

UNITED EVANGELICAL UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
East Avenue and Dillon St. Baltimore, Md.
The Rev. J. Stephen Fair - Pastor
Mr. Robert Gundlach - Director of Music

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

July 6, 1986

7:45 and 10:30 a.m.

Prelude: "O Lord Most Holy" Franck

*Processional Hymn (Verses 1,2) 440

• Solemn Declaration

*Call to Worship:

Pastor: Christ commissions His followers to tell others about Him.

People: The harvest is small because the laborers are few. But where people have shared the news of Christ, there is rejoicing over the harvest.

Pastor: Each generation reaps a sufficient harvest to keep the Church alive. But the Church still makes too little impact in society.

People: May God help us accept Christ's Commission to interpret His good news to our neighbors.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

• We have been too passive, our Father, when it comes to telling others about Christ.
We have felt that responsibility belonged to someone else. Forgive us for using the excuse of not knowing how, when too often the real reason has been lack of interest.
Show us how we can use our personalities, even without a gift of speech, to share our faith with others. We pray through Christ our Lord, who is sending us on His behalf.

Amen.

*Kyrie

EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

July 13, 1986 8 and 10:30 a.m.

Prelude: "Prelude and Fugue on B-A-C-H"
*Processional Hymn (Verses 1, 2 and 3) 21

*Solemn Declaration

*Call To Worship:

Pastor: Remember Jesus' parable, which in essence says to be a neighbor answers the question, "Who is my neighbor?"

People: Yes, but there are so many who need help, we find it easy to be like the priest and Levite, and ignore the need.

Pastor: Jesus' point was not just to help a person in need, but to regard all persons, even our enemies, as our neighbors.

People: We confess we like to build walls of prejudice. May God help us tear them down.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

Dear God, the human need of our world is so great, we have given up on what our little acts of neighborliness could accomplish. We have given in to the struggle for survival; and to be a neighbor to one outside our circle of friends has faded from our faith. Forgive us for creating little societies in our world that protect us from our obligations to one another. Give us a vision of the larger brotherhood, where we belong to each other, and need each other. We pray in Jesus' Name.

Amen.

Mr. Fred Henning has been admitted to the Francis Scott Key Medical Center.

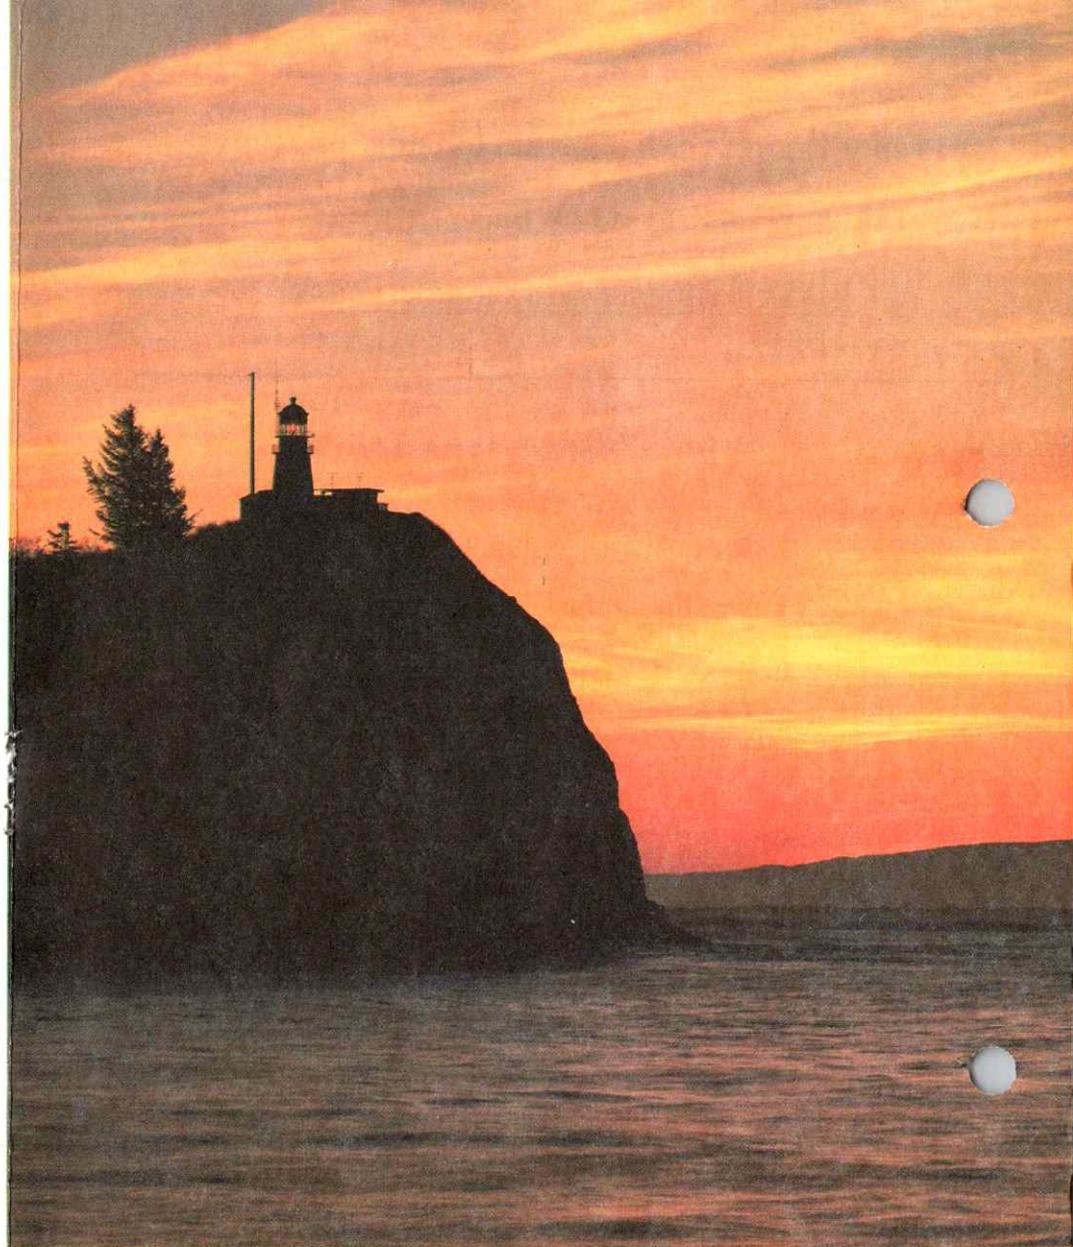

YOU CAN'T BE THE LIFE OF THE FUNERAL

Dear Church Member: Don't wait until the hearse hauls you to church. If you do ---

1. You will go, regardless of the weather.
2. You will go, regardless of the condition of your body.
3. There will be beautiful flowers there, but you won't enjoy them.
4. You will go, regardless of how your family feels.
5. The minister may say many good things, but they will do you no good.
6. There will be beautiful music, but you won't hear it.
7. There will be heartfelt prayers, but they will not touch your heart.
8. There will be friends and relatives there, but you won't worship with them.
9. You will go, no matter how many hypocrites are there.
10. You will go, no matter how much you are needed at home or at work.
11. You will receive no blessing from the service.
12. You won't feel concerned about your clothes.
13. You will never have to decide about attending Church again.

Aren't you glad to be alive and well and full of zest and able to choose to go to Church?

(Reprinted from the Morning Sun)

I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
John 8:12

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

July 20, 1986 8 and 10:30 a.m.

Prelude: "Meditation" Massenet

*Processional Hymn 29

*Solemn Declaration

Call to Worship:

Pastor: Before we accepted God's forgiveness in Christ, we were separated from God's love.

People: We know Christ has reconciled us to God, but we tend to lose sight of that hope as time goes on.

Pastor: The hope of the gospel, which we believed when we first became Christians, requires our commitment if we are to remain reconciled to God.

People: We desire to stand firm in the Christian hope, reconciled to God by our Lord Jesus Christ!

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

Father, our sins keep us separated far from You as Your enemies. Yet You have offered us friendship through Christ, that we may be accepted in Your presence as though we were sinless. That hope is our most cherished gospel, but we handle it so carelessly. Forgive us when we give our attention to other concerns that cause this hope to fade in the background. Grant us steadfastness to this hope given by the death of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we pray.

Amen.

"O God, the Strength of those who walk with Thee, without Whom nothing is safe, nothing is tranquil. Confirm in us the knowledge of Thy Presence, that we may so deal with our anxieties that at length our hearts may find their hope in Thee; pour down upon us the abundance of Thy mercy; forgiving us whose sins we confess, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, only through the merits and sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Father, who sent Thy Son to both Jews and Gentiles, and has commanded Thy Church to preach the Gospel to every creature; bless all Thy servants who are laboring for Thee in distant lands. Have compassion upon all who know Thee not. Lead them to Him who is the Light of the World, that walking in that light they may at length attain to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen."

Prelude

*Processional Hymn 11

*Solemn Declaration

Call to Worship:

Pastor: Since Christ is our Savior, we are to live in union with Him.

People: Our lives need to be strongly rooted in Christ, or we become controlled by other influences.

Pastor: We have all been dead in sin. It is only in Christ that we are made alive.

People: We unite ourselves with Christ, whom God raised from the dead, and through whom He raises us to new life!

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

Dear God, even though our lives have been rooted in sin, we believe Christ is our Savior, who is willing to forgive us our sins. But we have not grown new roots in Christ as we should have, after accepting His mercy. Forgive us for not living the new life His forgiveness provides, for not building our lives on Him, and for not becoming stronger in faith. Sever all our relations with past sin, that we may live in union with Christ, filled with thanksgiving for our new existence. In His Name we pray.

Amen.

Colemn Declaration

*Call to Worship:

Pastor: To live the Christian life means to change from living a sinful life to being a new person.

People: We are not as new as we would like to be, but we are trying to put away our sinful desires.

Pastor: We cannot do it by ourselves. But with Christ living in us we will be able to experience a new nature, renewed by God Himself.

People: With God's help we will walk away from our former sins, and become more and more like Christ!

*Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession:

The way of the world is full of problems, Father, but it is still an attraction that makes it difficult for us to live the new life Christ gives to us. Forgive us for controlling our hearts and minds by our sinful desires, instead of concentrating on Christ who raises us out of the old life to a new life of righteousness and joy. Give us strength to put on this new nature, renewed in Your image, with our lives hid in Christ; through whom we pray.
Amen.

Our special congratulations to Mr. Henry Witzke, Eastpoint Nursing Home, 1046 Old North Point Road, Room 27, Baltimore, Md. 21224 who will observe his 96th birthday, Wednesday, August 6.

If you would like to have your birthday announced in the Sunday Bulletin, please call the Church Office.

On July 26th, the Youth Group held a car wash and bake sale. This gave us a profit of $79.50. We would like to thank all the people who brought their cars to be washed and also wish to thank those who donated baked goods and those who purchased the baked goods. From our profit, we took $35.00 of it towards a trip to King's Dominion in which 10 people participated and enjoyed a beautiful day. Sincerely, Miss Francine Raddatz, Youth Group Secretary.

Our Mini-Bus Fund is growing. Todate, we have received donations of $12,469.11. We have included with today's bulletin, a special envelope for your donation. All contributions will be applied to your record for tax purposes.

We are now planning the Confirmation Classes. Our first meeting for Confirmands and parents will be Thursday, September 11. If you are 12 years or older and entering the 7th grade, please call the Church Office and enroll for Confirmation Class I.

The Women's Guild is making room deodorizers disguised as little dolls and they are $5.00 each and can be made up in any color. Also, clowns are available in any color and they are $4.00 each. Proceeds going to the Mini-Bus Fund. If interested, contact Millie, 276-0393 to place your order.

Don't forget to bring in your cancelled postage stamps for the handicapped. A box has been provided in the narthex for your cancelled stamps.

The Women's Guild is now making articles for their Christmas Bazaar on Tuesday mornings at 10 a.m. If you have an idea, please come in and join them. Bring a sandwich, dessert will be provided.

Last call for articles for the United Endeavor. If you have an article you would like to have published, please get it into the Church Office this week.

Do you like to sing? Do you play an instrument? If your answer is 'yes' to any of these questions, there is a place for you at United. CHILDREN'S CHOIR - This newly formed group will meet after school one day during the week. All children ages 11 and under are invited to sing. Mrs. Kathy Fair has consented to direct the group. *Processional Hymn (Verses 1, 2 and 3) 43

Call to Worship:

Pastor: The great people of faith in the Old Testament died before their hopes and dreams became a reality.

People: They believed that God would establish them as a great nation, to be His children for all eternity.

Pastor: Yes, which shows that faith touches the eternal, beyond what our physical eyes can see, confident of the city whose builder and maker is God.

People: With eyes of faith we see God's eternal home as a reality through Christ Jesus our Savior.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

We are so easily disappointed, Father, when our expectations in life are unfulfilled. We tend to confine our hopes and desires to this life, conditioned by what we can experience only with our physical senses. Forgive us when we reduce our faith to religious hopes barred by the physical limitations of this world. Give us a faith that causes us to see into eternity where our true citizenship is held. In our Savior's name we pray.

Amen.

Pastor: What is your only comfort, in life and in death?

People: That I belong - body and soul, in life and in death - not to myself but to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ, who at the cost of His own blood has fully paid for all my sins, and has completely freed me from the dominion of the devil; that He protects me so well that without the will of my Father in heaven not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that everything must fit His purpose for my salvation. Therefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and make me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for Him.

Pastor: How many things must you know that you may live and die in the blessedness of this comfort?

Unison: Three. First, the greatness of my sin and wretchedness. Second, how I am freed from all my sins and their wretched consequences. Third, what gratitude I owe to God for such redemption.

"The Savior Is Waiting"

The Savior is waiting to enter your heart.
Why don't you let Him come in?
There's nothing in this world to keep you apart. Wat is your answer to Him?

Time after time He has waited before
And now He is waiting again
To see if you're willing to open the door.

O how He wants to come in!

Chorus: Time after time He has waited before
And now He is waiting again
To see if you're willing to open the door
O how He wants to come in.

If you'll take one step toward the Savior,
my friend
You'll find His arms open wide;
Receive Him and all of your darkness
will end,
Within your heart He'll abide.

a race that requires strict self-discipline.

People: It is too easy to step out of the race, and take each day as it comes.

Pastor: But if we discipline ourselves to live the life Christ is calling us to live, we will enjoy a victory that lasts forever.

People: We are striving for determination and self-discipline, that we may enjoy the victory God has for us.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

Dear God, faith is so hard to put into practice. We do not want to live as enemies of the cross. But we confess our conduct does not always give a favorable witness to the Christian faith. Forgive us when we have lived as though Your Kingdom had no control over us. Our only hope is in the cross of Christ. Cleanse us of our sins, that Christ may live in us, revealing our true allegiance. In His Name
we pray.

Amen.

"A new Commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your fathers; not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot."

There were ninety and nine that safely lay

In the shelter of the fold,
But one was out on the hills away,
Far off from the gates of gold -
Away on the mountains wild and bare,
Away from the tender Shepherd's care,
Away from the tender Shepherd's care.

"Lord, Thou has here Thy ninety and nine;
Are they not enough for Thee?"

But the Shepherd made answer:

"This of mine has wandered away from Me,
And altho' the road be rough and steep,
I go to the desert to find my sheep,
I go to the desert to find my sheep."

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

"MAJESTY"

Majesty! Worship His majesty!
Unto Jesus be glory, honor and praise.
Majesty! Kingdom authority
Flows from His throne, unto His own,
His anthem raise.
So, exalt! Lift up on high the name of Jesus.

Magnify, come glorify Christ Jesus the King.

Majesty! Worship His majesty!
Jesus who died, now glorified,
King of all kings.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Special thanks to Pastor Ray Frankenfeld who was Pastor at St. Matthew's UCC for many years He translated the words for today's German hymn into a form that we could sing. In addition, his "German Lesson" was greatly appreciated. It enabled the choir to learn the hymn.

"SEEK YE THE LORD"

Seek ye the Lord, while He may be found,

Call ye upon Him while He is near;
Let the wicked forsake his way,
And the unrighteous man his thoughts,
And return unto the Lord
And He will have mercy,
And abundantly pardon.

Amen.

Did you know that the Chesapeake Association of the United Church Of Christ (made up of Churches primarily in the Baltimore area) has a Women's Coordinating Committee? Did you also know that no one has ever served on that committee from United Evangelical Church? Did you further know that you could do something about that?

YOU CAN! The committee is in need of committee members and we at United Evangelical Church are called on to help fill that void. We need a volunteer to meet with this committee twice a year for a two year term. The committee's work is to plan the Annual Spring Workshop for Women. If you are interested in helping in this worthwhile service to the church and to the Lord, please contact Pastor Fair.

The Boy Scouts would like to thank the Church, Church Council and Congregation for coming out and sharing their Pancake and Sausage Breakfast last Sunday. Things worked out well and they plan to do it again in 1987.

MEMORIALS

In memory of Mrs. Mary (Mamie) Conner who passed away October 14, 1986. Given from Mr. and Mrs. Harry and Mabel Hickman.

Our Father and our God, we confess that we often glory in the wrong things. Sometimes we are unbearably vain. Sometimes we think we are very bright, because we have been getting away with so much. And often we act as if humility was something others needed. Bring us to our spiritual senses, Lord. We are somewhat afraid to ask You to do this, because we perceive the processes necessary may be difficult on us. But we would rather be right with You, than self-righteous with ourselves. In Your great love, forgive and heal the need in our lives. Through Jesus Christ,

Amen.

I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

fear

And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

In response to the HELP WANTED AD for the ALL CHURCH SOUR BEEF AND OYSTER SUPPER, which was included in the Bulletin for several weeks, the response was tremendous and we want to thank you for all the many things you did to make the Supper a huge success. We also want to thank the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Senior Citizens and friends of the Church who helped us and for those of you who so generously baked cakes for our Cake Table. With such good teamwork, our Church will continue to move forward in all endeavors. Sincerely, Mrs.

"Lord, of all, who knows us and remembers how weak we are; we humbly confess the evil we have done and our weariness in well-doing, the vows we have broken, the duties we have refused, the tasks undone which proclaim us idle and unprofitable servants, and all our many transgressions. Create in us a sincere desire of whatever things are true, just, honorable, pure and of good report; mould us inwardly to Thy Will; so unite us in love and confidence that whatever You command we may diligently perform. Through Christ, our Saviour.

Amen."

LOVE GIFT

A "Love Gift" has been given to the Church toward the Mini-Bus. I would like to thank Pastor Fair for his visits to my home and the hospital. For the Sacrament of Holy Communion and prayers. Thanks to all for the cards and words of encouragement during my stay at the hospital and my recuperation. Sincerely, Mr. Raymond James.

I want to thank Pastor Fair for his visit to my home and for giving me the Sacrament of Holy Communion and also for the visit after my surgery at home. These things mean a great deal when someone is so kind and good. God Bless you and watch over you always. Sincerely Helen Bogucki.

I want to thank everyone for remembering me in their prayers and also for all the beautiful cards and the gifts. It was so very thoughtful of you. I thank the ladies for taking time out of their busy work schedule to visit with me. It was so very thoughtful and kind. You all are my very dear friends and that is what is needed when one is ill. God Bless you all with good health and happiness always. Gratefully, Helen Bogucki.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

"GREAT IS THE LORD"

Great is the Lord, He is holy and just,
By His power we trust in His love.
Great is the Lord, He is faithful and true,
By His mercy He proves He is love.
Great is the Lord and worthy of glory!
Great is the Lord and worthy of praise!
Great is the Lord, now lift up your voice to God
And sing great is the Lord!

Prelude: "Flute Sonata in B Minor" Bach
Mrs. Kathy Fair, Flute

*Processional Hymn:

"WE GATHER TOGETHER"

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing,
He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing,
Sing praises to His name; He forgets not His own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom
divine,
So from the beginning the fight we are winning;
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, all glory be Thine.

We do extol Thee, thou leader triumphant,
And pray that Thou still our defender wilt be.
Let Thy congregation escape tribulation.
Thy name be ever praised!
O Lord, make us free!

Pastoral Prayer and Lord's Prayer

Almighty God,
Lord of heaven and earth, we humbly pray that your gracious providence may give and preserve to our use the fruitfulness of the land and of the seas, and may prosper all who labor therein, that we, who are constantly receiving good things from your hand, may always give you thanks; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From the rising of the sun to its going down, the Lord's name is to be praised.

LOVE GIFTS TO THE MINI-BUS FUND

A generous "Love Gift" designated for the Mini-Bus Fund has been given from Mr. Henry L. Rossmark, Sr.

A generous "Love Gift" has been given to the Church for the Mini-Bus Fund from Mr. David Harris.

1987 Calendars have been ordered and will be available soon.

Christmas Eve Worship Service will be a family service at 7:30 p.m. The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be distributed.

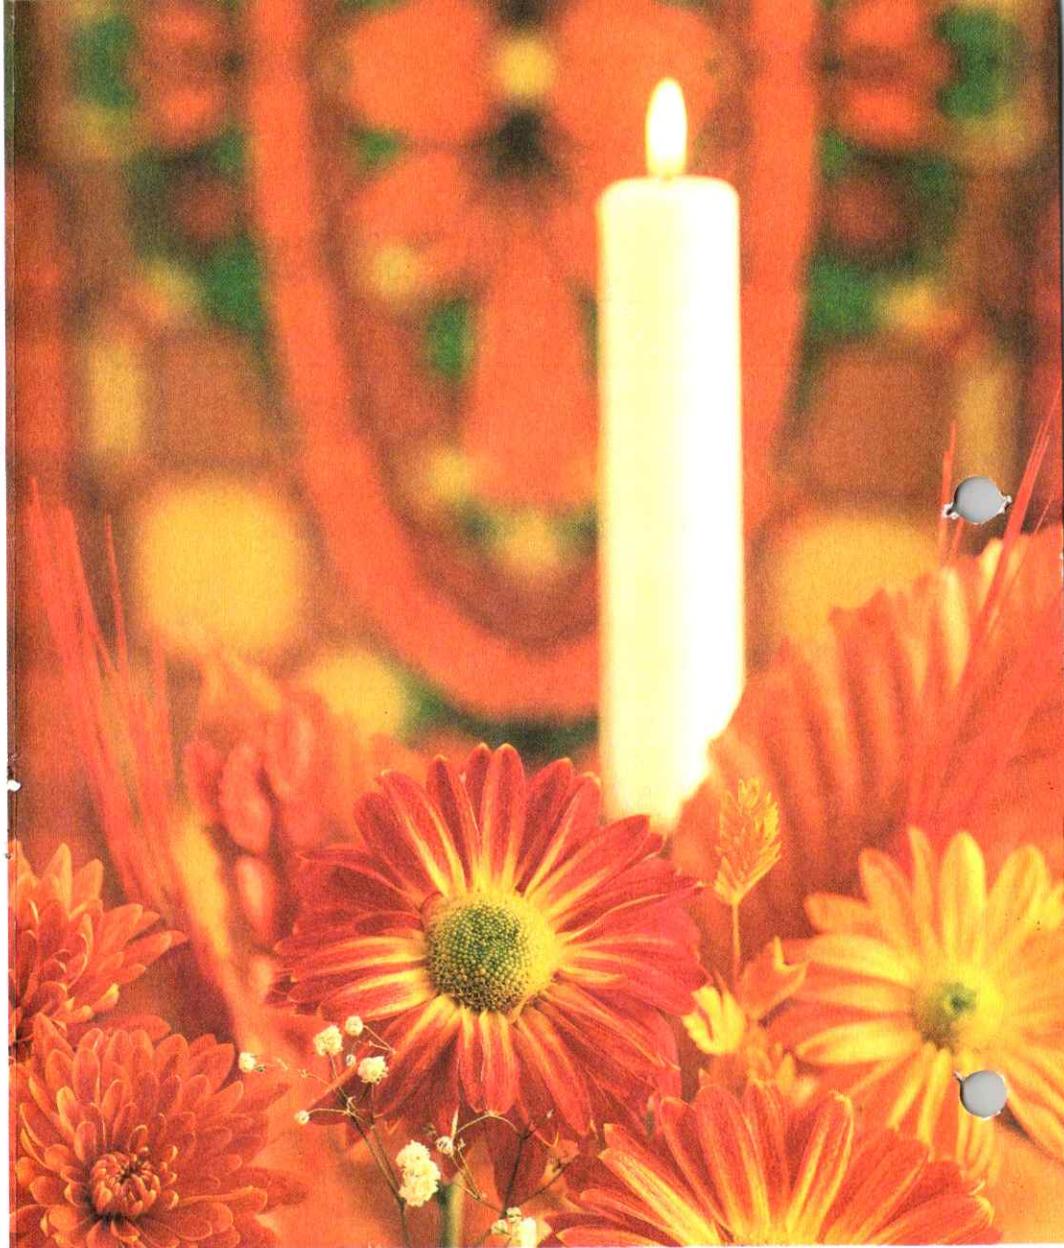

The Church Office will be closed December 25 through December 29 for the Christmas holiday.

A WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS

What makes Christmas wonderful? Not only gifts, and gleaming trees, and lavish bounty. These all help, but the real riches of Christmastime are those of the inner life. This year perhaps we shall be more conscious of the blessing of those inner riches than at any season in recent years.

We shall treasure them in our hearts, and find room there too for love of others, and for kindness, and tolerance, and forbearance.

We shall remember the great man who came, a little child, in humble circumstances into the world, and whose inner riches, shining through His life, became the light of the world.

*For thou wilt light my candle:
the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

December 14, 1986

10:30 a.m.

Prelude: "Of The Father's Love Begotten"

*Processional Hymn

88

*Solemn Declaration

Call to Worship:

Pastor: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

People: He was in the beginning with God;

Pastor: All things were made through Him, and without Him was not anything made that was made.

People: In Him was life, and the life was the light of men.

Pastor: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

People: And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld His glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

Pastor: Christ Jesus being found in human form humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross.

People: Therefore God has highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name.

Pastor: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth.

People: And every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

If you would like to have your birthday announced in the Sunday Bulletin, please call the Church Office.

Our Mini-Bus Fund is growing. Net total is $15,200.19. We have included with today's bulletin, a special envelope for your donation. All contributions will be applied to your record for tax purposes. A letter was mailed out last week regarding the useage of this bus service. If you plan to ride the bus next Sunday for the 10:30 a.m. Worship Service, please call the Church Office by Thursday, December 18.

1987 Offering Envelopes are available in Friendship Hall. If you did not have envelopes in 1986 and desire them in 1987, please call the Church Office.

Our Christmas Eve Worship Service will be a family service at 7:30 p.m. As part of the Worship Service, members of the congregation and community will be invited to come up front and join the Senior Choir in Handel's "Halle-lujah Chorus". In addition to providing special music during worship, the Senior Choir, Youth Choir, Children's Choir, soloists and instruments will present a half hour of Christmas music prior to the service. If you would like additional information about the "Hallelujah Chorus" singing or an advance
copy of the music, please call the Church Office, 276-0393.

There was no room in the inn...Jesus was born things that endure. May we see the truth steadily, follow the light faithfully, Father, Who prepared of old the minds and hearts of men for the coming of Thy Son, and Whose spirit ever works to illumine our darkened lives with the light of the Gospel: Prepare now our minds and hearts, we pray Thee, that Christ may dwell in us and ever reign in our thoughts and affections as the King of love, and the very Prince of Peace. Grant this we pray Thee, for His sake. Amen.

Sermon: "Would I Believe?" - Guest Pastor -
The Rev. Henry A. W. Schaeffer

*A Creed:

WE CONFESS our everlasting need of God, the need of forgiveness for our greed and selfishness, the need of life for empty souls, the need of love for hearts grown cold.

WE ACKNOWLEDGE the Glory of all that is like Christ; the steadfastness of friends, the blessedness of homes, the beauty of compassion, the miracle of many hearts made kind at Christmas, the courage of many who dare to resist hate and fear.
