“God couldn’t be everywhere,
so he invented mothers,”

so the saying goes.

It’s not entirely true, of course.

You CAN be everywhere, O God, and are.
Your Word assured us that there is no place—
as high as the sky or as deep as the sea—
where you are not present, O Lord God.

You are truly everywhere.

But you invented mothers anyway.

Thank you for caring so much
that you provide this special way
of letting us know what real love is,
and what it does, and what it can endure.

Even though you are always there, everywhere,
we can’t always see you.

Mothers we can see; they make love visible,
and let us know how real it is ...
and, therefore, how real you are too.
