Mr. Robert Gundlach - Director of Music

I AM NOT ALONE

I watched from high upon a hill
The clouds that passed me by.
And marvelled at the vastness
Of the pale and endless sky...

I looked down to the valley
Where the winding river flowed.
Then turned and saw two children
Walking down a shady road...

I saw the wild flowers swaying -
Heard the rustling of the trees.
And I listened to the robin's song
That floated on the breeze...

And I knew that I was not alone.
Nor that I'd ever be.
For I have God's creations
To keep me company.

Jo-Ann M. Daughterty

Let not your heart be troubled:
ye believe in God, believe also in me.

John 14:1

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

East Avenue and Dillon Street

Baltimore, Maryland 21224

Rev. W. Scott Hengen III - Pastor

Mr. Robert Gundlach - Director of Music

JUNE 19, 1983

The fatherhood of God is most often a matter of Christian faith and belief that is built upon how God was a Father to His Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus is recognized as the One "sent by God the Father into the world for its salvation". This "sending" is intended to be understood in a comprehensive way regarding the whole appearance, history, and meaning of Jesus Christ. The "paternal" nature of God extends also to the creative forming of this world, its preservation, and the caring love given to each of its inhabitants. To think of God as our Father is to think also of God as the Father of all humanity. The "sending" of God the Son and God the Holy Spirit to us by God the Father must be recognized as an act of paternal love for all our human brothers and sisters.

On this Father's Day we recognize and celebrate the Christian love, concern and personal leadership shown by our human fathers. By God's grace, we have received from their personal lives what God the Father made available to His Son, Jesus Christ. The memorial gifts represented by this booklet are an indication of our continuing gratitude to God for the gift of our human fathers as well as for the expressed deeds of Christian caring they have shown through their lives toward us.

Caring - in times of crisis

Times of crisis, whether natural or accidental, come to each of us. Those times are part of life. They can come either with terrible suddenness or stealthily creep up on us. We are learning, however, to understand our responses enough that by "crisis management" we can deal better with these crises, with less negative and lasting results.

This memorial booklet represents the continuing response of those who have experienced, and perhaps are still experiencing, the crisis in their lives of the loss of a loved one. Like an incapacitating illness, the loss of a job, or the loss of one's home, the loss of a loved one can shatter our sense of security. But it is by way of our responses and with God's help that we return to our normal feelings and behavior following a crisis. By using our usual problem-solving responses we return to normal. And we can help each other to do that in a most caring way. By regaining our confidence we pick up where we had suddenly been interrupted in our work or family living.

Our thankful appreciation is extended to all those who use this method to respond to their crisis or loss. May God continue to strengthen you.

 Denotes Funerals by Other Pastors

Death is just a natural thing,
Like the closing of a door,
As we start upon a journey
To a new and distant shore.

So let your grief be softened
And yield not to despair.
You have only placed your loved one
In the loving Father's care.

LITTLE JOYS

It sometimes takes a little while
For troubles to grow lighter,
But there are always "little joys"
To make the day seem brighter -----
Little rays of sunshine
Like the unexpected letter,
The cheery card that simply says
"I hope you're feeling better."
And even when there is no mail
Or knock upon the door,
You know you have a Friend in God
And will forevermore.

Lucile Boesken

* An old carol says: *

* "He is born, the Child Divine; *

* Play the oboe, sound the bag- *

* pipes. *

* He is born, the Child Divine; *

* Sing ye all. He is born today." *

* Sing ye all! *

* Let heaven and nature sing! *

* In the heavens, *

* Herald Angels have sung the *

* glorious good news *

* That the Lord's Christ has come, *

* To teach us what it is *

* To be in relationship to God. *

* And on earth, Mary sings an old *

* Hebrew lullaby. *

* "For unto us a child is born, *

* Unto us the son is given --- *

* And his name shall be called *

* Wonderful *

* Counselor, Almighty God --- *

* Prince of Peace." *

* ***** *

* Silent night! Holy night! *

* All is calm, all is bright; *

* 'Round yon Virgin mother and Child, *

* Holy Infant so tender and mild; *

* Sleep in heavenly peace, *

* Sleep in heavenly peace. *
