Call to Confession and Confession of Sin:

Pastor: In the beginning was the Word; and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

People: God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

Pastor: God has brought the people of the covenant from the land of bondage into freedom.

People: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

Pastor: But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive
our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Let us confess our sins before God and one another.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your only begotten one, Jesus Christ, have mercy upon us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight

in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name.

Amen

(Silence for personal reflection and prayer.)
Kyrie Eleison:

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Assurance of Pardon:

Pastor: God hears the confession of our hearts and lips. Through Jesus Christ
we are forgiven all our sins, and by the Holy Spirit we are empowered for new life.

All Sing: Amen

Call to Praise:

Pastor: Let us sing praise to God.

holy name.

"O HOLY NIGHT"

O Holy Night! The stars are brightly
shining,

It is the night of the dear Saviour's
birth,
Long lay the world in sin and error
pining,
Till he appeared, and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world
rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.

Fall on your knees!
O hear the angel voices!
O night divine!
O night when Christ was born!

Led by the light of Faith serenely
beaming,
With glowing hearts, by His cradle we stand;
So, led by light of a star sweetly
gleaming,
Here come the Wise Men from the Orient
land.
The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger,
In all our trials born to be our friend;
He knows our need, to our weakness no
stranger
Behold your King! Before the lowly bend!
Behold your King! Your King!
Before Him bend.

Calling Us To Worship

Pastor: "O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His Name together.

People: Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things. Blessed be His glorious Name forever; may His glory fill the whole earth!

Pastor: Come, let us return to the Lord,
that we may live before Him.

People: Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself will be with them."

CONFESSION

Prayer of Confession (In unison)

"O God, the Strength of those who walk
with Thee, without Whom nothing is safe, nothing is tranquil: Confirm in us the knowledge of Thy Presence, that we may so deal with our anxieties that at length our hearts may find their hope in Thee; pour down upon us the abundance of Thy mercy;
forgiving us those sins we confess, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, only through the merits and sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Father, who sent Thy Son to both Jews and Gentiles, and has commanded Thy Church to preach the Gospel to every creature; bless all Thy servants who are laboring for Thee in distant lands. Have compassion upon all who

"JESUS SHALL REIGN WHERE'ER THE SUN"

Jesus shall reign wher'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

To Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With ev'ry morning sacrifice.

People and realms of ev'ry tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His name.

Blessings abound where'r He reigns;
Abound where'r He reigns.
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains.
The weary find eternal rest.
And all the sons of want are blest,
All the sons are blest, Jesus reigns.
He reigns and all are blest.

Let ev'ry creature rise and bring honors.
Bring honors to our King.
Angels descend with songs again.
And earth repeat the loud Amen.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO OUR MEMBERS ABOUT FUEL OIL

Your Church Council has voted to change their fuel oil supplier. The Congregation has joined a cooperative group for the purchase of fuel oil. Based on our 1983 fuel oil consumption (8,300 gallons), it is anticipated that our church will save about $800-1,000. on its annual purchase of fuel oil. Additionally, as a member of the congregation, you may also join the group by paying a fee of $2.00 each year. You can then buy your oil from the oil company who has been the successful bidder to supply the group for that year. The congregation has nothing to do with your purchase. You buy your oil directly from the oil company. Automatic delivery and insurance plans are available. The successful bidder is the Carroll-Independent Fuel Company, 750 E.

*The Creed

We come knowing that we have failed in so many ways this week. Sometimes we have tried to hide from you, from one another, and even from ourselves. There have been times when we have drawn back from the right because it was difficult. Too often we have involved ourselves in a meaningless round of activities that lead nowhere and do not bring satisfaction. We have treated persons as things and things as gods. We have strayed far from the fullness of life that you have made possible for us. Forgive us for our self-centeredness, our weakness, our living death, and give us the courage to accept the pain of complete commitment which brings new birth and healing of our brokenness. In the name of Christ who makes it possible. Amen.

"THE GIFT OF LOVE"

Though I may speak with bravest fire,
And have the gift to all inspire,
And have not love, my words are vain,
As sounding brass, and hopeless gain.

Though I may give all I possess,
And striving so my love profess,
But not begiv'n by love within,
The profit soon turns strangely thin.

Come, spirit come, our hearts control,
Our spirits long to be made whole.
O come, spirit, come, let inward love,
Let love guide every deed.
By this we worship, we are freed.

Beloved, if God so loved us,
We ought also to love one another,

That he who loveth God, love his brother also,
Beloved, if God so loved us,

The Sermon: "In These Things I Delight"

*A Creed In The Words of John

"WE BELIEVE that God is Spirit, and they who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth.

WE BELIEVE that God is Light, and if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another.

WE BELIEVE that God is Love, and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

WE BELIEVE that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and that God has given to us eternal life through Him.

WE BELIEVE that He is the Resurrection and the Life, and whoever believes in Him, though he were dead, he shall live.

WE BELIEVE that we are children of God, and He has given us of His Spirit.

WE BELIEVE that if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all uncleanness.

WE BELIEVE that the world passes away and the lust thereof, but he who does the Will of God abides forever. Amen."

Organ Prelude: "Prayer" Boellman

*Solemn Declaration

*Call to Worship

Pastor: Let us bring to God eyes and ears
atuned to the beauty of the earth;
minds open wide to truth; hearts overflowing with love; spirits eager for His presence.

People: Let us praise God with all our hearts and minds and spirits.

Pastor: Let us love Him with our whole being.

People: For God is indeed very good. His grace is abundant, His power supreme,
and His guidance real.

ADMISSION OF OUR HUMAN WEAKNESS

Prayer of Preparation (Seated)

Father, we have fallen short of your commandments again this week. When given opportunities to create, we have destroyed.
When called to bring light, we have spread darkness by thoughtless word and deed.
When called to obedience, we have turned aside to follow the easy paths of our own wishes and desires. Lord, forgive us! We do want to follow you, to fill our souls with the sweet, life-giving breath of your Spirit. We repent of our sins, and thank you for the knowledge of forgiveness gained, not by our own merit, but by your love through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST - A PROUD PEOPLE!

From the very beginning, we were a proud people—a people who have always put the proclaiming of the Good News of the Love of God before and above everything else! U.C.C. people are a pilgrim, pioneer, covenant family. We were the Separatist in the early 17th century England, the left-wing radicals of the Puritan movement, and the Pilgrims of the Mayflower and Plymouth Colony. We were the second group of Puritans who settled a few years later in the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

We were also the people of the Christian Church that was indigenous to America, with its beginnings after the Revolutionary War, made up of three like-minded groups, one from the South, one from New England, and one from the newly-opened Midwest. And we were the German Reformed settlers on the rich soil of Pennsylvania and Ohio, rooted deep in richer soil of Christian history, of sound theology, and a solid doctrine of the church, warning against a purely subjective interpretation of the faith.

We were the Evangelical German Christians, beneficiaries of a Reformed and Lutheran union in Prussia and bringing to the Mississippi Valley where man settled a deep, genuine piety and warm cooperative Spirit. These are the names and places on this land, the deaths, the sacrifices we remember as a people, a special people, who celebrating their 27th year of union--the United Church Of Christ. Formed on June 25, 1957, we are one of the youngest denominations of American Churches, yet some of our congregations are among America's oldest...76% of our local congregations were organized before the year 1700 and some in New England date in the early 1600's, as the church in West Barnstable, Mass. founded in 1610.

Most of us generally use some form of the English language. Yet some of our members are more at home with Spanish, some German or Hungarian. Some are heirs of the Pilgrim parents whose faith was founded on the faith of the English Reformers, while others were influenced by John Calvin, Martin Luther, Zwingli, and the German reformers. We are located in every state, but very unevenly, with Pennsylvania having more of us than any other state. We are proud, caring people, although small in number -- about two million members -- can boast of our involvement in educating the young, caring for the aged, ill and handicapped.

Yes, we are a proud people, but the Good News of God's love for all has been spread by hard work and a willingness to sacrifice on the part of our forebearers in the U.C.C. May God grant that WE will not be seen as parasites upon the past, that we took but did not give, and that life came to us, but never went beyond us.

BE A PART OF A PROUD PEOPLE, COME AND PARTICIPATE IN THE LIFE OF YOUR CHURCH!

"I'll Walk With God"

I'll walk with God, from this day on,
His helping hand, I'll lean upon.
This is my prayer, my humble plea,
May the Lord be ever with me.
There is no death, though eyes grow dim.
There is no fear when I'm near to Him.
I'll lean on Him forever and he'll forsake me never.
He will not fail me, as long as my faith is strong,
What ever road I may walk alone.
I'll walk with God, I'll take His hand.
I'll talk with God, He'll understand.
I'll pray to Him each day to Him,
And he'll hear the words that I say.
His hand will guide the path I trod.
And I'll never walk alone
When I walk with God.

"THE GIFT OF LOVE"

Though I may speak with bravest fire,
And have the gift to all inspire,
And have not love, my words are vain,
As sounding brass, and hopeless gain.

Though I may give all I possess,
And striving so my love profess,
But not begiv'n by love within,
The profit soon turns strangely thin.

Come, spirit come, our hearts control,
Our spirits long to be made whole.
O come, spirit, come, let inward love,
Let love guide every deed.
By this we worship, we are freed.

NOTE: T Denotes the Ten Lenten Hymnal

ON CALVARY

By Edgar Daniel Kramer

If you are the Savior," the first thief sneered,

"And truly the Son of God,

Why not be saving yourself and us

With either a word or nod?

If you are a worker of miracles,

As I have oft heard it said,

Why not be spurning this bitter cup

And striking these madmen dead?"

But Jesus answered with anguished eyes,

While he trembled upon the tree,

"Forgive him, Father! None is so blind

As they who refuse to see!"

"When you come to your kingdom today, my Lord,"

The other thief gasped and sighed,

"While you walk in the fragrant garden close

With your dreamings the world denied,

I am praying that you will remember me,

For my humble heart is proud

To be sharing your shame on Golgotha

As I hearken the jeering crowd;"

And Jesus answered with kindly eyes,

While the hill in the tempest tossed,

"With me you will find in my Father's house

The treasures you thought were lost!"

Love Invitation

Pastor: "Prove me, O Lord, and try me;
test my heart and my mind.

People: For Your steadfast love is before my eyes, and I walk in faithfulness to Thee.

Pastor: I wash my hands in innocence, and go about the Altar, O Lord.

People: Singing aloud a song of thanksgiving,
and telling all Thy wondrous deeds.

Unison: Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest."

WE OPEN OURSELVES TO HIM

Prayer of Confession (Seated)

Unison: "Almighty God, Father of all mercies,
we thank Thee for all you have given and for all you have forgiven; for Thy hidden blessings and for those which in our negligence we have passed over; for every gift of nature or of grace; for our power of loving; for everything, whether joy or sorrow, whereby we are drawn to Thee.

Lord, for Thy tender mercies' sake, lay not our sins to our charge, but forgive
what is past, and give us grace to amend
our lives; to decline from sin and incline

Matt. 4:19

And Jesus, being full of the Holy Ghost, Returned from Jordan and was led by the Spirit,
Led by the Spirit into the wilderness.

SOLO:

Forty days the devil tempted Him,
And in those days He did eat nothing,
In those days He did eat nothing;
And when they were ended, afterward He hungered.

SOLO:

And the devil said unto Him,
"If Thou be the Son of God, commend this stone that it
Be made bread!"
And Jesus answered him saying,
Man shall not live by bread alone,
But by the Word of God,
By every Word of God, shall ye live,
And not by bread alone,
But by every Word!
Man shall not live by bread alone,
But by every Word of God!

Pastor: We come into this House of Worship

in the community.

Pastor: Our true worship of God is initia-

People: I want my worship to be more than what I do here. May my daily life become my true worship of God.

Calling Us To Worship

Pastor: Heavenly Father, as we stumble awkwardly on holy ground, the foundations of our souls shake in fear and trembling.

People: Our expectations are set on edge with guilt; our lives cry out for mercy and forgiveness.

Pastor: We come hurriedly with emotions scattered between pride and humility.

People: We arrive seeking forgiveness in error, strength in failure, courage in weakness, direction in confusion.

Unison: "Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

Prayer of Repentance (seated)

Our Father and our God, we confess that we often glory in the wrong things. Sometimes we are unbearably vain. Sometimes we think we are very bright, because we have been getting away with so much. And often we act as if humility was something others needed. Bring us to our spiritual senses, Lord. We are somewhat afraid to ask You to do this, because we perceive the processes necessary may be difficult on us. But we would rather be right with You, then self-

"WATER OF LIFE"

Water of life, eternal spring,
From the heavenly fountain,
Let me drink my fill with Thee,
Pure as snow clad mountain;
Let mankind that thirsteth here,
In this world below,
Feel Thy cooling grace in heart,
And Thy goodness know.
As that earthly well did give Strength to weary frame,
Let me draw the drink for Thee,
Believing in Thy name;
And in turn, behold Thy face,
Listen to Thy voice,
Drinking of Thy living well,
Make my heart rejoice!
Savior, in Thy heav'nly grace
May Thy mercy rain
Streams of living water down
On men's souls again,
Let my strength thus be renewed,
As I work for Thee;
Let my life thus be assured,
Live eternally!

 good. Whatever the last moment was, this one is new. It is God's mercy that He first clears away the rubble of our lives,
 in order that He may plant and nourish the garden of faith. The hands that are His will battle the real war of life. The minds that are His will create life, true life. The hearts that are His will bring humanness to life. The last word is that the new Word is given! Arise, then, as those who know that such a Word demands shouts of joy! He has come to forgive you to set you free; and to make you what you were meant to be. Amen."

*The Call To Worship

Pastor: "Come now, let us reason together, says the Lord; though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow;

People: Though they be red like crimson,
they shall become like wool.

Pastor: If you are willing and obedient,
you shall eat the good of the land;

People: But if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken."

Prayer of Confession (Seated):

UNISON: "Forgive, O Lord, the imperfect service which we have rendered to Thee during the past week. Before Thee is all our idle, trifling and uncharitable words; all our wasted, half-employed and misused hours; all our selfishness, vanity, and ungodliness; all our omitted duties and all our committed sins.
O Lord, Who knows all, remembers all and must bring all to judgment, even every secret thing, save and forgive all that is amiss in us, for the sake of Him Who came into the world to save sinners, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

cal appliances, toys, games, books, shoes, handbags, flowers, clothing - just about anything as long as it is clean and in good reusable condition. Won't you search your attic and basement and have your family and friends
do the same? Remember - something old to you will be something new to someone else. Light refreshments will be sold in Friendship Hall.

In the event you have to reach Pastor Henry Schaeffer, please call the Church Office, 276-0393. The Church Office hours are 8 a.m.
to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Welcome to our Worship Services today and always. If you are not an active member elsewhere, we encourage you to seek membership here. Merely speak to Pastor Schaeffer, any Council Person, or call the Church Office.

REMEMBER - today is One Great Hour of Sharing
Please think of those less fortunate than you.
We have enclosed a special Offering envelope.

"GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD"

God so loved the world
That He gave His only begotten Son,
That who so believeth, believeth in Him
Should not perish, but have everlasting life.
For God sent not His Son into the world
To condemn the world, but that the world
Through Him might be saved.

Amen

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of Glory died, my richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride. Forbid it Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ,
my God; all the vain things that charm me
most, I sacrifice them to His blood. See from His head, His hands, His feet, sorrow
and love flow mingled down; did 'er
such love and sorrow
meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown? Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too
small, love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.

Would that we could retain the wonder of a child.

If you desire Offering Envelopes, contact Pastor Schaeffer, any Council Person, or call the Church Office.

Pastor: I waited patiently for the Lord;

People: Jesus said to them, "I am the Bread of Life; He who comes to Me shall not hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst.

Pastor: If any man would come after Me,
let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

will lose it. And whoever loses his life for My sake will find it."

PALM SUNDAY

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Org. Prelude: "All Hail The Power Of Jesus'
Name" Bish
*Processional: "The Palms" Faure

O'er all the way, green palms and blossoms gay;
Are strewn, this day in festal
preparation.
Where Jesus comes to wipe our tears away,
E'en now the throng to welcome Him prepare.

REFRAIN: Join now and sing,
His name declare.
Let every voice resound with acclamation;
Hosanna, Praise Him who cometh
to bring us salvation. (Amen)

His word goes forth and peoples in its might;
Once more regain freedom from degradation;
Humanity doth give to each his right,
While those in darkness find restored
the light.

REFRAIN.
Sing and rejoice, O bless Jerusalem,
Of all thy sons sing the emancipation;
Thru boundless love the Christ of Bethlehem,
Brings faith and hope to thee forever-
more.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Behold, thy King cometh.
John 12:15

Thy road is ready; and Thy paths,
made straight,
With longing expectation seem to wait
The consecration of Thy beauteous feet,
And silently Thy promised advent greet!
Thy road is ready, and Thy paths made straight.

Hosanna! Welcome to our hearts!
For here Thou has a temple, too,
As Zion dear;
O enter in, dear Lord, unbar the door
And in that temple dwell for evermore.
Hosanna! Hosanna!
Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

Pastor: Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors!

People: That the King of glory may come in!

Pastor: Who is this King of glory?

People: The Lord of hosts, He is the King of glory!

Unison: Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed be He who comes in the Name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

Unison Prayer (Seated)

"O God of Love, Whose most gracious Son rode into a city which hailed Him and then rejected Him, we, too, would give ourselves to be His followers. We rejoice that His Spirit is forever seeking entrance into our world's life. May we always know Him and receive Him as our Lord and King.
Forbid that we should hail Jesus as Master
when all men speak well of Him, and then deny Him in the lonely hour of His rejection. Pardon us that we so often close the gates against His entrance and forgive us for the love of self, which will not allow Him to lead us to a larger life.
In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen."

Jesus, the crucified, when I must walk
the way which Thou hast trod, go Thou with me.

In the wilderness of temptation,
fortify me.

From the standards of the world, release
me.

In the waters of renewal, cleanse me.

At the place of witness, inspire me.

In the hour of decision, guide me.

In the darkness of sorrow, console me.

On the mountain of vision, transform me.

At the table of love, nourish me.

In the garden of betrayal, comfort me.

At the pillar of scourging, strengthen
me.

On the cross of sacrifice, accept me.

From the tomb of death, raise me.

At the throne of grace, crown me.

In the mansions of heaven, give me life
and peace with Thee forever.

Pastor: "A new Commandment I give to you,
that you love one another; even as I,
who have loved you, that you also love one another.

People: By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.

Pastor: You know that you were ransomed
from the futile ways inherited from your fathers;

People: Not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb
without blemish or spot."

*Prayer of Confession:

O Lord, we confess our reluctance to confess our sins; we feel that You know us
all about us - without our telling Thee.
And we do not want our neighbors, our friends, or even our loved ones to know everything about us. We hide ourselves from Thee as foolishly as Adam did in the bush-bushes. We wear protective masks against loss of face. Remind us, O Lord, that there is no real relationship without honesty, and no healing forgiveness without confession.
Save us from the Pharisee's pride, O God,
and give us the courage of the publican.
This we pray in the name of Jesus the Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen & Amen!

When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God!
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.
See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down!
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love, so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all!

As the music plays very softly and the lights are brought up to a very dim position, this is the signal to depart from the sanctuary. We request that all depart in absolute silence saying nothing until you are outside the Church Building. Thus, we observe the Discipline of Silence.

THE CROSS AND THE CROWN

Why did Jesus have to suffer torture and experience what mortals call death? Because that was His mission. Mark tells us (10:45), "For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many."

Thus it was with Jesus. He came into a world filled with intolerance, and injustice; a world where men followed the "party line," and any who attempted to challenge the established order were obliged to recant or be put to death. He had a gift to offer more precious than earthly freedom --- the gift of eternal life.

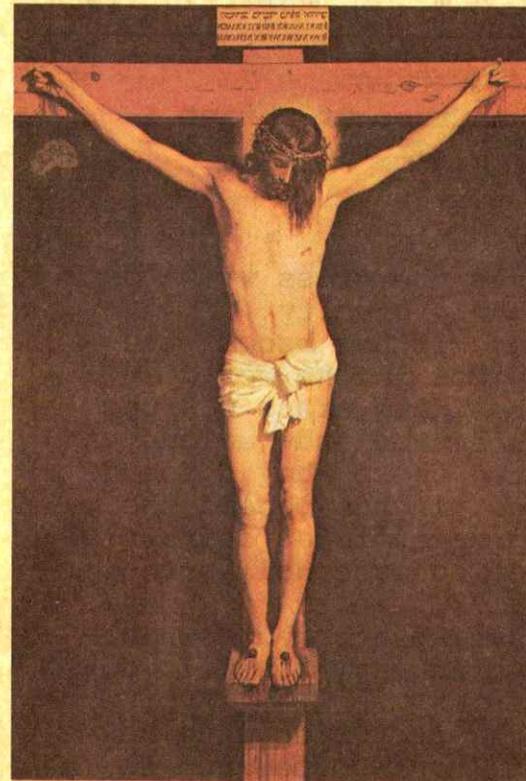

Few could accept the gift. The ultimate in human agony would be required of Jesus. When it was all over, a few would know the glorious truth. They would "go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

And, since "The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant before his Lord" (Matt. 10:24) we too, must be ready to make sacrifices. There is no crown for those who will not share the burden of the cross.

The "burden of the cross" is not something we have but something we need. It is the brokenness needed for our human pride and self-sufficiency. It is the pouring out of God's forgiveness for our sinfilled thoughts, words, and deeds. It is our need to experience a broken and contrite human spirit, necessary to receive the fullness of God's love.

PRAYER: Dear God, may we come to rely fully on the truth of the gospel and Realize You.

The Seven Last Words

Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.

Itell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise.

Dear Woman, here is your son. Here is your mother.

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

I am thirsty.

It is finished.

Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.

Pastor: Christ is alive!

People: Christ is for real!

Pastor: He is risen!

People: And he is here today to share His Resurrection with us.

Pastor: The same power that raised Jesus
from the dead is available to us today.

People: It has taken the fear out of death
and reduced the might of our enemies to emptiness.

Pastor: His victory is our victory!

People: We shall live forever.

Pastor and People: May God be praised forever. Hallelujah! Amen.

*Prayer of Preparation

Almighty God, death has been overcome once and for all. You have demonstrated your great power in raising Jesus from the grave. Forgive us, O Lord, for doubting such power in the midst of our small problems and many frailties. Now we know once more that nothing that may confound or perplex us is too great for you. May that power that raised the Christ, raise us out of our defeats and failures that we may share in His Resurrection. Hallelujah!

Amen.

Senior Choir Anthem (10:00 a.m.)

"THE RESURRECTION SONG"

Bring out the banners and shout the news
Blow the trumpets and horns
Till there is no one who hasn't heard,
We shall not die any more.
I'm here to tell you that Jesus lives.
As He lives so shall we.
Dying and fear has passed away
Swallowed in victory
For He has broken the bars away
There is no reason to fear.
Why seek the living among the dead?
Jesus arose, He's not here.
Where oh death is your victory?
Where oh grave is your sting?
Come children and sing with me
Sing to our living King.
Love wins over everything
And the spears and the swords
Join hands let your voices ring
Christ is a risen Lord.
Open the prison and ring the bell
Join the ransomed and freed
In celebration for what He's done
Jesus the Christ sets you free!

Pastor: From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the Lord is to be praised!

Our Confession (seated)

UNISON: "Our Heavenly Father, who by Thy love has made us; and through Thy love hast kept us; and in Thy love wouldst make us perfect, we humbly confess that we have not loved thee with all our heart and soul and mind and strength; and that we have not loved one another as Christ has loved us. Thy life is within our souls, but our selfishness hath hindered Thee. We have resisted Thy Spirit. We have neglected Thine inspirations. Forgive what we have been; help us to amend what we are; and in Thy spirit direct what we shall be; that Thou mayest come into the full glory of Thy Creation, in us and in all men, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. If faith has been a family tradition, it may be we are thirsty for a more personal encounter with Christ.

Many of us have grown up in the church. We feel at home here, this is "our" place. Perhaps that familiarity hinders what God would like to do with us.

God would like to satisfy our thirst by revealing our sins so God can forgive us. Then we can really worship.

God is spirit and those who worship God must worship in spirit and truth.

"Home-Making"

*A Creed On The Home: We believe that God will fill the homes of this country with His loving kindness if we invite Him to enter. We believe that marriage should be held in due honor, and that husbands and wives should live faithfully together, in honor preferring one another. We believe that every home should be rich in mutual understanding seeking to rightly divide the Word of God. We believe that the Bible should become the law book of life. We believe that families should turn to this Book and ask God's revelation to each of us. We believe that life can be beautiful if we take His Commands as found in scriptures and try to live by them. Hymn: "HAPPY THE HOME WHEN GOD IS THERE" (tune #63 in hymnal)

1. Happy the home when God is there,
And love fills every breast;
When one their wish, and one their prayer,
And one their heavenly rest.
2. Happy the home where Jesus' Name
Is sweet to every ear;
Where children early lisp His fame,
And parents hold Him dear.
3. Happy the home where prayer is heard,
And praise is wont to rise;
Where parents love the sacred word
And all its wisdom prize.
4. Lord, let us in our homes agree
This blessed peace to gain;
United our hearts in love to Thee,
And love to all will reign.

Amen

*Solemn Declaration

*We Are Called To Worship

Pastor: The plans of the mind belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the Lord.

People: All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the spirit.

Pastor: Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established.

People: By loyalty and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the Lord a man avoids evil.

*Confessional: "O God, Who appoints all things to a destined and holy end, and requires of man a reasonable service; quicken in us, we pray Thee, the sense of a gracious Presence and Power in the world, of a Providence that never slumbers, of a love that never fails, and so unite us with Thyself in our aspirations and thoughts that with our whole might doing those things which please Thee we may live in Thy favor and in that light which broadens to the perfect day. Keep us this day without fear, without sin, without distrust, and through meditation and prayer prepare us for another week of faithful labor and generous service to our brethren; through Jesus Christ our Lord. THE DEVIL'S BEATITUDES

Blessed are they who are too tired and busy to assemble with the Church on Sunday; for they are my best workers.

Blessed are they who are bored with the minister's manners and mistakes; for they get nothing out of the sermon.

Blessed is the Church member who expects to be invited to his OWN Church; for he is important to me.

Blessed are they who do not meet with the Church on Sunday; for they cause the world to say, "The Church is failing."

Blessed are they who are easily offended; for they get angry and quit.

Blessed are they who do not give to carry on God's work and mission; for they are my helpers.

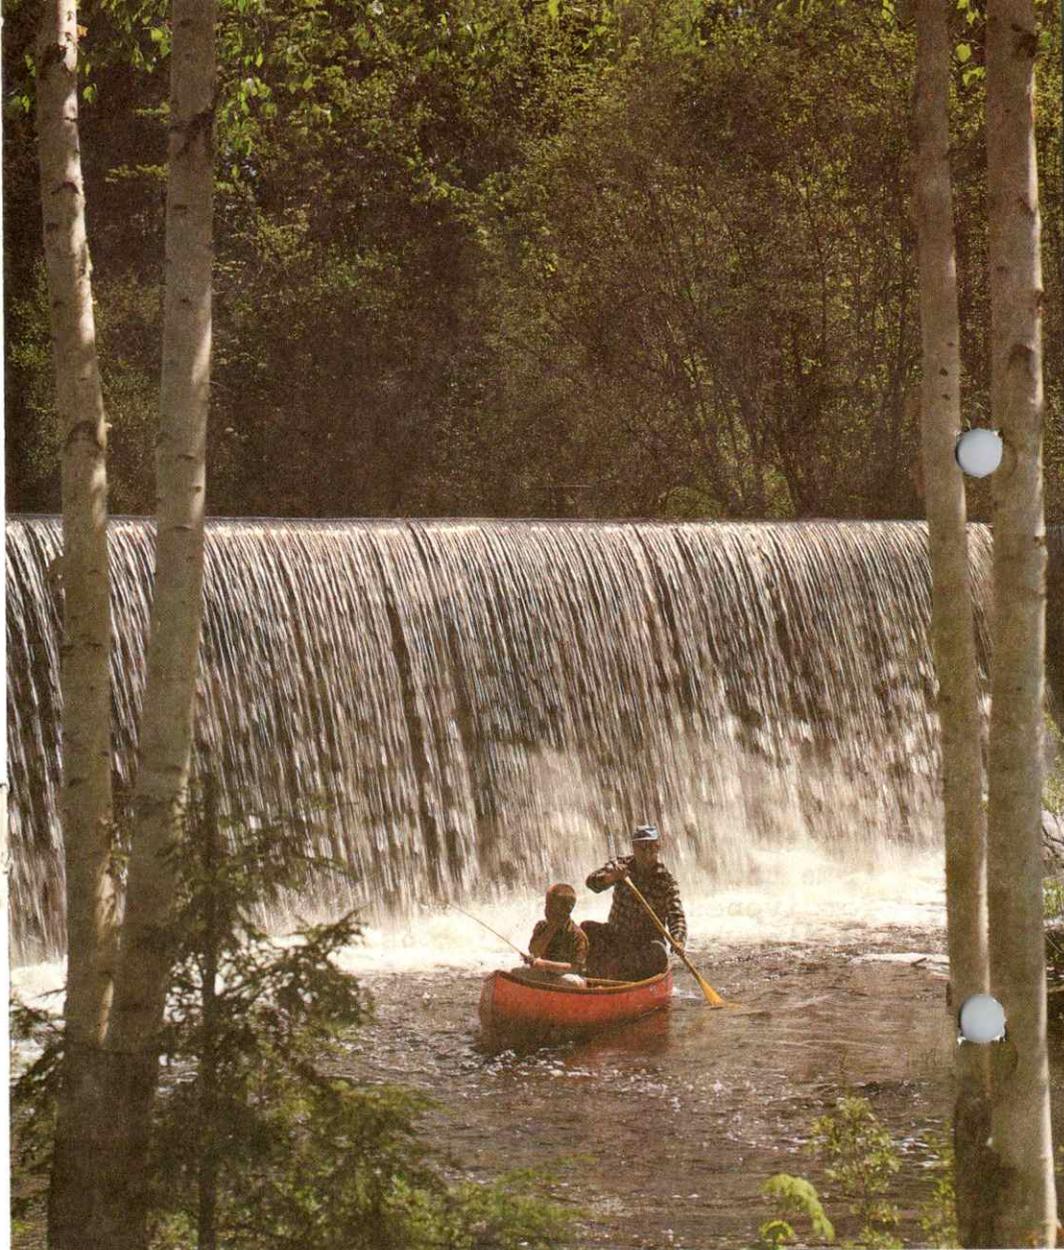

Blessed is he who professes to love God but hates his brother; for he will be with me forever.

Blessed are the trouble-makers; for they shall be called the children of the devil.

Blessed is he who has no time to pray; for he shall be easy prey for me.

"ONWARD, YE PEOPLES"

Onward, ye peoples, strive for the Light!
The light that the Lord hath given us for our guide,
Who through murk and darkness of night Hath led us in safety unto our reward. See how the fiery pillar is gleaming, Lighting our steps, when dark is the way.
And the light of the world, Cleaveth the gloomy blackness of night that else would engulf us.

See the cloudy pillar to shield us Safe when the sun would blister us. Then forward, where faith revealeth the way!
For God is our guide, And He will never fail. Fires are gleaming, Voices are singing forth from Mount Neboh's heaven storming height, Salem! Salem!
Hark, they call us upward and on, To our Father's home. Salem! Salem!
On the horizon, urging us on to God and our home, And the heavenly choir doth ring from Mount Neboh, Piercing the blue like a living light.

All the long years through.

June-time comes o'er blossom-drifted
pathways,
June-time comes with garlands on her
brow.
Sweet her voice in the lilting songs of
summer,
Caroled clear from ev'ry waving bough.

June-time comes with swinging censors
laden,
June-time comes with golden hours in
store,
Rare her gifts and wonderful her
treasures,
Welcome, June-time, welcome as of yore.

Praises unto the Father,
Loving and kind and true;
Praises for His blessings,
All the long years through.

June-time comes o'er blossom-drifted
pathways,
June-time comes with garlands on her
brow.
Sweet her voice in the lilting songs of
summer,
Caroled clear from ev'ry waving bough.
June-time comes with swinging censors
laden,
June-time comes with golden hours in
store,
Rare her gifts and wonderful her
treasures,
Welcome, June-time, welcome as of yore.

"HOW LOVELY IS THY DWELLING PLACE" Brahms

How lovely is thy dwelling place
O Lord of Hosts, thy dwelling place.
For my soul, it longeth yea fainteth
For the courts of the Lord,
My soul and body crieth out
Yea, for the living God.
How lovely is thy dwelling place
O Lord of Hosts
Blest are they that dwell within thy house,
They praise thy name evermore!
How lovely is thy dwelling place.

"THE HEAVENS ARE TELLING"

Haydn

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His work displays the firmament,
Today that is coming speaks it the day,
The night that is gone to following night,
The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His work displays the firmament,
In all the lands resounds the word,
Never unperceived, ever understood.
The heavens are telling the glory of God
The wonder of His work displays the firmament.
