

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:1

WE REMEMBER OUR LOVED ONES AT EASTER
April 7, 1996

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH
United Church of Christ

Rev. Robert M. Armstrong - Pastor

Rev. Roy Joellenbeck - Minister Of Visitation

Mr. Robert Gundlach - Director of Music

WHAT WILL WE DO WITH JESUS OF NAZARETH? WHAT WILL WE DO WITH THE CARPENTER KING?

Judas, like many of us, had been caught up in serving a man, a leader of the people who had great possibilities of doing good and now at Easter He was proving to be a different person than the simple carpenter. If He had remained so, we could have handled Him; but that was not to be. That part of Jesus upset Judas. As long as He stayed a bright, alert man, simply a smart carpenter, a great unknown, He'd have caused nobody harm; but now we know He's different, and like Judas, we become frightened. This Jesus was teaching about a new kingdom. He taught about the eternal life and about heaven and people were believing this nonsense. These "Followers Of The Way", said Judas, had "too much heaven on their minds". The concern Judas had with Jesus, is our problem. We came to church to learn about morality and giving to the poor and Jesus talks about change - being born again - turning the other cheek, making a right about face in our lives, loving people whom we'd rather not love, laying down our life for our friends, organizing against hunger, choosing a whole new way of life and going to rooms eternal and in the heavens. Like Judas, we did not bargain for this! What then, will we do with Jesus of Nazareth? What will we do with the carpenter King? That is the question which haunts us and especially at Easter.

This booklet is a tribute of remembrance and love for persons who have formed and shaped our lives and our faith and shown us the way. They have gone before us to the land where Jesus rules and reigns. Some of them were grandparents, some our mothers and fathers, some children, some brothers and sisters and some close and dear friends. As "Followers Of The Way", we join millions of Christians down throughout the centuries in expressing appreciation to Jesus, the Carpenter King. His amazing grace bought us the gift of eternal life.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, from henceforth; yes, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them".

AMEN.

"MANY WOMEN HAVE DONE EXCELLENTLY, BUT YOU SURPASS THEM ALL"

When we think of Mothers, many of us remember the great athletes who after winning a competitive event want to wave and say "Hi" to Mom. That is because Mothers play a very important and significant part in the lives of those athletes and in the lives of all of us and especially in the tumultuous years of the 90's. Today Mothers, in addition to their role in giving birth and nurturing children, are often engaged in earning the primary income for families and leading them. Over 25% of children are raised by 1 parent and not 2, 50% of marriages end in divorce, and 75% of the households in the United States are headed by single parents, many of them women. We think of this as the wave of the future with women playing an increasingly dominant role but women have in the past played key roles in our culture. In Proverbs 31 we can glimpse their roles in the past.

"A capable wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm...

She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands, she is like the ships of the merchant, she brings her food from far away. She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household...

She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard... She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.

She opens her hands to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid for her household when it snows, for all her household are clothed in crimson...

Her children rise up and call her blessed. Her husband too, and he praises her. "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all."

Wife, nurturer, leader in family and church, craftsperson, entrepreneur, philanthropist, real-estate executive, clothing manufacturer and designer, cook, housekeeper, farmer and just plain "MOM".

"MANY WOMEN HAVE DONE EXCELLENTLY, BUT YOU SURPASS THEM ALL."

And that is our message for all Mothers on this very important day!

The Pastor

FATHER'S DAY MESSAGE

June 16, 1996

These are difficult days for Father. For most fathers today the former role as sole provider for the family has gone. As the sign down at the local Chevron Station says: "If you aren't harried, worried, and a little bit nuts you don't understand what's going on around here." The traditional notions of manhood are under attack and men are being called upon to defend themselves, to change, to become something other than what they have been.

Ask most any man, How does it feel to be a man these days? Do you feel manhood is honored, respected, celebrated?" Many men feel as if they are involved in a night battle in a jungle against an unseen foe. Voices from the darkness shout "Men are too aggressive. Too soft, too insensitive, too macho, too power mad. Too much like little boys. Too wimpy. Too violent. Too obsessed with sex. Too detached to care. Too busy. Too rational. Too lost to lead. Too dead to feel." EXACTLY WHAT THEY ARE SUPPOSED TO BECOME IS NOT CLEAR.

These are times when both men and women can turn to the church to find answers. Jesus gives us the model for manhood which is being rediscovered anew today. JESUS WAS A POWERFUL, FOCUSED, FEARLESS, COM-

PASSIONATE, CARING, COMMITTED, AND PASSIONATE MAN. "GREATER LOVE", HE SAID, "HAS NO MAN THAN THAT HE WOULD LAY DOWN HIS LIFE FOR HIS FRIEND".

A man, today, must go on a quest to discover the sacred fire in the sanctuary of his own belly, to ignite the flame in his heart, to fuel the blaze in the hearth, to rekindle his ardor for the earth. * Men can not be good fathers till they discover what it means to be good men.

Today we remember lives of fathers who have gone on that quest before us. They are our heritage and we loved them very much. For them death is passed and pain is ended and we rejoice that they have entered the eternal life in Christ Jesus.

The Pastor

MY DAD

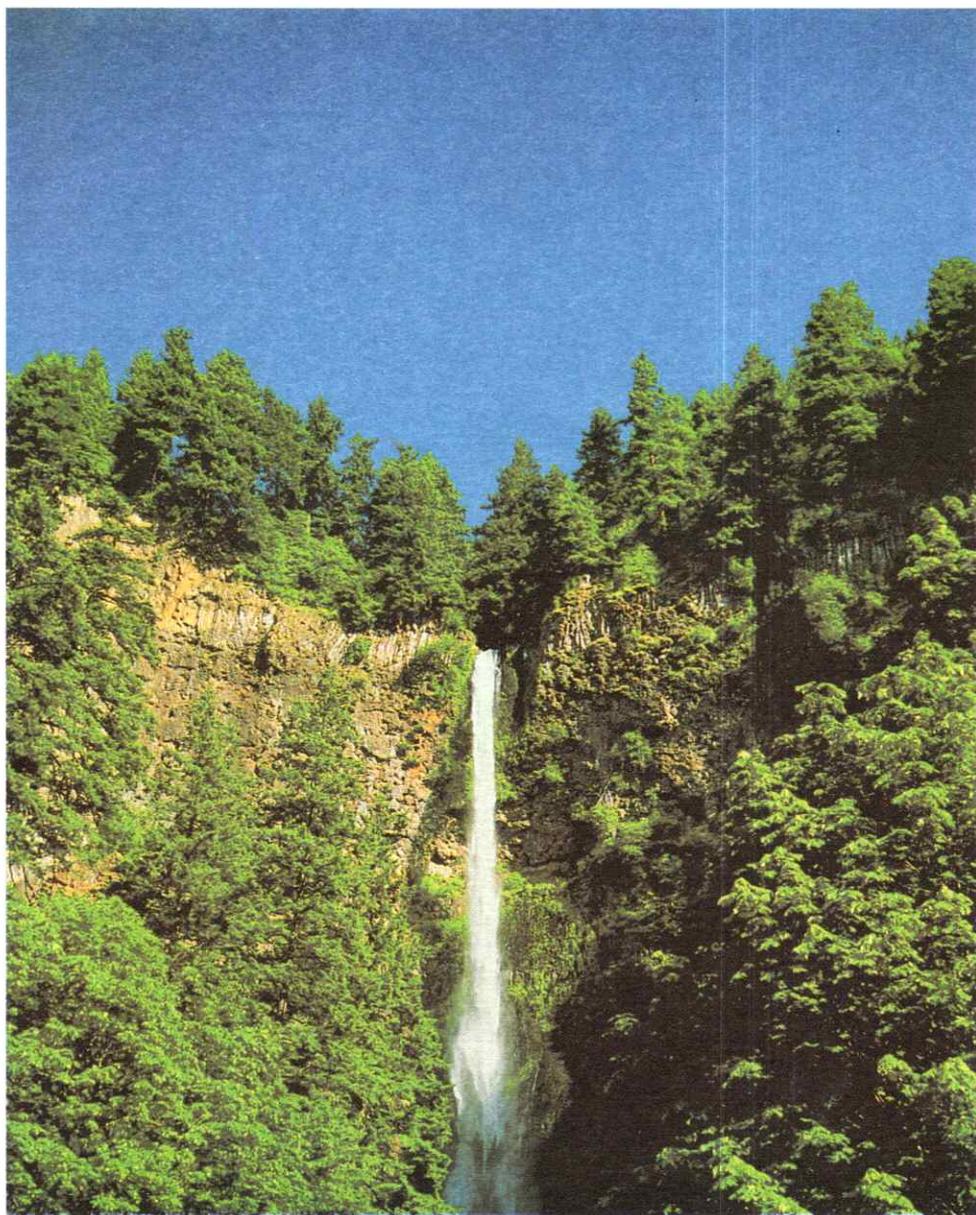

You know--

It's great to have my Dad around
He lifts my spirits when I'm down
He takes me fishing and to the zoo
And seems to enjoy my ball games - too -
He slaps my back, whether I lose or win
And encourages me on - with a big grin.
When in school, my marks are small -
He says - "Keep going, child, you can't win them all" -
Just study hard-do the best that you can.
That's all I ask mof any man.
"Gee! He's the best pal, a guy ever had.
Thank you - Dear God, for my Dad."

MEMORIAL SUNDAY (TOTENFEST)
November 24, 1996

"O Lord before whom the generations rise and pass away..."

The loss of a loved ones is tragic and often leaves deep, open and very personal wounds. We wonder if we can ever get over them. What can we do to bring about healing? What can we do to honor those who have gone before us?

Our United Evangelical Church offers a wonderful opportunity for both healing and remembrance. On Sunday, November 24, we have set aside a day of remembrance and healing. You and your family and friends can come to church and celebrate the transition of a loved one from the eternal life as we know it on earth to the life with Christ which is our hope and the basis of our faith. Because of Christ's victory on the cross, never again will we be separated from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

In this memorial, you can remember your loved one again and perhaps shed a few tears and warm remembrance as we read the names and tributes to those saints who have entered the eternal life in Christ Jesus. For them death is past and pain ended. The memorials might be for a dear mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, aunt, uncle, son, daughter, dear friend, teacher, minister, doctor or another significant other in your life. Each will be remembered and each lifted up in prayer that day.

A memorial rose will be given to each person who has had a loved one called away in this past Church year.

These memorials and love gifts will be used for the on-going work of the Church or for a special gift which you may name. They may also be in the form of a special gift to the Church. To make a memorial at any time, call the Church Office, 276-0393 or drop us a note and your check. At the close of the Memorial Service on November 24th, we will remember these saints as we join together in singing:

"For all the saints who from their labors rest, who Thee
by faith before the world confessed; Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blessed!
Alleluia!"

Come and be with us that day so that we can remember, bind up our wounds, and march on in service to Christ and the Church and in honor of loved ones who have formed and shaped our lives and our faith.

Keep the Faith,

Robert M. Armstrong
Pastor

WINGS

Oh, to catch the winds of flight
And soar where eagles go,
To leave the woes of troubled souls
Behind me far below.

I'd listen to the songs of birds
And sail in endless flight,
Then chase the sun through cloudy paths
And play with stars at night.

The boundless heavens for my home,
The breeze to lift me high
To rise above my mortal bonds
And never have to die.

Knowing that I'd found the way
To trails where angels trod,
And when my wings could fly no more -
I'd take the hand of GOD!

A LITANY OF THE CIRCLE

EVERY PART OF THIS EARTH IS SACRED -
Every shining pine needle, every sandy shore,
EVERY MIST IN THE DARK WOODS,
Every clearing and humming insect is holy,
THE ROCKY CREST, THE JUICES OF THE MEADOW, THE BEASTS AND ALL THE PEOPLE
All belong to the same family.
TEACH YOUR CHILDREN THAT THE EARTH IS OUR MOTHER,
Whatever befalls the earthm befalls the children of the earth.
THE WATER'S MURMER IS THE VOICE OF OUR FATHER'S FATHER.
We are a part of the earth and the earth is a part of us.
THE RIVERS ARE OUR BROTHERS; THEY QUENCH OUR THIRST.
The perfumed flowers are our sisters.
THE AIR IS PRECIOUS,
For all of us share the same breath.
THE WIND THAT GAVE OUR GRANDPARENTS BREATH RECEIVES THEIR LAST SIGH.
The wind gave our children the spirit of life.
THIS WE KNOW, THE EARTH DOES NOT BELONG TO US.
We belong to the Earth.
THIS WE KNOW, ALL THINGS ARE CONNECTED.
Our God is the same God, whose compassion is equal for all.
FOR WE DID NOT WEAVE THE WEB OF LIFE;
We are merely a strand in it.
WHATEVER WE DO TO THE WEB,
We do to ourselves.
LET US GIVE THANKS FOR THE WEB AND THE CIRCLE THAT CONNECTS US.
Thanks be to God, the God of all!
