THE WAY OF THE CROSS

He carried the cross to Calvary, Carried its burden for you and me,
There on the cross He was crucified And, because He suffered and bled and died,
We know that whatever our cross may be,
It leads to God and eternity....

For who can hope for a "crown of stars" Unless it is earned with suffering scars,
For how could we face the living Lord And rightfully claim His promised reward
If we have not carried our cross of care
And tasted the cup of bitter despair...

Let those who yearn for the pleasures of life,
And long to escape all suffering and strife,
Rush recklessly on to an "empty goal"
With never a thought of the spirit and soul....

But if you are searching to find the way
To life everlasting and eternal day-- With faith in your heart take the path He trod,
For the way of the cross
Is the way to God.

PRAYER: Dear Lord, please help us to keep the mountains of our lives from becoming false gods. Give us a clear vision of Your will for us, as Jesus had when He prayed, "Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen."

"The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world" - wise words from William Ross Wallace, who lived in the middle of the last century. How true they are!

I learned this famous saying at the time my sister, Kathryn, gave her commencement address from High School back in June of 1929. Her topic was "MOTHER". Indeed, for the most part, no one has a greater influence in the lives of boys and girls than their mothers. Each year on the second Sunday in May, we salute all MOTHERS from the beginning of time.

We will recall the humble home of Jesus in Nazareth of Galilee. He came into the world as a little child and was reared by peasants. There he first learned of God, the Father. Jesus was protected from the evils of the world and given the full opportunity to "grow in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man." In His short thirty years of an earthly life, His mother, Mary, gave her motherly care and love to her Son. At the end, she was at the foot of the Cross.

TO MOM

When taps final notes have sounded and the echoes fade away; Night's darkness is prevailing at the end of each long day A fellow starts to thinking and he feebly tries to pray.

"Dear Lord, be ever with her", is the most that he can say.
It is pretty crude and simple, but it sets his heart aglow - There are lots of thoughts put in those words - He's sure that God will know.

She's the sweetest little woman and her face with kindness blessed That has a beauty all its own in which shames the angel's best.

And her eyes are always shining, its a beacon in the night.
When we look to her for guidance from the wrong way to the right.

Her smile is like a sunbeam as it brightens her kind face;
And it makes all our unhappy thoughts seem sadly out of place.

She's the dearest, most unselfish soul that I have ever known.
And it fills her sons with surging pride
To say that she's our own.

For she heals us in our sickness both in body and in mind And a better mother than our Mom is something you won't find.

From our time of birth to manhood we have brought her much despair - We could ne'er pay all our tribute to that lovely silver hair.

So, Mom, if ever we do wrong, you shouldn't feel the shame For you've done your best - that's plenty good,
So let us take the blame.

We may not always show our love,
I know too well, that's true.
But believe me when I tell you, Mom, We'll be always loving you.

FATHER'S DAY

JUNE 17, 1984

We honored the love, beauty and glory of MOTHER in the month of May, and now in June it is FATHER who receives the special recognition. I'm sure both concepts of MOTHER and FATHER originated in the mind of our Creator, God. Even in the Old Testament there are some references to fatherly care and faithfulness as found in Psalm 103, verse 13, where we learn that "as a father pities his children, so does God pity those who fear Him!" This says to us that God cares for all of us as a concerned father when we seek His support in this journey of life.

No doubt, Jesus called upon God, as His heavenly Father. He prayed daily. We do have the model prayer which opens with "Our Father", given at the time He taught the disciples to pray. For Him to say that the Father and I are One, makes a definite relationship between the God of His earthly Fathers and Himself.

In those early years of Jesus in Nazareth, it was His earthly father, Joseph, who gave Him the example of a good father. Many of us are able to recall the sacrificial patterns of our earthly fathers. We are thankful for their guidance. If the reader's father is still with you in this life, by all means, show your gratitude to him on this day.

It is not necessary to buy expensive gifts to express the gratitude in our hearts. No, just a "thanks Dad for all you've done for me" will suffice. Make it a regular habit - anytime - to show appreciation to loved ones and friends.

"I am the Ressurrection and the life; he who believes in Me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die."

These words of Jesus are often used in funeral services. I find comfort in these words, as do the families and loved ones of those who die. These words are full of hope because they are full of life, not death. Jesus is not telling us about death. Instead He is telling us about life; eternal life. One beautiful aspect of eternal life is that we don't have to die to experience it. We begin to live our eternal lives the moment we accept Jesus as our Savior, and thus we never really die. We simply pass from one stage of life into the next.

Let us rejoice with the saints who now continue their eternal lives in direct fellowship with Jesus Christ, and remember them with Thanksgiving.

Shalom,

Pastor J. Stephen Fair

ON THE WINGS OF PRAYER

Just close your eyes and open your heart And feel your worries and cares depart,
Just yield yourself to the Father above And let Him hold you secure in His love...
For life on earth
 grows more involved With endless problems that can't be solved --- But God only asks us to do our best, Then He will "take over"
 and finish the rest...
So when you are tired, discouraged and blue, There's always one door that is open to you --- And that is the door to "The House of Prayer" And you'll find God waiting to meet you there...
And "The House of Prayer" is no farther away
Than the quiet spot where you kneel and pray --- For the heart is a temple when God is there
As we place ourselves in His loving care,
And He hears every prayer and answers each one When we pray in His name
 "Thy Will Be Done" --- And the burdens that seemed too heavy to bear Are lifted away
 on "The Wings of Prayer."
