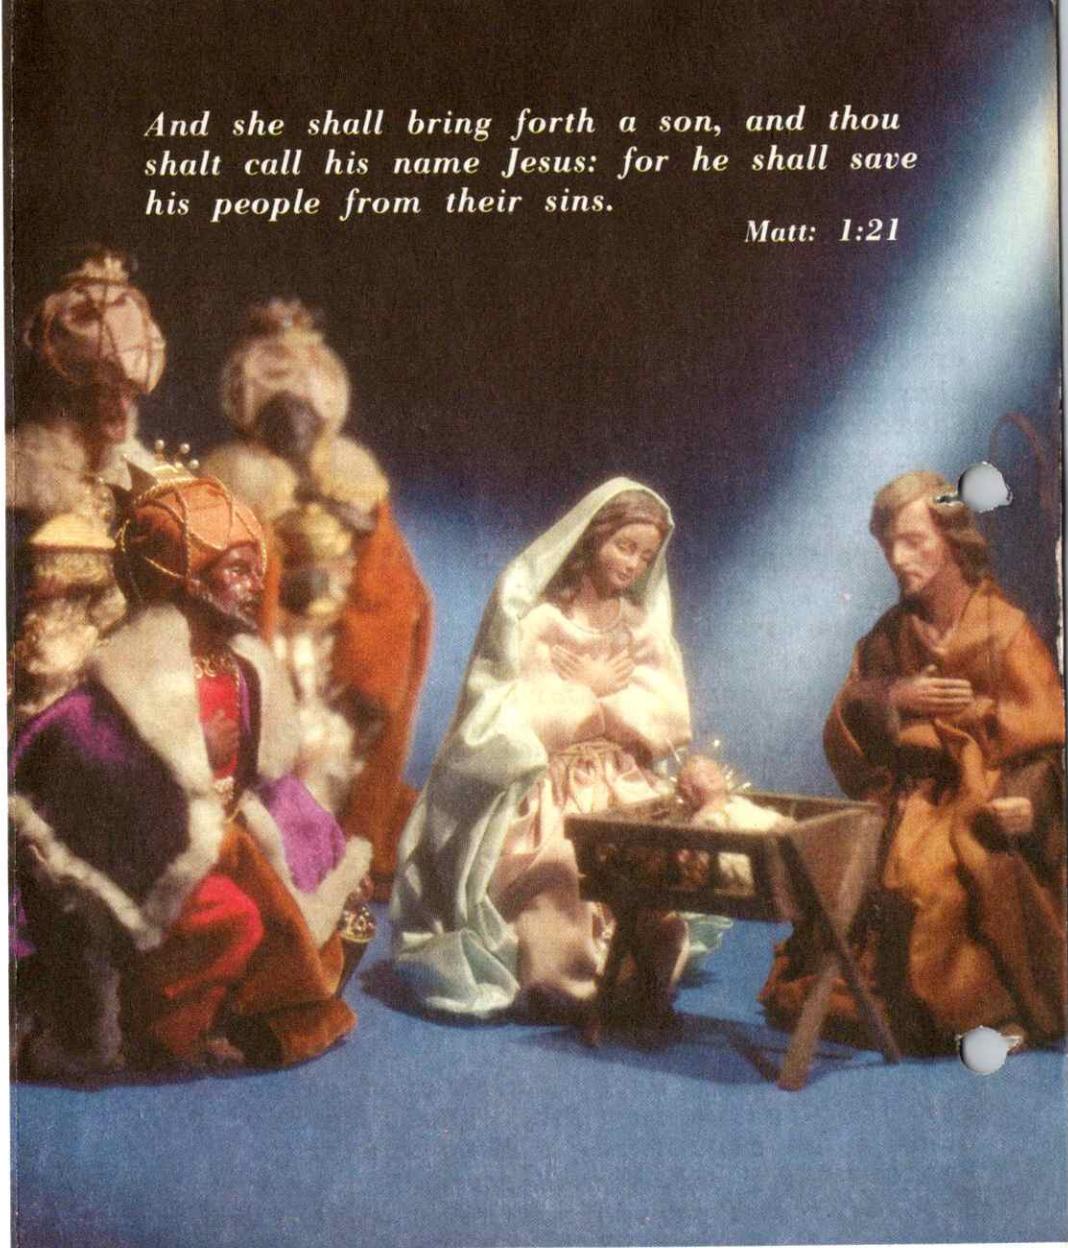

Mrs. Roberta Deasel
Mrs. Anna Miskar

They are being received by Reaffirmation Of Faith since they were previously included on our active membership roll here at United. We are always eager to return to active membership status those who in the past have been removed from active membership by action of the Church Council. We encourage all those who attend, commune, and contribute regularly and who may be listed by us as "inactive" to consider returning to active membership status by this procedure of Reaffirmation Of Faith. If you are in doubt about your current membership status, please contact the Church Office. The next informal group considering active church membership here will begin to meet with the Pastor on Sunday, March 9, 1980 at 9:15 a.m. for reception into active membership on Palm Sunday.

There will be two services on Christmas Eve, one beginning at 8:00 p.m. and the other at 11:00 p.m.

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Call to Confession and Confession of Sin
Pastor: *The event of Christmastide has begun.
We celebrate together God's coming to earth as a person. Come and join with me as we bring honor and glory to Him who does all things well. Lift up your hearts in praise and adoration to the living God.*
People: *We respond personally to your call.
We bring greetings to all who respond to God's gift of His Son, Jesus. We come in faith to Him who has given us the most precious gift of all.*

Pastor: *Come also with your love and hope as well. Bring the openness of your lives to Him and to others so that God's love may abound.
And find in the Christ-child the hope you need for at least another year. Come seek His mercy, and He will abundantly pardon.*

All: *We come seeking faith, hope, and love.
And the greatest of these is love. We need God's love because our love is incomplete. We need God's mercy because our loving does not extend far enough. We need God's forgiveness because He has shown us the completeness of His love for all of us. Hear us, love us, and forgive us anew. For we ask it in Jesus' Name.*

Amen
