MY DAD

You know--

It's great to have my Dad around
He lifts my spirits when I'm down
He takes me fishing and to the zoo
And seems to enjoy my ball games-too
He slaps my back, whether I lose or win
And encourages me on-with a big grin.
When in school, my marks are small -
He says - "Keep going, child, you can't win them all" -
Just study hard-do the best that you can.
That's all I ask of any man.
"Gee! He's the best pal, a guy ever had.
Thank you-Dear God, for my Dad."

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE CHURCH:

To the Pastors' and all of my friends of the United Evangelical Church:

I wish to thank you all with deep gratitude for the prayers and get well cards I received. When you are well and say hello to friends as you meet them, you feel good and go on your way naturally - but OK how that friendly feeling multiplies when you are ill and racked with pain when these same friends send you their prayers and feelings in cards to cheer you up.

Thank you all, I really am blessed to have so many good friends, you really helped.

Love you all,

(Signed)

Emma Essel

You were being formed so delicate in size,
Secluded in God's safe and hidden place.
With your little tiny hands and little tiny feet
And little eyes that shimmer like a pearl.
He breathed in you a song, and to make it all complete
He brought the masterpiece into the world.

Chorus: You are a masterpiece a new creation He has formed,
And you're as soft and fresh as a snowy winter morn

Little Lamb of God, you are a masterpiece.

And now you're growing up, your life's a miracle,
Ev'rytime I look at you, I stand in awe.
Because I see in you a reflection of me,
And you'll always be my little Lamb of God.
And as your life goes on each day how I pray that you will see

And I'm so proud of you, what else is there to say?
Just be the masterpiece He created you to be. (To Chorus)

As most of you know, I have submitted my letter of retirement to the Church Council. My last working day will be December 20th. After 22 years and nearing my 70th birthday, I feel I should spend whatever time I have left in this world with my family. My daughter had open heart surgery on November 4th and for a time, I feel sure she will need me. I have enjoyed everyday I have worked here, and I know I will miss it greatly. I also feel I have made many friends here, and hopefully some of you will have time to visit both Jim and I. We would like that very much. Sincerely, Millie.

A NIGHT OF CAROLING

Once again the Community Life Committee of Sacred Heart of Jesus will be sponsoring a "Night Of Caroling", Saturday, December 14.

The trolley will be departing from Sacred Heart of Jesus Church (Foster Ave. and Conkling St.) at 6:15 p.m.

Neighboring Churches will keep their lights on and the doors open and we will be stopping in front of each Church to sing a song or two.

Sacred Heart invites all to return to their hall (Foster and Highland Aves.) for some light refreshments and a visit from Santa.

We are looking forward to seeing you there!
