The Confession of Sins

PASTOR: The God whom we worship through Jesus Christ our Lord has revealed Himself as a God who desires us to be in close relationship with Him, and who, in spite of our proneness to sin, that we cannot remain strong in faith but tend to depart from the path of discipleship, says He will forgive our weakness and pardon our offenses against Him. May we come to Him now, beseeching His love on us and His strength in us, through the act of forgiveness. May we confess our sins.

PEOPLE: Our God, thou who are great and marvellous, forgive our sins, we beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (sing Amen)

PASTOR: Thank you for this life and for revealing yourself in Jesus of Nazareth, that we may receive and respond to your love now.

PEOPLE: May we be prepared for your coming, Lord Jesus Christ.

PASTOR: Let us call all men to faith in God! Make us your channels to reach men in our world with your invitation to eternal life. May we be effective witnesses to your love,

PEOPLE: Protect us from straying or failing you. Keep us from being lulled into careless and unthinking apathy, in which we may be left out of your kingdom. Let us be ready, always, and so at the time of your coming.

PASTOR: Strengthen us in constant service. May we see all around us the needs of men, and, because of your love, so freely given to us, may we gladly serve these needs, and so do your will,

PEOPLE: For we are those who are to serve, rather than be served. Help us walk the pathway of all your saints. Include us in the company of those who have lived by faith in Christ, and through us, pass on the heritage of true religion to future generations. (Amen)

Confession of Sins

Pastor: As Advent happens and Christmas approaches, we have a lot to get ready. In our busy-ness let us never forget to prepare our hearts for Christ's coming. What good will be all our activity if it crowds Him out? What good will be our gifts and greetings unless our lives are presentable to Him and to others?

People: Trying to put a fair covering on ourselves, O God, would be useless. You know us too well for that. Rather, we can only ask that You will make the best of who we really are. Take us as we are and transform our sin-filled ways. Help us to be those who deliver gifts of love, joy, peace, and hope - food for the hungry, houses for the homeless, a kind word to the lonely, and welcome for the despised. When we are called to an accounting of our deeds, let us not be found wanting. Change us into your faithful ones, for the sake of Jesus Christ. (Amen.)

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us

Assurance of Pardon

Pastor: When we bring ourselves to God, ask His forgiveness, and are deeply sincere in our attempts to change toward His ways, He is both faithful and just in His granting of mercy and forgiving love. I proclaim this to you as good news from the same God who gave His only Son to this world that we and others might not perish in our evil deeds but experience life everlasting.

Confession Sins

Pastor: As Advent happens and Christmas approaches, we have a lot to get ready. In our busy-ness let us never forget to prepare our hearts for Christ's coming. What good will be all our activity if it crowds Him out? What good will be our gifts and greetings unless our lives are presentable to Him and to others?

People: Trying to put a fair covering on ourselves, O God, would be useless. You know us too well for that. Rather, we can only ask that You will make the best of who we really are. Take us as we are and transform our sin-filled ways. Help us to be those who deliver gifts of love, joy, peace, and hope - food for the hungry, houses for the homeless, a kind word to the lonely, and welcome for the despised. When we are called to an accounting of our deeds, let us not be found wanting. Change us into your faithful ones, for the sake of Jesus Christ. (Amen.)

CHRISTMAS GREETING AND CALL TO CELEBRATE: 112

Pastor: Advent has ended and Christmas is here. I greet you in the Name of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. And I call you to forsake the ill-intended ways of the outside world in order to give your full attention to the celebration now beginning. Join me as together we bring praise and honor to the Living God, who through the Gift of His Own Son showers blessings of fulfilment, forgiveness, justice, and joy upon us.

People: We heed your call and bring greetings to you and to each other. We respond in faith to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. We are encouraged by the hope made sure by God's incarnation into our kind of humanity. And we are enriched by His never-ending love, given to each of us as an infant-child too fragile to feel secure without our kind of caring love.

Pastor: The faith, hope, and love that you bring this night is also shared by others too sick, too feeble, too scared, or too unconcerned to be with us here in this place of worship and beauty. Therefore, our lives of faith, our words of hope, and our deeds of love must speak louder than the songs we sing. And our worship of the Christ-child can never remain just within these walls, but reach out like the beams of a star to those in need of His guiding light.

People: We come here this night, as came the shepherds and kings to the manger in Bethlehem, to celebrate the giving of God's most precious gift to us, His only begotten Son. And we come as a response to that Gift to give of ourselves to Him, to His Church, and to others. With praises on our lips and love in our hearts, we are here to share together the story of that most blessed event.

Confession of Sins:

Pastor: Now that Christmastide is here and we celebrate Christ's coming anew into each of our lives, we do so as those convinced of, yet convicted by, the simplicity of that humble birth. In our world of many things, God's Son has been given to us and our families as an infant child to grow and develop to full maturity of manhood. With Him as the point of comparison for our own lives, we now confess our own sins and shortcomings and ask God's forgiving mercy to help us in our own struggle toward the full maturity He makes available to us. Let us pray.

People: Eternal and loving God, our Heavenly Father and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we come this day to You recognizing our own participation in this world's limited acceptance of the Holy Child of the Manger in Bethlehem. We need Him as the true Lord and Savior of our lives, but we have also given Him a less than prominent place in our decision-making and in our giving of ourselves to others. Strengthen us with your forgiving love and restore in us that rightness of spirit needed for full participation in His Kingdom of peace and hope. (Amen.)

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Assurance of Pardon:

Pastor: God shows His love for us in that while we were yet sinners God sent His only Son into this world, not to condemn us, but to forgive us and grant us life everlasting. This good news I proclaim to you who are sincere in your desire to amend the evil portions of your lives and to seek after new ways to live faithfully in His service.

Praise Versicle, #517

Pastor: O Lord, open Thou our lips.

People Sing: And, our mouths shall show forth thy praise.
