HE IS ALIVE!

He is Alive! These words fill us with hope as we celebrate the Festival of the Resurrection. On this Resurrection Sunday, it is very appropriate that we remember those who have gone before us in faith and now rest from their labors. Because Jesus lives, we have the promise of eternal life and the total forgiveness of all our sins.

We have several things for which to rejoice. First, we can give thanks to God for the life, death and resurrection of His Son, Jesus. Because of Jesus, we are assured of an eternity with God.

Secondly, we can be thankful that our loved ones are now experiencing a new life in the presence of God. The promises of salvation and eternal life have been realized for those who have died in Christ.

Finally, we can look forward in joy to a time when we are all called together to be in the presence of God, finally reunited with all the saints who have died before us.

Let us give thanks for the lives of our loved ones who have died in Christ and know the promises of Jesus. Rejoice, He is Alive!

Shalom,
Pastor John Stephen Fair

I GAVE MY LIFE FOR THEE

I gave My life for thee,
My precious blood I shed,
That thou migh'st ransomed be,
And quickened from the dead;
I gave, I gave My life to thee,
What has thou giv'n for Me?

My Father's house of light,
My glory circled throne
I left for earthly night,
For wand'rings sad and lone;
I left, I left it all for thee,
Hast thou left aught for Me?

I suffered much for thee,
More than thy tongue can tell,
Of bitt'rest agony,
To rescue thee from hell;
I've borne, I've borne it all for thee,
What hast thou borne for Me?

And I have brought to thee,
Down from My home above,
Salvation full and free,
My pardon and My love;
I bring, I bring rich gifts to thee,
What has thou brought to Me?

in his coronation robes.*

FESTIVAL OF THE CHRISTIAN HOME

"God has ordered the covenant of marriage; that husband and wife may give to each other prosperity and adversity; that he may hallow the expression of the natural affections; that children may be born and nurtured in families and trained in godliness; that human society may stand on firm foundations."

This quotation, taken from the United Church Of Christ Order for Marriage sums up well the importance of families. As a part of the celebration of the Festival of the Christian Home, we remember those loved ones from our families who have died and who sleep in Christ. Let us thank God for the gift of our families and for the examples of family love we remember in this booklet.

Shalom,

Pastor Fair

November 24, 1985

"I am the Ressurrection and the life; he who believes in Me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die."

These words of Jesus are often used in funeral services. I find comfort in these words, as do the families and loved ones of those who die. These words are full of hope because they are full of life, not death. Jesus is not telling us about death. Instead He is telling us about life; eternal life. One beautiful aspect of eternal life is that we don't have to die to experience it. We begin to live our eternal lives the moment we accept Jesus as our Savior, and thus we never really die. We simply pass from one stage of life into the next.

Let us rejoice with the saints who now continue their eternal lives in direct fellowship with Jesus Christ, and remember them with Thanksgiving.

Shalom,

Pastor J. Stephen Fair

We believe that Jesus' death upon the Cross was for the benefit of all mankind and that He died for our sins and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. We believe that as Jesus was a Suffering
Servant, so we, too, must be servants of God willing to dedicate our lives to the principles of brotherly love, human concern, and unity under the Fatherhood of God. We share the belief that Jesus gave His life knowingly, lovingly, and willingly without concern for His own suffering and tortured death. We believe in His Resurrection from the dead and His Ascension into heaven and that these things were fulfilled as a further indication of God's love for us and His desire to have us dwell with Him forever and ever.

Whenever angel voices reach our ear
And music wakes us with its joyful
chime;
Whenever love wraps all its warmth around
A lonely heart that yearns at Christmastime;
When candles flame and little children
smile;
When peace enfolds the Earth on Christmas morn;
Then we have caught the wonder of the Star
And know within our hearts that Christ is born.

CHRISTMAS EVE...DECEMBER 24, 1985

"or unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given..."

We hear these words of hope and joy every Christmas. They tell of the promised Babe of Bethlehem. They inspire in us a sense of peace and beauty. It is important, however, that as we celebrate the birth of this Holy Child, that we remember the sacrifice of the Man of Nazareth. The Christmas Story holds no meaning unless it is seen in the light of the Easter/Resurrection story.

Advent is a time of anticipation; looking forward to the birth of the Man of Nazareth. As we journey to the manger, let us also journey to the cross. Let us celebrate the birth of Jesus while at the same time renewing our commitment to Christ.

From Kathy, Michael, and me to you and your family, a very Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year.

Shalom,

Rev. J. Stephen Fair

SILENT NIGHT! HOLY NIGHT!

Silent night! Holy night!
All is calm, all is bright;
'Round yon virgin mother and Child
Holy Infant so tender and mild;
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night! Holy night!
Darkness flies, all is light,
Shepherds hear the angels sing:
Alleluia! Hail the King!
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent night! Holy night!
Guiding Star, lend thy light!
See the eastern wise men bring
Gifts and homage to our King!
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent night! Holy night!
Wondrous Star, lend thy light!
With the angels let us sing
Alleluia to the King!
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Amen

Franz Gruber, 1813

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT CLEAR

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From heaven's all gracious King!
The world in solemn stillness lay,
To hear the angels sing.

Still though the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever circling years
Comes round the age of gold.
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendor fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

Amen.
