MEMORIAL SUNDAY

November 25, 1979

MEMORIAL SUNDAY

November 25, 1979

Remembering those who have passed from among us is never easy. Our good memories are often clouded by our feelings of grief and loss. And yet the good news of the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead means that death is not the final earthly answer to all who identify themselves with Him. He even provides us with new hope for our lives to be lived in the here and now and in the future. And good examples from the lives of others, especially our loved ones, help us with our own triumphant living.

A poem to be found in the new United Church Of Christ Hymnal (No. 298) picks up that same theme with these words:

I sing a song of the saints of God,
Patient and brave and true,
Who toiled and fought and lived and died
For the Lord they loved and knew.
And one was a doctor, and one was a queen,
And one was a shepherdess on the green:
They were all of them saints of God,
and I mean,
God helping, to be one too.

They loved their Lord so dear,
so dear
And his love made them strong;
And they followed the right, for Jesus' sake,
The whole of their good lives long.
And one was a soldier, and one was a priest,
And one was slain by a fierce wild beast:
And there's not any reason, no,
not the least,
Why I shouldn't be one too.

They lived not only in ages past,
There are hundreds of thousands still;
The world is bright with the joyous saints
Who love to do Jesus' will.
You can meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea,
In church, or in trains, or in shops, or at tea;
For the saints of God are just folk like me,
And I mean to be one too.

GOD TAKES GOOD CARE OF ME

I never feel alone or lost Wherever I may be,
And I never have a thing to fear - God takes good care of me.

He wakes me gently with the dawn
Then turns it into day,
And sends the sunshine of His love
To bless my work and play.

At dusk He puts the sun to bed,
Hangs out the stars, and then
He rocks me in His sheltering arms
Till morning comes again.

And I think that life is like a day -
From the morning of my birth
God lets me live and laugh and love,
And spend a day on earth.

He guards me through the afternoon
Till sunset's rays are cast,
Then lovingly, when day is done,
He'll call me home at last.
