*Processional Hymn 423

*Solemn Declaration

*Call to Worship: Psalm 147

Pastor: Sinners such as you and I make it necessary for God to send His Servant to redeem us.

People: We are guilty of sin, and suffer the consequence of our sins.

Pastor: God has sent His Servant, Jesus, to have compassion on us, and deliver us from the power of sin.

People: Bless the Lord, O my soul, for His compassionate love in Jesus Christ His Son!

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

O God of love, You have revealed Yourself in the life of Your Son, Jesus. He is our light, our life, and our hope. But we are of this world; and this world is indifferent to Your gift of love. Restore us to Your fellowship; that we may enjoy the blessing of being Your children. We pray through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

We meet in God's House to praise Him and give thanks for all His blessings. "The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the ordinances of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether, More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb."

Ash Wednesday is named for the practice of imposing ashes. The ancient symbol has validity in several aspects of our modern life. First, ashes remind us of God's condemnation of sin (Genesis 3:19). Second, in ancient times ashes were used in the absence of soap. Ash Wednesday the ashes are a penitential substitute for water as a reminder of our Baptism. Water both drowns and refreshes, ashes are a symbol of both death and renewal. Third, ashes remind us of the shortness of human life. The imposition of the ashes reminds us of the words of the burial service "We commit his/her body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust." These words will one day be spoken over each of us. Fourth and finally, ashes are a symbol of repentance. They are the outward sign of the inner penitence.

If you so desire, please bring in your palms from last year to the church on Sunday, March 1st, to be burned.

The Joseph Center (Associated Catholic Charities) at 430 S. Broadway, wishes to inform members age 60 & over of current services and events. The Joseph Center offers a variety of classes, which include ceramics, exercise, sewing, stained glass, painting/drawing and needlework. Upcoming events include a Valentine Dance on February 20th. The cost is $1.50 and the annual Anniversary Luncheon to be held in March at Tiffany East. A special trip to Stanford, Connecticut (Murder Mystery Weekend) is planned for April 3rd-5th. The Joseph Center also offers casework services to homebound elderly residents of Baltimore City. For more information regarding these as well as other events and services, please contact Betty Weinstein at 732-5000.

Ash Wednesday is named for the practice of imposing ashes. The ancient symbol has validity in several aspects of our modern life. First, ashes remind us of God's condemnation of sin (Genesis 3:19). Second, in ancient times ashes were used in the absence of soap. Ash Wednesday the ashes are a penitential substitute for water as a reminder of our Baptism. Water both drowns and refreshes, ashes are a symbol of both death and renewal. Third, ashes remind us of the shortness of human life. The imposition of the ashes reminds us of the words of the burial service "We commit his/her body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust." These words will one day be spoken over each of us. Fourth and finally, ashes are a symbol of repentance. They are the outward sign of the inner penitence.

On Ash Wednesday, we will have ashes imposed during the Worship Service. If you so desire, please bring in your palms from last year to the church on Sunday, March 1st, to be burned.

Our "Poor Closet" is nearly exhausted. So that we can fill any requests for food, can you bring in a can of non-perishable food to replenish our stock? It will be appreciated.

I want to thank Pastor Fair for his visit to the hospital and for the Sacrament of Holy Communion, and prayers. These acts of kindness were appreciated greatly by my wife, Mrs. Josephine Walter and myself. Sincerely and gratefully, Mr. N. Elwood Walter.

Room deodorizers dressed as Valentine Clowns are now available at $4.00 each. If interested, call Millie to place your order. All proceeds going to the Mini-Bus Fund.

Lenten Worship Services will begin on Ash Wednesday, March 4. The Ladies' Aid Society will have a Bake Sale before and after the Worship Service. The Tuesday Morning United Sewing Group will have their Bake Sale on March 11, the Young Women's Guild on March 18, The Church School on March 25, the Youth Group on April 1 and the Children's Choir on April 8. Help with the baking if you can and buy from us if possible.

Welcome to our Worship Services today and always. If you are not an active member elsewhere, we encourage you to seek active membership here. Come to the New Membership Class on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

We are always in the presence of Your di-

In our Savior's name we pray.

Amen.

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me". We here at United Evangelical Church are very glad to have children at worship. Children remind us of the family nature of the people of God. We, therefore encourage children of all ages to be present in worship. We do, however, request that children, when possible, be supervised by a responsible adult or teenager. Children are requested to behave in a manner appropriate to worship. These requests are made for the safety and protection of the children. Thank you for your compliance with these requests.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American Patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my Country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respects its flag and to defend it against all enemies.

William Tyler Page

THE SOUND OF LAUGHTER

There isn't any nicer sound
That anyone can hear
Than children's laughter echoing,
Because it is sincere.

It's laughter for the joy of it;
There's no pretension there.
If only they could stay that way,
So free and unaware.

For when I hear my children laugh
I know it's genuine;
And for a little while, at least,
I am a child again.

Kathleen Y. Bergeron

"IF I WERE THERE"

If I were there that terrible day
With You Dear Lord I would stay
I'd walk behind You with great pride
For I know I'm not worthy to walk at Your side.

I would pray with You all through the night
And when the soldiers came,
For You I 'd fight.
Around Your prison I would cling
I'd feel the thorns the whips great sting.

When Your Cross You had to bear
I'd run to help You, Your burden I would share.

I could not look when they nailed You to the Cross
For I'd know it was my greatest loss.

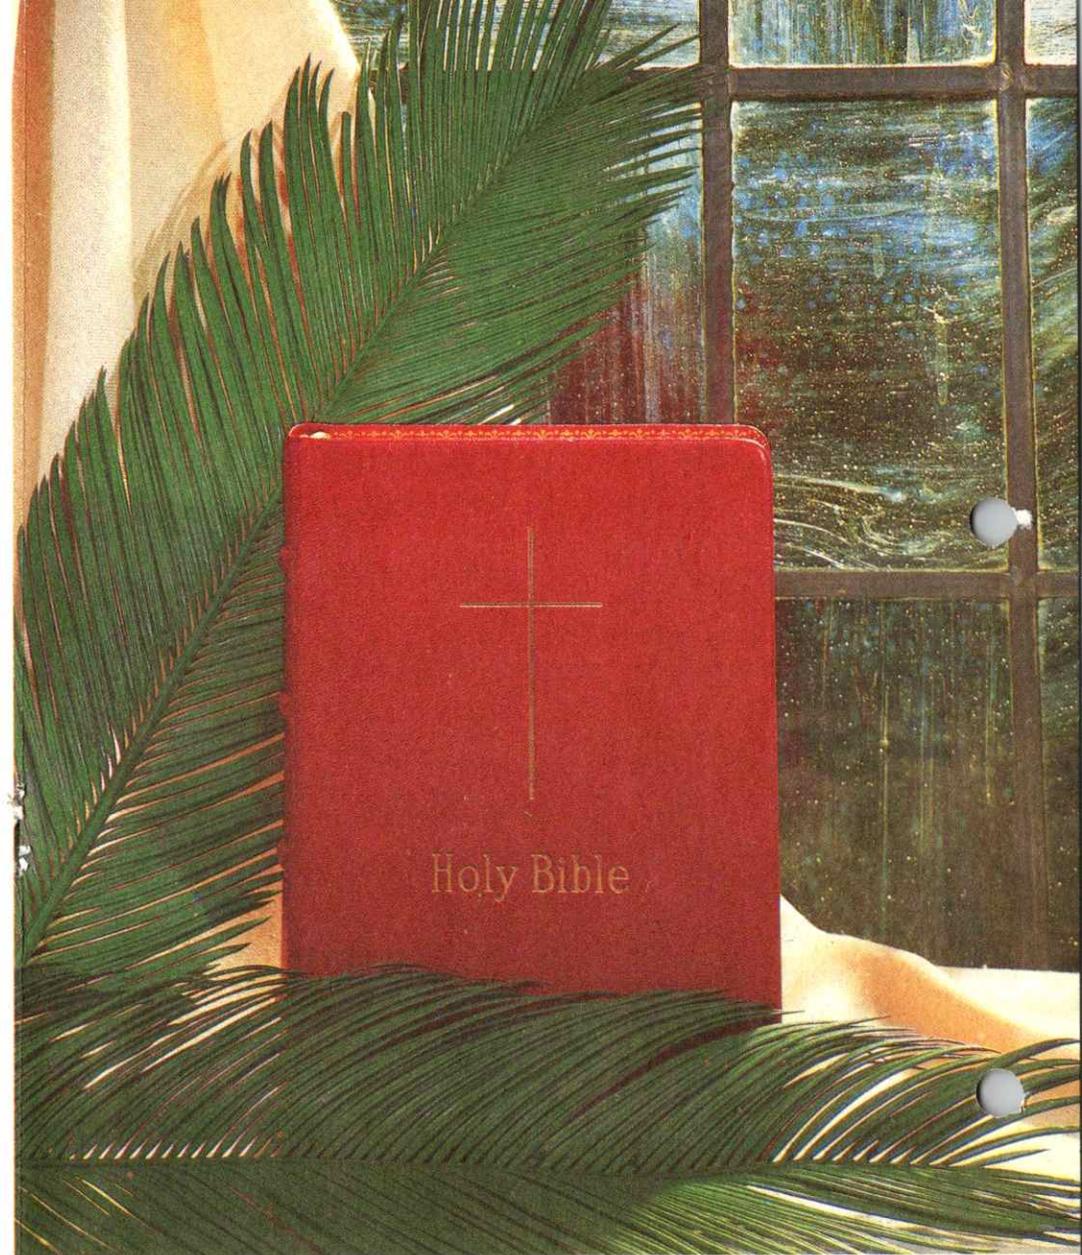

I'd look up at Your loving eyes
And I'd know You knew my heart cries.
I'd wash the blood from Your nailed feet
And wish I could take Your place with every heart beat.

To Your mother I would say
Please let me help You in some small way.
My heart would grow heavier as times went on.

For without looking I'd know You would soon be gone.

With tear stained face I'd look up and say
Please Dear Lord, do not leave me,
Take me with You this day.
If I were there.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession:

Almighty God, merciful Father; I, a troubled and penitent sinner, confess to You all my sins and iniquities with which I have offended You and for which I justly deserve Your punishment. But I am sorry for them, and repent of them, and pray for Your boundless mercy. For the sake of suffering and death of Your Son, Jesus Christ, be gracious and merciful to me, a poor sinful being; forgive my sins, give me Your Holy Spirit for the amendment of my sinful life, and bring me to life everlasting. Amen.

THE FIRST EASTER

Would you have liked to have been there when our Savior arose
From the dark, dreary tomb where He lay?
Just to witness the joy that He'd conquered
the Earth
On that beautiful first Easter day.

I would have loved to have been a part of the throng
When the story was told all around
And seen the looks of dismay on the faces of those
Who had placed on His head the cruel crown.

He had suffered so much before that bright morn
But He bravely bore the deep pain.
He did it so sinners like you and myself
Would have a chance to be born again.

So sing "Alleluia" to our Great God above.
Let your praises ring over the earth.
And witness to others the glorious news
Of the Savior who gave us rebirth.

A CHURCH FOR ALL PEOPLE!

EVERYWHERE I LOOK

Everywhere I look I find
Some wondrous handiwork of Thine,
Every single day I see
Some lovely thing You've given me.
My heart almost overflows,
At the sight of velvet rose,
Lacy fern, and birds that sing,
Lord, You give me everything.

As the early morning breeze
Softly stirs through leafy trees,
Comes the dawn all steeped in gold,
More than my two arms can hold.
Silver stars throughout the night,
Purple shadows, pale moonlight,
Turn my thoughts again to Thee,
Lord, I fear You're spoiling me.

Everywhere I look I find
Beauty of the richest kind,
Little joys throughout the day,
Almost take my breath away.
How very precious I must be,
That You should have such love for me.
And in each cranny, smallest nook,
I find You, everywhere I look.

*He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches;
To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life,
which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

Next Sunday after both Worship Services, the Sgt. Henry Gunther VFW Post will be selling poppies outside the door for the handicapped veterans.

We would like to thank all the ladies who came out to prepare and serve the food, to the wonderful gentlemen who served the dining hall and cleaned up afterwards, to our special guests, who performed in the entertainment and to all the Mothers and Daughters who came out with us on this past Wednesday evening at our Annual Mother and Daughter Banquet. THE LANGUAGE OF LOVE

Flowers on the mantel,
Flowers on the sill,
Remind us of the loveliness
Their presence can fulfill.

Flowers at the roadstand
Tempt those passersby
Returning to the city,
Who stop and quickly buy.

Flowers in the garden
As lovely as can be,
Whisper their contentment
So obvious to see.

Flowers at the bedside
Of someone taken ill,
Cheerfully raise the spirit
Thru their extra special skill.

Flowers on the altar
In reverence to the Lord,
So proudly testify to
Their splendorous reward.

Flowers sent to loved ones
Speak a language all their own;
Help make that precious story
Of the joys that we have known.

Flowers at the graveside
Say a last farewell,
In our final statement
To the ones we loved so well.

Flowers speak the language
That we fondly know as "love."
