A Church Historian has been appointed by the Church Council and the Pastor. Named for this newly-developed volunteer position is Mrs. May Getz. With the help of others under her direction, the tasks of this position include, but are not limited to:

1. Complete oversight and organization of the Church Archives and all historical materials currently in the possession of the congregation.
2. Development of an adequate procedure for the periodic updating of our Church History.
3. Continuing research into the history of this congregation and its past ministry in the lives of its members, friends, and neighborhood community.
4. Developing and maintaining a complete file of pictures and other memorable data of all the Confirmation Classes of this Church.
5. Initial planning and support for periodic celebrations of memorable occasions in the ongoing life of this congregation, including the development of significant displays when appropriate.

We wish her well in this new position of leadership and pledge her our continuing support for whenever we are asked to assist in this important endeavor.

Church Council

FAST--FAST--FAST--FAST--FAST--FAST--FAST--

Sunday, October 17, 1976 is World Hunger Sunday in Baltimore. Walks against hunger will be happening in various parts of the total community. But for those who cannot or prefer not to walk we have another alternative.

On Sunday, October 17, the Church will remain open from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. to help you MISS A MEAL that day and GIVE what you would have spent for that meal to Church World Service.

While you are here, there will be an opportunity to sing your favorite hymns, to pray for the hungry of the world and others, and have fellowship with your friends and other members of the church.

Come and join us or stay and join us as we MISS A MEAL for the hungry of the world.

Pastor Hengen
