MEMORIAL SUNDAY

November 26, 1978

Our unity with those Church members and other Christians who have passed beyond this earthly scene into that new and continuing life made possible through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ is well expressed in the poem by William Walsham How found in our Hymnal at #417 and #418. By comparison, the triumphant life built on faith and trust and hope that begins in our everyday "here and now" leads us to an anticipated, unmatched, and unexcelled glory none of us can fully comprehend. Jesus Christ made that possible! And we can use the words of that poem to help remind us of that future reality.

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world
confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou was their Rock, their Fortress,
and Their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold, Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
Alleluia! Alleluia!

A PSALM OF DAVID

The Shepherd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not want;
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters,
He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil,
My cup overflows.

Surely goodness, and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
