(L) Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion!

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

Prayer of Confession

We confess to you, God of our ancestors, that we have heard your word but ignored its witness. We have nodded agreement with your truth, but we follow our own ways. As the word became flesh in Christ, we pray it may come alive in us. Break down our rigid perceptions, our prejudices and resistance to change. Link us together in a community of faith, boldly receptive to the gospel. In this new year, help us to be a communion of forgiven and forgiving sinners. Amen

Kyrie Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Assurance of Pardon

(L) Friends believe the good news of the gospel

(P) In Jesus Christ we are forgiven

Responsive Praise

(L) O Lord, open my lips

New Year's Eve

I like to spend my New Years' eves
In solitude, in humble prayer,
In thanks for each year, as it leaves;
For one more year of God's sweet care.
Then, too, I pray for strength, that I Might do His will this coming year
And that I might still harder try
To be a friend to those held dear.
I've had my years of "gaiety,"
With parties and a noisy crowd -
And emptiness inside of me
While those around me laugh too loud.
In these, my golden years, I find
The way to end the old year right,
Which gives me joy and peace of mind
Before retiring for the night,
Is blissful hours at home alone,
With music, and a book to read,
And time in prayer for love God's shown -
It's all I ask . . . and all I need.

Psalm 139

(L) O Lord, you have searched me and known me.
You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from far away.

(P) You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.

(L) Even before a word is on my tongue, O Lord, you know it completely. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it.

(P) How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them! I try to count them -- they are more than the sand; I come to the end -- I am still with you.

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

Prayer of Confession:

O Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us as we make our confession. We grow lax in our discipline, and we disobey Christ. Our faith is flabby when put to the test; our courage vanishes in the face of temptation. Our joints stiffen when we are called to act. We profess loyalty, while our bodies deny commitment. Have mercy upon us and forgive us. Amen

(P) Full of honor and majesty is his work,
and his righteousness endures forever.

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

Prayer of Confession:

Faithful God, we have claimed to have more knowledge than we really possess. We have presumed to judge others on the basis of our limited understanding. By our actions, some of our sisters and brothers are excluded, some are misled, and some are unjustly accused. If we have violated another's conscience, if we have caused someone to fall, we are deeply sorry. For failing to do all Christ expects of the church, we repent and seek your forgiveness.

Kyrie Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Assurance of Pardon

(L) Friends believe the good news of the gospel!

(P) In Jesus Christ we are forgiven

Prayer of Confession:

Where are you, God? When Jesus told people who saw his miracles, “Say nothing to anyone,” the people could not keep silent. Yet, when Jesus says, “go into all the world and proclaim the good news,” we tell no one. When we have a sudden need, and feel down in a pit with no way out, we do not dare to trust that you are there. Instead, we look for help in the wrong places and pursue our own ideas of what is best for us. Forgive us, O God, teach us self-control and responsiveness to your will.

Kyrie Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us

Lord, have mercy upon us.

LOVE GIFT

Dear Friends,

I want to thank Pastor Baker and our many friends at U. E. for the Memorials to the Church in memory of Jim. He would like that. He loved the Church.

I also want to thank all of you for the Cards of Sympathy and telephone calls. I am in the process of acknowledging personally, to all of you.

At Jim's request, he was cremated. My plans are to ultimately take them to the Susquehanna River. It was his favorite fishing place.

Thank you all again and God Bless you.

Fondly,

Millie

Prayer of Confession:

O Christ Jesus, you told us that “I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.” We forget that we are those sinners. Help us to remember that it is you in whom we live and move and have our being and whose mercy we forget in the blindness of our hearts. We pray that you would cleanse us from all our offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires, that with reverent and humble hearts we may draw near to you, confessing our faults, confiding in your grace, and finding in you our refuge and strength; through Jesus Christ your Son.

Long-Suffering Love

February 20, 2000

Bob never really learned to love. He was afraid, afraid he might be hurt or rejected. He has been married for years, but his wife feels that he is never really listening.

Mariane loved once, but she was trampled by the carelessness of a friend. She has built a shell around her life that she will allow none to penetrate, not even God who waits patiently for her to accept His love.

Janey calls something love that is really something less. She is hungry for the warmth of another person who loves her desperately and deeply. She has moved from relationship to relationship, but runs away when someone starts to touch her soul.

C.S. Lewis once observed that, "To love at all is to be vulnerable."

One cannot love without opening oneself to the possibility of suffering, rejection, and loss. There is the probability that one might have to change while the necessity of accepting the fact that the one we love may not change as quickly as we would like.

Love is the core of God's call to everyone who will please Him. On love hangs the law and the prophets. It is worth any hardship or risk to truly love and to rely upon the Divine source of love for the grace to suffer long in the process of loving.

Bob, Mariane, and Janey have sentenced themselves to lives of mundane lovelessness under the mistaken assumption of self-protection. What they are missing by protecting their lives is life itself. Their first step would be to make themselves vulnerable to God and then to others.

Gracious God, we give you thanks for the day, especially for the good we were permitted to give and to receive. The hours both of day and night are yours, and to you the

OFFERING AND DOXOLOGY

(L) God of healing and rest, at this day's end we come to you. Lift us from the burdens of this day. Lead us to life eternal by the mighty love of Jesus Christ, who suffered on the cross, was raised from the dead, and lifted into glory where with outstretched arms he welcomes the world in his strong and loving embrace.

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,

(See end of bulletin) Gather us in peace,

Be our night of healing rest.

Help us now to thank you in the midst of our evening cares.

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

(L) Grant us wisdom to listen to your voice in our needed rest. Give us courage to face you in the quiet and stillness of the dark.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

God of Abraham and Sarah, we confess that we have not listened with all our being for your direction. We have not wanted to accept the cost of following Jesus. We have not allowed the Spirit to engage us. We want to play God. But we confess that the role is too big for us; O God, we need you. It is beyond our comprehension that you have given your promise that you will never forsake us. Forgive our failure to take you at your word. We pray for your forgiveness and ask that you would strengthen us.

KYRIE: Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

PRAYERS OF THANKSGIVING

(L) God of healing and rest, at this day's end we come to you. We seek your presence praying, that we may never feel alone. Lift us from the burdens of this day, we pray. Silence
In these forty days you lead us into the desert of repentance that in this pilgrimage of prayer we might learn to be your people once more.

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,
(See end of bulletin) Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

We give you thanks that even in the smallest space,
You continue to bring: the gift of fire to warm our coldness, the gift of mystery to awaken our dullness, the gift of mercy to forgive our sin. Our search for you can take us into deep, bewildering, and unknown ways. Silence

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

(L) You open our eyes to your presence in the world and you free our hands to lead others to the wonders of your grace. Make us again receivers of your life, sharers of your gifts, servants of you and one another, and seekers of your wisdom.

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

(L) Help us cry out for those loved ones near and far and those unknown to us who suffer without voice. Silence
Teach us to serve you, to be generous, to give and not to count the cost, to labor and not to seek reward, except to know that we do your will.

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

(L) Grant us wisdom to listen to your voice in our needed rest. Give us courage to face you in the quiet and stillness of the dark. We pray that as you enfold us with the radiance of your light, so you would shine into our hearts the brightness of your Holy Spirit.

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

(L) As evening falls, enshrine your hope and love like a light within our heart. As we patiently await your day of Final Coming, be our Light unending and night of healing rest.

(Sung Response) God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

A PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

(L) Tonight, we make our sacrament of Thanksgiving. We begin with the simple things of our days:

(P) Fresh air to breathe, Cool water to drink, The taste of food, The protection of houses and clothes, The comforts of home. For all these we make an act of thanksgiving this day!

3/29/00

We bring to mind all the warmth of humankind that we have known:

(P)The arms of our mothers and fathers, The strength of our grandmothers and grandfathers, The playmates of our childhood, The wonderful stories brought to us from the lives of many who talked of days gone by with dreams and visions, The tears we have shed, the tears we have seen, The excitement of laughter and the twinkle in the eye with its reminder that life is good.

(L) For all these we make an act of Thanksgiving this day.

We finger one by one the messages of hope that awaited us at the crossroads:

(P)The smile of approval from those who held in their hands the reins of our security; The tightening of the grip in a single handshake when we feared the step before us in the darkness; The crucial word said, the simple sentence from an open page when our decisions hung in the balance.

(L) For all these we make an act of Thanksgiving this day.

We pass before us the mainsprings of our heritage:

(P)The fruits of the labors of countless generations who lived before us, without whom our own lives would have no meaning; The workers whose sweat has watered the trees, the leaves of which are for the healing of the nations; The big hope that never quite deserts us, that we and our kind will study war no more, that love and tenderness and all the inner graces of Almighty affection will cover the life of the children of God as the waters cover the sea.

All these and more than mind can think and heart can feel, we make as our sacrament of Thanksgiving to Thee, Our Father, in humbleness of mind and simplicity of heart. Amen

(L) God of healing and rest, at sundown we come to you. We thank you for the light of this day. We thank you for the gentleness of night. Lift us from the burdens of this day. Silence

Refrain: (Sung Response)

(See end of bulletin)

God of healing, God of rest,

Gather us in peace,

Be our night of healing rest.

(L) We give into your hands our unfinished tasks, our unsolved problems, and our unfulfilled hopes. We rejoice that even in the smallest space, you continue to bring: The gift of fire to warm our coldness, of mystery to awaken our dullness, of mercy to forgive our sin. Silence

* SOLEMN DECLARATION

* CALL TO WORSHIP Psalm 107

(L) O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.

(P) Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, those he redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands.

(L) Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble. He saved them from their distress; and sent out his word and healed them.

(P) Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works. Let them offer thanksgiving.

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

LORD, You gave us the light that we might choose it and live, yet so often we have chosen the darkness. You offer us the wonders of life and eternity and so often we would rather live in the shadows of our despair. We try to seek our salvation in the good works we see ourselves doing and not by your grace. Forgive us, LORD. Open the door once again for us to walk in your love.

KYRIE: Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

CLOSING PRAYER OF INTERCESSION AND THANKSGIVING

(L) Eternal God, you so loved the world that you gave your only Son and offered him up on the cross. For this gift, we thank you. As daylight fades, we come and offer our prayers as we continue the ministry of intercession which he began on the cross. We thank you for the light of this day and for the gentleness of night. Lift all your children from the burdens of this day as we gather for your healing rest. Silence

REFRAIN: (Sung Response)

(See end of bulletin)

God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

(L) Eternal God, you so loved the world that you adorned the human race with a marvelous diversity, yet clothed each of its members with a common dignity that may never be diminished. Put within us respect for that dignity and a passion for the rights which flow from it, that we may always champion for others the justice we would seek for ourselves.

REFRAIN:

(L) Eternal God, you so loved the world that you opened yourself up to suffering. We pray for all peoples, that in all lands peace, love and compassion might prevail. We pray for those among us that suffer, for those who are lonely, for those without home or family, for families where alienation resides, for those in financial need, for those who prepare for surgery, for those in need of healing, and those we name silently in our heart. Silence Grant to each the fullness of life for which you have created them and the love of your light, Jesus Christ to sustain them.

REFRAIN:

(L) Eternal God, you so loved the world that you made a Covenant with us. We are the inheritors of your word to Abraham and Sarah so many millennia ago: "I will bless you...so that you will be a blessing...and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed." With a thankful heart, we rejoice in all that you have done for us, and pray that as you empower us to love faithfully and the courage to care meaningfully, we do so with a loving and thankful heart. Now, as we prepare for a quiet rest in Your care, we give into your hands our unfinished tasks, our unsolved problems, and our unfulfilled hopes.

* CALL TO WORSHIP Jeremiah 31

(L) The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant.

(P) It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors
when I took them by the hand to bring them out of Egypt

(L) This is the covenant that I will make after those days:

(P) I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be me people and they shall all know me, from the least to the greatest.
Let us worship the God of the Covenant.

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

God of the Covenant, Jesus tells us that whoever serves him will follow him, but we follow our own ways.
Jesus tells us that wherever he is, his servants will be there too. But Jesus has gone to places and to people that make us feel uncomfortable. This disobedience has separated us from him and kept us from serving him.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit. Ps. 51

CLOSING PRAYER

(L) Keep us, O LORD, as the apple of your eye; hide us under the shadow of your wings. We will lie down in peace and take our rest, for in you alone, O GOD, we dwell unafraid.

(P) Guide us waking, O LORD, and guard us sleeping that awake we may watch with Christ and asleep we may rest in peace. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER OF INTERCESSION AND THANKSGIVING

(L) LORD GOD, you hold open the gate for us to enter into your presence. You invited us into the place where our prayers are made, and where answers are given.

(P) You teach us the way of prayer that begins with gratitude and thankfulness, because bitter, isolated, or indifferent hearts are in no mood to hear your word; but thankful hearts hear.

(L) So LORD, our GOD, tonight in this place speak to our bitterness, penetrate our isolation, overturn our indifference.

(P) LORD GOD take my bitterness, take my isolation, take my indifference. Leave it at the gate, so that my thankful heart may have a chance to give you the gratitude due to you.

REFRAIN: (Sung Response)
God of healing, God of rest,
Gather us in peace,
Be our night of healing rest.

(See end of bulletin)

(L) Mother of Israel and mother GOD. You gently lead us, and feed us.

(P) We do not need the fighting arrogance that struggles with life,with time,.....and with neighbor. We question the value of ambition that must desperately grasp initiative for survival.

REFRAIN:

(L) For you are our hope, freeing us from imprisoned life, and imagined meager time, and perceived threatening neighbor. You are our future, freeing us from rigidity.

(P) You clothe our new self, freeing us from a fearfully fine focus on ourselves alone. Our child within rejoices and skips for joy, enjoined and proclaimed by a God so tender, so thoughtful, so generous with satisfaction, offering us a future of careful abandonment and secure joyfulness.

REFRAIN:

(L) LORD, GOD of nations, with dismay and helplessness we watch the powerful carve out with renewed greed, more and more. Where is our sense of responsibility, our willingness to serve, our regard for the consequences for others?

(P) We know; it is you -- a God of loud, hearty laughter at perishing attempts at power wielding. Has no one told who it is who builds up, and breaks in pieces? We will tell -- tonight we tell, because we are begotten in the family -- called daughters, sons; so we have heard that to belong is to serve, and companionship is worship, and to keep company with you is to live and breathe, saved from perishing, protected by laughter, kindled by love. Blessed are we. Praise be to you, O GOD.

(Adapted: Ps. 131, Ps. 2, from "GRANT US YOUR PEACE" DAVID R. GRANT)

CALL TO WORSHIP

(L) Our king comes triumphant and victorious, humble and riding on a donkey.

(P) O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his steadfast love endures forever!

(L) The LORD is God, and the LORD has given us light. Bind the festal procession with branches up to the altar.

(P) Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD.

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

HOLY GOD, we confess that we are as fickle as the crowds in Jerusalem. When everything seems to be going well, we join the hosanna chorus, but in times of weariness or rebellion, praise can turn to insult. We hide our faith when it is under attack and link ourselves with the scoffers.

When there is opportunity to speak a good word for JESUS CHRIST, we are silent. Our church lifts an uncertain word before the world, for we, its members, have not been faithful. We need your forgiving love today, O GOD.

KYRIE: Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

O'er all the way, green palms and blossoms gay;
Are strewn, this day in festal preparation.
When Jesus comes to wipe our tears away,
E'en now the throng to welcome Him prepare.

(Refrain) Join now and sing, His Name declare,
Let every voice resound with acclamation;
Hosanna! Praise to the Lord!
Bless Him who cometh to bring us salvation.

Sing and rejoice, O bless Jerusalem,
Of all thy sons sing the emancipation
Through boundless love the Christ of Bethlehem,
Brings faith and hope to Thee forevermore. (Refrain)

FRONT DOORS OF CHURCH

As property chairman, I have been trying for sometime to find, or hire, someone with wood finishing skills to properly refinish the church front doors without success. Finishing the doors is not just a matter of simply painting them, it is a rather long process. The outside of the doors are in such a condition that they must first be scraped, sanded, filled, sanded again, neutralized, sanded again, stained, apply a coat of sanding sealer, sanded again, then given a coat of satin varnish, light rubbed down with steel wool then another coat of varnish. In addition to the finishing, they are also in need of some repair work. If anyone in the congregation can do this type of work, or knows of someone that do this type of work, please have them call the office or leave their name and phone number and I will get in touch with them. Thank you John Price.

THE LITANY OF THE PALMS

HYMN: ALL GLORY LAUD AND HONOR

All glory laud and honor, To thee Redeemer King
To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring.
The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
Our praise & prayer & anthems, before thee we present.

Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son
Who in the Lord's name cometh, The King & blessed one.
To thee before thy passion, they sang their hymns of praise
To thee now high exalted, our melody we raise.

ANTHEM: Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord: PEACE IN HEAVEN & GLORY IN THE HIGHEST.

COLLECT: Let us pray: Assist us mercifully with your help,
O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ
our Lord, AMEN

READING: MARK 11:1 - 11a

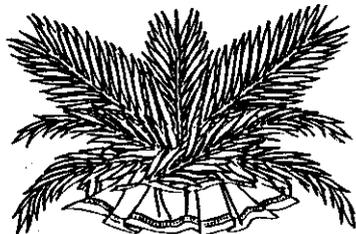

BLESSING:

CELEBRANT	The Lord be with you.
PEOPLE	And also with you.
CELEBRANT	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
PEOPLE	It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day, he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of Kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever, AMEN.

PSALM 118:19-29

HYMN: ALABARE

Refrain Alabaré, alabaré, alabaré a mi Señor.
Alabaré, alabaré, alabaré a mi Señor.

John saw the number of all the redeemed
And all were singing praises to the Lord.
Thousands were singing, ten thousands were praying
And all were singing praises to the Lord.. (Ref)

Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain
Whose blood has set us free from every sin
Power & riches and wisdom and strength
And honor and all blessing shall be His.. (Ref)

Sing with the people, the people of God
And join creation in a joyful hymn
And blessing and honor and glory and majesty
To God and to the Lamb be without end.. (Ref)

DISMISSAL CELEBRANT: Let us go forth in Peace
PEOPLE: In the name of Christ, Amen.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: LEAD ON O KING ETERNAL

Lead on, O King eternal, the day of march has come
Henceforth in fields of conquest, thy tents shall be home
Through days of preparation thy grace has made us strong
And now O King eternal, we lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King eternal, till sin's fierce war shall cease
And holiness shall whisper the sweet AMEN of Peace
For not with swords loud clashing nor roll of stirring drum
But deeds of love & mercy, the heavenly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King eternal, we follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning where'er thy face appears
Thy cross is lifted o'er us we journey in it's light
The crown awaits thy conquest, lead on O God of Might.

Maundy Thursday Communion Tennebrae Service

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP GOD

PREPARATORY MEDITATION

On this holy night, filled with ominous foreboding, we come to the feast of life. We gather to honor Jesus, who showed us the way of faithful service when he said, "A NEW COMMANDMENT I GIVE UNTO YOU: THAT YOU LOVE ONE ANOTHER, EVEN AS I HAVE LOVED YOU." In thanksgiving and praise we come to commune and find our identity with Christ.

* SOLEMN DECLARATION

CALL TO WORSHIP

(L) This shall be a day of remembrance for you.

You shall celebrate it as a festival to God.

(P) This is a time for remembering the Last Supper.

We are called to the table to celebrate with Jesus.

(L) We have gathered to break bread together.

We will lift up the cup of salvation.

(P) This is the hour when we are recalled to the command:

"You shall love one another, as I have loved you."

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

In your presence this night, O CHRIST, we discover who we are. You wash our feet and we learn how reluctant we are to serve others. You prepare your self for the redemption of the world and we seek promotion and possessions. You invite us to eat with you at table, even though our love scarcely meets the requirements of good manners. Forgive us, we pray.

CALL TO WORSHIP

(L) As the crowds gathered at Calvary, drawn by fear and fascination -

(P) So we draw near to the cross of Christ.

(L) The symbol of the cross is so foreign to our way of living.

(P) Yet it speaks to all of us, especially to those whose hopes have been crushed, those in pain, in despair.

(L) The cross speaks of God bringing life out of disappointment, out of despair – even out of death.

(P) Through the suffering-servanthood of Jesus, the way of salvation has been opened for us.

(L) As the crowds gathered at Calvary, so let us gather at the foot of the cross, as we share Christ's agonizing journey from the upper room to the tomb. Come, let us worship God.

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

GRACIOUS GOD, we are not worthy to be called disciples. We have promised to be faithful but, like Peter, we deny your claim on our lives when the going gets tough. We have promised to be faithful but, like Thomas, we doubt the reality of your presence in our midst. We have promised to be faithful but, like Judas, we betray you for our own ideas of what should happen in our lives and world. So we count not on our worthiness, but only on your overwhelming care.

CALL TO WORSHIP

(L) Life has been revealed to us in this Easter season.

Gather once more to testify to life.

(P) We declare to each other what we have experienced.

In community we find the life God intends.

(L) Early believers were of one heart and soul.

We, too are called to find common ground in Christ.

(P) How very good and pleasant it is

When kindred live together in unity.

(L) Peace be with you as we celebrate resurrection.

Christ is with us to renew our faith.

(P) We are here to testify to God's grace.

We will share our story and ourselves.

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

WE HAVE TAKEN THE NAME CHRISTIAN, BUT FEW OF US ARE KNOWN PRIMARILY BY THAT NAME. WE HAVE EXPERIENCED EASTER RADIANCE, BUT WE SELDOM REFLECT THE LIGHT OF OUR RISEN SAVIOR. WE HAVE HEARD THE MESSAGE OF SALVATION, BUT IT GROWS COLD ON OUR LIPS AND IS OF LITTLE INFLUENCE ON OUR LIVES. SOMETIMES WE DELUDE OURSELVES THAT, BECAUSE WE ARE BASICALLY GOOD PEOPLE, THERE IS NO SIN IN US. WE DECEIVE

OURSELVES, AND THE TRUTH IS NOT IN US. SIN IS SEPARATION FROM YOU, AND WE HAVE ALLOWED GREAT CHASMS AND BUILT HIGH WALLS TO KEEP YOU OUT OF OUR LIVES. FORGIVE US, WE PRAY. AMEN.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PRAYERS.....

Pastor Baker received a letter this week from the Earls. "Hopefully Sandra will do real well and heal quickly from her last medical procedure the first of June. We do miss Maryland. It is really beautiful out here but then there is no place like home. Our mail has been great from our church friends and we are so thankful for them and all the thoughts and prayers from everyone. Say hello to everyone for us. Prayerfully, Kathleen and Leslie Earl".

May 07, 2000

A THANK YOU FROM PASTOR WESLEY BAKER

I have been delightfully overwhelmed by the love, interest, and prayers of my dear friends at United Evangelical Church. Especially to the council, I send my great pleasure for the delicious fruit basket. I was delighted to share such a wonderful surprise with Corinne!

To the many members who sent cards, messages, Email, and tokens of loving concern, this thank you is just a symbol of the appropriate response I want to give in person sometime soon.

Mine was an elective process. I chose a path which had unexpected complications and unusual pain, but it was still a journey to better health. I am told that the double sidewinder and new valve will increase both my vitality and life expectancy. So there was a reason for the ordeal. I discovered that the outpouring of support and genuine caring that came from so many sources to be a tremendous part of the journey itself as I felt surrounded every day, every minute by the prayers of my church family. I cannot thank you enough.

Having tasted of the beauty of this experience, I have recommitted my life to a ministry of prayer and healing for those many of our brothers and sisters who undergo similar or worse ordeals on unelected paths that may not lead to newness, but a prolonged life of pain. I am sure that if you and I give them the kind of love you heaped on me, we would all be healed.

Thank you so much, and God be with you as you have asked him to be with me. Pastor Wesley Baker

Third Sunday of Easter
 Ecumenical Partnership/Consultation
 on Church Union Sunday

Loving God, you give us daily opportunities to build bridges, to connect people and resources in our neighborhoods, our towns, cities and countries, indeed to make connections and build bridges throughout your whole world. We thank you for being part of this.
 Bob and Nelda Thelin

Have you ever left a calling you deeply love? If so, you can appreciate the feelings of Bob and Nelda Thelin, UCC/Disciples missionaries currently serving in Kokstad, the Episcopal Diocese of Umzimvubu, and the Mt. Currie Fellowship of Churches in South Africa. This month the Thelins are retiring after 36 years as missionaries in Africa. Soon they will be back in the United States. "We are slowly beginning to process the feelings of loss," they write. "In many ways, this change will be like taking on the challenges of a new assignment."

Whether they were in South Africa, Ghana, Zambia or Zimbabwe, the Thelins have had an appreciation for the quiet strength of the church that brings people together. Theirs has been a pastoral ministry grounded in a firm understanding that justice requires "right relation" between neighbors, and that the church in seemingly forgotten places can show the world what ecumenical relations are all about.

"In Kokstad, where we live, there are services in Pentecostal, Congregational, Methodist, Episcopal and Catholic churches, bringing together people of different cultures, languages and theological perspectives," writes Bob. "At each service an offering is taken for the Child and Family Welfare Society, which caters to the needs of impoverished and neglected children and families in the Kokstad community. In a town where Christians have been separated and deeply divided, there is now a cry for more opportunities to worship God together, to work together, to witness to the unity of the Body of Jesus Christ, the Church."

For Bob and Nelda, this unity of the church is expressed in many ways. In the remote Umzimvubu River valley in eastern South Africa, Bob has been working with people as a missionary-agriculturist. He and the villagers have been making bricks for building homes, planting vegetables, raising chickens, finding wire to fence the gardens, and operating a hand-built, manually-operated "cable car" that brings people across the river for a small fare. Nelda's concern for the well-being of families, especially women and children, has led to immunization and family planning programs as well as sewing clubs and Bible study groups. Time and again, their work comes down to proclaiming a word of encouragement, to working with people eye to eye, hand to hand, face to face.

"As we say goodbye to Africa, we are grateful for the many opportunities for witness and service given to us over the years, and we thank God for the African brothers and sisters with whom we have walked in a journey towards healing and wholeness."

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

LITANY OF AFFIRMATION FOR MOTHERS AND A TIME OF CONFESSION:

(L) God of our Mothers and Fathers,

(P) You have created your children a little lower than God and crowned us with glory and honor.

(L) Before we were even a sparkle in our mother's eye,

(P) You had fashioned our inward parts.

(L) You have given us mothers and fathers to guide us to be like Jesus.

(P) We give you thanks and praise for our mothers who, like a master gardener, are guided by your hand as they planted the seeds of faith, truth and love.

(L) We give you thanks that our mothers have taught us

(P) To be strong enough to be gentle, powerful enough to forgive, mighty enough to stoop down in service, and sturdy enough to trust you for our daily bread.

(L) It is easy to stray from the best we have been taught,

(P) Forgive us when we become preoccupied with our own needs and complain even though our cups overflow with your goodness and mercy.

(L) O God, give us the power to lay down our lives for others,

So that we can thank the One who laid down his life for us.

KYRIE:(L) Praise ye the LORD (P)The LORD's name be praised!

Fifth Sunday of Easter

On all sides, gracious God, we see violence! But then, Wonderful Counselor, on all sides we see your healing presence.

Grant us courage, grant us insight, grant us hope that we may build your realm in our towns and cities, churches and schools. For the ministry of the church in the midst of violence, and for the faith that carries us through, we are grateful.

“Abide with me, fast falls the evening tide; the darkness deepens, Lord with me abide.” These words, written by Henry Lyte, embrace the mystery, the wonder, and the challenge of faith. Echoing the words of Jesus, “Abide with me,” we hear them in a new way when the darkness seems very deep indeed.

Just over a year ago, Columbine United Church of Christ in Littleton, Colorado, drew strength from the promises and the presence of God in the midst of the high school massacre and its aftermath. As soon as the Rev. Steve Poos-Benson received a call about the shootings, he and the Columbine staff rushed to the school.

“All we knew is that these were our kids,” he later shared in a sermon entitled “Where Was God?” “We had raised them, baptized them, and confirmed them. They had come to youth groups, fallen asleep in my sermons, had gone on mission trips and retreats. By the end of the day there were going to be 15 dead, 23 wounded, and literally thousands and thousands traumatized. In the waning hours of the evening of April 20, outside Leewood Elementary School, someone asked me, ‘Pastor, where was God? It feels like we’ve been abandoned.’ ‘No,’ I said. ‘We’ve not been abandoned. I’ve seen God all day.’”

During the height of the crisis, the officer in charge asked Steve to go to the Columbine Library, just across the park from the school where hundreds of students and parents had gathered. Sensing the panic, Steve stood on a table, shifted into preacher gear and said, “Calm down. With God as our aid, we are going to see each other through this.” For the next four hours, I saw God everywhere I looked. Steve saw God as parents found their children, as clergy and counselors consoled parents and students in their arms. He saw God in the heroic actions one of his young people who gave his life to shield a friend with his body, in the courage of another who crawled through the library window. When he asked to enter the building to pray over the slain students and teachers he was told it was too dangerous to enter. At the yellow line, “We bowed our heads. I asked for God to usher these young souls into his safe keeping. I saw God in that helpless moment when we had to let go and let God.”

That evening Columbine held a worship service. “As I read the 23rd Psalm, the valley of death loomed around us, but yet, I knew God was there. In the mist of the pain and chaos I felt God’s rod and staff. It was a day that changed our world. It was a day that changed my life forever. Where was God on Tuesday, April 20? God was there.”

FRONT DOORS OF THE CHURCH

Recently I have received estimates to refinish the front doors to our Church. The estimates are well beyond our means at this time. Therefore, I am again asking for volunteers with wood finishing skills to help properly refinish these doors. Finishing the doors are not just a matter of simply painting them, it is a rather long process. The outside of the doors are in such a condition that they must first be scraped, sanded, filled, sanded again, neutralized, sanded again, stained, apply a coat of sanding sealer, sanded again, then given a coat of satin varnish, lightly rubbed down with steel wool then another coat of varnish. In addition to the finishing, they are also in need of some repair work, please have them call the office and leave their name and phone number and I will get in touch with them. If no one volunteers, I will be forced to scale back the scope of the work and hire a regular painter. Thank you John Price.

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF TEACHERS

Almighty God, you have given your law to guide us in a life of love, and you have appointed teachers to interpret your will. We give you thanks for the love and dedication they have shown this year. We praise you for their patience, understanding and commitment. You call adults to study and know your Word. You have called the little children to you. May their enthusiasm for life lead us all as we rejoice in the ministry of teaching. Create in us a mind to study your Word so that we may all learn your truth and do it gladly, for the sake of the great teacher, Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE MINISTRY OF TEACHING

“Get the word out. Teach all these things. And don’t let anyone put you down because you’re young. Teach believers with your life: by word, by demeanor, by love, by faith, by integrity. Teach believers with your life. Stay at your post reading Scripture, giving counsel, teaching. And that special gift of ministry you were given when the leaders of the church laid hands on you and prayed – keep that dusted off and in use.

Cultivate these things. Immerse yourself in them. The people will all see you mature right before their eyes! Keep a firm grasp on both your character and your teaching. Don’t be diverted. Just keep at it. Both you and those who hear you will experience salvation.”

I Timothy 4:11-16 as translated by Eugene Peterson in THE MESSAGE

(All teachers come forward during the singing of the hymn)
RECOGNITION OF THE EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY

THE LITANY OF AFFIRMATION FOR THE MINISTRY OF TEACHING

*adapted from 1 Timothy 4 as translated by Eugene Peterson in The Message.*

- (L) To his beloved young student Timothy, the Apostle Paul wrote. "You've been raised on the Message of the Faith and have followed sound teaching".
- (P) LORD, we give you thanks for those who teach the message of the faith.
- (L) To Timothy, now the church leader, Paul wrote: "Get the word out. Teach all these things....teach believers with your life: by word, by demeanor, by love, by faith, by integrity".
- (P) LORD, we give you thanks for teachers whose "lives show forth these things".
- (L) It is said by church leaders of today, "making the teaching ministry the number-one priority in program planning, is the first and most important step to take in expanding the ministry in your congregation."
- (P) LORD we give you thanks for the dedication of those whose ministry of careful planning, informed teaching, and loving care will bring quality of discipleship to the lives of the next generation.
- (L) Teaching in the church school is a covenant between GOD, congregation, parents, and teachers.
- (P) LORD we give you thanks for council members, teachers, committee members, parents who honor the teaching ministry. We remember in our baptism vow that we all promised "through prayer and example, to support and encourage others by celebrating CHRIST's presence, by furthering CHRIST's mission in all the world, and by offering the nurture of the Christian church.

FRONT DOORS OF THE CHURCH

Recently I have received estimates to refinish the front doors to our Church and they are well beyond our means at this time. Therefor, I am again asking for volunteers with wood finishing skills to help properly refinish these doors. Finishing the doors is not just a matter of simply painting them, it is a rather long process. In addition to the finishing, they are also in need of some repair work. If anyone in the congregation can do this type of work, or knows of someone that does this type of work, please call, or have them call the office and leave their name and phone number and I will get in touch with them. If no one volunteers, I will be forced to scale back the scope of the work and hire a regular painter to simply sand, seal and revarnish the doors. Thank you John Price

(L) O sing to the LORD a new song, for the LORD has done marvelous things.

(P) The LORD has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel.

(P) Make a joyful noise before the LORD. The LORD is coming to judge the earth with righteousness and the people with equity.

WE COME BEFORE A FORGIVING GOD

LITANY OF AFFIRMATION AND CONFESSION: ADAPTED FROM 1 JOHN 5;

(L) CHRIST has risen! Everyone who believes that JESUS is the CHRIST has been born of GOD.

(P) By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love GOD and obey GOD’S commandments.

(L) Yet we adopt divisive attitudes that separate us from individuals and groups who are different from us.

(P) Release us, O God, from jealousy and iniquity and self-serving comparisons.

(L) The love of GOD is this, that we obey GOD’S commandments.

(P) For God’s commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. The SPIRIT is the one who testifies, for the SPIRIT is the truth.

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

The following letter was mailed here to Art Jones's attention:

Dear Friends,

Your donation of cole slaw to Beans and Bread is greatly appreciated. Your gift will help provide meals for our guests. With the support of so many good people who are concerned for the poor, we have been able to feed many in the Fells Point area of our city.

Beans & Bread, which was founded in 1977, now serves more than 375 meals a day. This hot, mid-day meal is provided for all that come to our door. There are many poor, elderly, mentally challenged, unemployed and underemployed who are in need of food. Also recognizing that a person needs more than bread alone, we offer life-building resources as well, including a variety of learning opportunities for youth and adults.

Please know that it is only with the help of generous persons like you that we are able to continue our work. May God bless you always for your generosity to the poor.

Sincerely,

Sister Eleanor Noll, OSB

Call To worship

(L) O World, come together in one place,

(P) And suddenly an almighty roar shall sound:

(L) The rush of a mighty wind,

(P) A tempest from the mountaintop!

(L) O World, kneel together in one place,

And suddenly a fiery pillar shall rise:

The tongue of a fiery spirit,

(P) A flash from heaven’s crown!

(L) O World, come and kneel together:

(P) And the place shall be sacred; the moment, divine!

Litany of Affirmation and Confession

(L) HOLY SPIRIT, CREATOR, in the beginning you moved over the waters. From your breath all creation drew life.

Without you, life turns to dust.

(P) Come, HOLY SPIRIT!

(L) HOLY SPIRIT, COUNSELOR, by your inspiration, the prophets spoke and acted in faith. You clothed them in power to be bearers of your Word.

(P) Come, HOLY SPIRIT!

(L) HOLY SPIRIT, POWER, you came as fire to Jesus’ disciples: you gave them voice before the rulers of this world.

(P) Come, HOLY SPIRIT!

(L) HOLY SPIRIT, SANCTIFIER, you created us children of God;

you make us the living temple of your presence; you intercede within us with sighs too deep for words.

(P) Come, HOLY SPIRIT!

(L) HOLY SPIRIT, Giver of life, you guide and make holy the church you create; you give gifts --- the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and fortitude, the spirit of knowledge and piety, the spirit of the fear of the LORD, that the whole creation may become what you want it to be.

(P) Come, HOLY SPIRIT!

(L) True and only Light, from whom comes every good gift; Send your Spirit into our lives with the power of a mighty wind. Wash away our sin and heal our wounded spirits. Open the horizons of our minds by the flame of your wisdom. Enable us to know that we are forgiven and give us peace. Loosen our tongues to show your praise, for only in your Spirit can we voice your words of reconciliation and acclaim Jesus as Lord.

(P) Amen.

When in Our Music God Is Glorified

Fred Pratt Green

Edward Hopkins

When in our mu - sic God is glo - ri - fied,
How of - ten, mak - ing mu - sic, we have found
So has the Church, in lit - ur - gy and song,
And did not Je - sus sing a Psalm that night
Let ev - ery in - stru - ment be tuned for praise!

and ad - o - ra - tion leaves no room for pride,
a new di - men - sion in the world of sound,
in faith and love, through cen - tu - ries of wrong,
when ut - most e - vil strove a - gainst the Light?
Let all re - joice who have a voice to raise!

it is as though the whole cre - a - tion cried,
as wor - ship moves us to a more pro - found borne wit - ness to the truth in ev - ery tongue:
Then let us sing, for whom He won the fight:
And may God give us faith to sing al - ways:

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!
Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!
Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!
Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!
Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! A - men.

FRONT DOORS OF THE CHURCH

Recently I have received estimates to refinish the front doors to our Church and they are well beyond our means at this time. Therefore, I am again asking for volunteers with wood finishing skills to help properly refinish these doors. Finishing the doors is not just a matter of simply painting them, it is a rather long process. In addition to the finishing, they are also in need of some repair work. If anyone in the congregation can do this type of work, or knows of someone that does this type of work, please call, or have them call the office and leave their name and phone number and I will get in touch with them. If no one volunteers, I will be forced to scale back the scope of the work and hire a regular painter to simply sand, seal and revarnish the doors. Thank you John Price

BALTIMORE CITY CENSUS 2000

For door-to-door counts, the Census Bureau has hired local neighborhood leaders. The enumerators are our neighbors, not strangers. Answering is easy.

All census information is strictly confidential. No one-not the FBI, police, creditors, DSS, Housing department, courts-no one can get access to personal information. Answering is safe.

Direct funding from the federal government, decisions by job-creating companies, and representation by elected officials all depend upon the results of the census. Answering delivers results.

Please look out for our traveling vans and "Open the Door" campaign activities and tell your neighbors to open the door. For all of us in Baltimore, answering matters!

*Call To worship Adapted from Psalm 9
(L) This is Sunday, the day of the LORD’s resurrection!
(P) Let us rejoice and be glad in it!
(L) Sing praises to the LORD,
(P) Declare his deeds among the peoples.
(L) David went into the house of GOD, ate the bread of the Presence, and gave some to his companions.
(P) JESUS healed on the Sabbath.
GOD melts hard hearts with deeds of love.
This is the Sabbath, the day of the LORD’s resurrection!
Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Prayer of Confession

O God, hear our confessions, for we still dwell in darkness. We are afflicted and crushed by a sense of inadequacy. When perplexed, we despair that there may be no hope. Persecution leaves us feeling forsaken.
When foes strike us down, we assume we’re destroyed.
We hear that Christ resides like a treasure within us.
Transform our whole being so that we live in that truth.
Source of redeeming grace and infinite goodness,
hear us as in CHRIST we pray for forgiveness.
