*Prayer of Confession:

Our Father, we know how heavy the burden of sin is. And when we read Your laws, our sins become all the heavier. But Your Son has come to share Your grace; that we may not be burdened without hope. Forgive us, God, not only for our sins we carry; but for neglecting the grace of Your Son which would relieve us. Lead us into the paths of righteousness, guided by the loving grace of our Lord, that we may find Your promised rest. We pray in Jesus' Name. Amen.

*Kyrie

*Assurance of Pardon

*Praise (Responsively)

BEYOND ALL MEASURE

Dear Lord, I know You love me,
I feel it everywhere,
At work, at play, all by myself,
And when I kneel in prayer.
Your name's the first upon my lips,
When something turns out wrong,
And I keep running back to You,
To help me get along.

It's gotten so I blindly trust Whatever You decide
Is best for me, I have no time To waste on foolish pride.
Having once discovered
The joy Your presence brings,
I have no wish to squander
My life on lesser things.

Dear Lord, I know You love me,
And there isn't any harm Can come to me as long as I Keep clinging to Your arm.
You're well aware of all the things I need from day to day, You give me those I ought to have,
And take the rest away.

So many years I wasted,
'Till I stopped keeping track.
Dear Lord, how long You loved me, Before I loved You back.
But for Your gentle patience,
Within itself a treasure,
I might have lived and never known,
A love beyond all measure.

*His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

His witness in our world today. But faith so easily becomes impersonal theology; and we fail to be builders of a church which stands against the forces of evil. Forgive us for our unstable ways which we consider to be discipleship. Help us to make our faith vital, and personal, that Your church may be able to depend on our witness. We

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Fair wish to thank everyone who sent cards and gifts during John's recent hospitalization. These expressions of concern and love were deeply appreciated.

The Youth Group is forming a trip to King's Dominion on Saturday, September 5, to hear Myron Lefever in concert. Lefever is a Christian musician who plays contemporary Christian music. For more information, please contact Mrs. Kathy Fair.

New membership classes will be formed on September 8 at 7 p.m. Potential members will be coming in for 3 consecutive Tuesdays and will be received into Church Membership on Sunday, September 27 at the 10:30 a.m. Worship Service. If you desire to become a member of this class, please inform Pastor Fair, any Council Person, Usher, Church Office or simply show up on September 8 at 7 p.m. (Use the Dillon Street entrance.)

Confirmation Classes I and II will begin on Thursday, September 17.

Our special congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald George Miller nee Terri Frampton, who were married here Friday evening.

At the Congregational Meeting held last Sunday, it was a unanimous decision to replace all 4 air conditioners in Friendship Hall, rather than replace the unit which had burnt up and could not be replaced (all 4 units were previously installed at the same time). The cost of replacing the units is quite expensive. Work will begin soon, so our members won't have to share the discomfort next summer that we experienced this year. Fund raisers will be necessary. In addition to our organizational fund raisers, we are asking for your help to raise this money. Tentative plans now are to put a special envelope in each Sunday's Bulletin - the first Sunday of the month, for the Mini-Bus Fund Donation, and the Sundays after that, for the Air-Conditioning Fund. Don't you think that's a good idea? The responsibility will be shared by all. In addition, you can make a donation and it will be credited to your financial record. Please give this your thoughts and prayers. It is a large undertaking but we know UE will come through.

The Young Women's Guild is planning a Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, November 7th. We are meeting on Tuesday mornings at 10 a.m. to make articles. Please come and join us. If you can't come in, make something at home. It will be appreciated. We want to make this the Christmas Bazaar that everyone will remember.

We are human, Father, and therefore we hurt when Christian friends offend us. In our hurt, we become angry toward them, instead of concerned for them. Forgive us when we have not come face to face with them in the conflict, with a desire to restore wholeness in the church. Help us to love one another enough to be honest with each other when sin tries to ruin our fellowship. Grant us Your Spirit, both to sinners and to those who are sinned against. We pray in Jesus' name.

Amen.

Processional Hymn

*Solemn Declaration

*Call to Worship: Psalm 146 (Page 558 in the Pew Bible)

*Prayer of Confession:

We are easily discouraged, Father, when we hear of world events which seem disheartening. We forget You are able to make history tell Your story of deliverance. Forgive us when we let fear or discouragement convince us we are in the hands of fate. Increase our faith in Your power, that we may know we are in the hands of the living God.
Hear us for Jesus' sake.

Amen.

Almighty God, merciful Father: I, a poor sinner, acknowledge and confess my manifold sins, which I from time to time have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against Thy Divine Majesty. I do earnestly repent, and am heartily sorry for these my misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto me. I have no other comfort or hope than Thy grace, which aboundeth above my guilt, and the precious merits of my Lord Jesus Christ. Longing after this grace, I say: Father, I have sinned against heaven and in Thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called Thy child. Grant unto me pardon and peace, and strength to lead a new and righteous life, by the power of Thy Holy Spirit, through the same Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

We certainly want to thank all those who volunteered to work in the kitchen and dining room for the ALL CHURCH SOUR BEEF AND OYSTER SUPPER AND BAZAAR. The turnout was overwhelming, we did have a bit of a problem with backups due to shortages of waitresses but our wonderful guests were very patient. We want to thank the Boys Scouts and friends of the Church who also helped. Without you all the supper could not have been the huge success that it was. We also want to thank all those who baked cakes for us. The "Cake Table" had many cakes to select from and they all were sold. We thank each and every one who helped in any way. Mrs. Grace E. Fader, Chairperson and Mrs. Elizabeth Erdman, Co-Chairperson.

Prelude: "Andante Religioso" Thome 80

Processional Hymn

Solemn Declaration

*Call to Worship: Psalm 50:7-15 (Page 503 in the Pew Bible)

*Prayer of Confession:

The world cries, Father, and we do not hear it, because we are singing our favorite hymns too loudly in praise for our own blessings. Forgive us when we do not hear or see or cry with those who are treated less than brothers or sisters. Guide us in a ministry that will speak on behalf of those not heard; and bring equality to those who are despised.
Hear us for Jesus' sake.

Amen.

to attend. See Pastor Fair or Kathy Fair for more information, permission slips or to register.

I would like to thank Pastor Fair for his visits to the hospital, for prayers extended on my behalf and I would like to express my gratitude to all who sent get well cards and who telephoned me during my illness. All of these tokens of friendship meant so very much to me. Sincerely, Mrs. Ruth B. Koch.

Prelude: "We Gather Together" Held

*Processional Hymn:
"WE GATHER TOGETHER"

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing, He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing, Sing praises to His name; He forgets not
His own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom
divine,
So from the beginning the fight we are winning;
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, all glory be Thine.

We all do extol Thee, Thou leader triumphant,
And pray that Thou still our defender wilt be.
Let Thy congregation escape tribulation.
Thy name be ever praised!
O Lord, make us free!

*Prayer of Confession:

Father, we are sick with sin and unhappy in our misery; but many of us do not care or cannot find the will to change. Forgive us for pretending with our faith by not letting it be the foundation on which we build our lives. Cause us to see the tragedy of our situation; that we may eagerly look for the advent of Your Son to bring us the gift of Your mercy and new life. In His Name we pray. Amen.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

Christmas is important to us, Father; but our joy is so temporary and superficial.
We hear the good news of peace; but we are not at peace with ourselves, or with You. Forgive us when we celebrate the gift of Your Son, without receiving Him as our Savior. Fill us with joy which is genuine, growing out of our Lord's birth in our hearts. In His Name we pray.

Amen.

not have envelopes in 1987 and desire them for 1988, please call the Church Office.

The Pastor and his family, Kathy, Michael and Jennifer and the staff, Millie and Jim Slechta, would like to thank all those who remembered them with cards and gifts. These kind gestures of friendship meant so very much to all.

Welcome to our Worship Service this evening and always. If you are not an active member elsewhere, we encourage you to seek active membership here. Merely speak to Pastor Fair, any Council Person, Usher or call the Church office.

Our special thanks to the Messrs. Jim Tallagsen, Jim Slechta, Paul Bauersfeld and J. Henry Will for repairing and replacing the eternal light above the altar.
