JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN

It is with the greatest amount of profound joy that we, the Church, are able to declare: "Jesus Christ is risen from the dead". We experience that joy because we also know the feelings of suffering, loss, and grief associated with the death of a loved one. And that joy is made possible through the hope that is generated in human lives by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is a Christian hope that reaches into a future that includes eternal life with the triune God.

God, in Jesus, Christ, has experienced the death that took place on the cross on Golgotha. That death contains within itself all the depths and abysses of human history. All suffering and death have now been taken up into God's history and integrated into the future of God's history. Therefore there is no life, no death, no fortune and no joy which have not been integrated by His history into eternal life, the eternal joy of God. We celebrate that joy at Easter.

TODAY

My life is a gift of God given, not in years,
But a day at a time. Today is the day
The Lord has made for me, and He planned it to be
The most important day of my life.

Yesterday is gone, never to return.
I must not worry about it, but leave it in the hands of God.
Tomorrow and all that it holds is God's secret
And its coming is not assured.

Only today is mine.
Each day, arranged by God with infinite wisdom and Goodness is His gift, His act of love for me.
In thanksgiving, I will offer Him every day the gift of myself -
My prayers, works, joys and sufferings.
Dear Lord, receive it graciously.

EASTER DAWN

Today, unnumbered church bells ring.
Unnumbered hands are clasped in prayer
To Him who suffered, lived and died,
And rose from suffering and despair.

This is the season for rebirth
Of human hope and joy and love,
When beauty blooms again on earth
And brighter glows the sky above.

The cold things in this changing world
Have no place in your heart today,
For even Winter's icy shroud
Has long since thawed and flowed away.

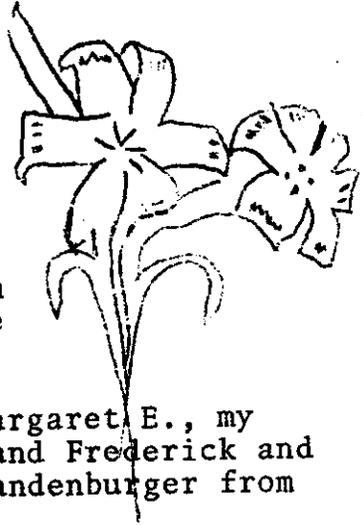

So listen as the church bells ring
And clasp your hands again in prayer,
Then joyfully arise and sing;
His love will conquer your despair.

ARE YE ABLE, SAID THE MASTER

Are ye able, said the Master,
To be crucified with me?
Yea, the sturdy dreamers answered,
To the death we follow Thee.

Lord, we are able, our spirits are Thine,
Remold them, make us, like Thee devine,
Thy guiding radiance above us shall be,
A beacon to God, to Faith and Loyalty.

Are ye able, to remember,
When a thief lifts up his eyes,
That his pardoned soul is worthy,
Of a place in Paradise?

Are ye able, still the Master
Whispers down eternity,
And heroic spirits answer,
Now, as then, in Galilee.

EASTER DAWN

*It came so quietly -- the first gray light,
That touched the open tomb that
Easter dawn,
Long years ago. There, where the weight of night
And death had lain a dark despair upon
Each sorrowing heart, came morning,
a bird's voice,
And cypress trees showed sunrise trickling through.
The day that bade the whole wide world rejoice
Was born where lilies in a garden grew.*

I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside
Into the shadows where we could confide; Away from the hustle where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.

I needed the quiet, though at first I rebelled,
But gently, so gently my cross He upheld,
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things-,
Though weakened in body my spirit took wings.
To height never dreamed of when active and gay,
He loved me so gently, He drew me away.

I needed the quiet, no prison my bed
But a beautiful valley of blessing instead;
A place to grow richer, in Jesus to hide
I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside.

As we present these memorials we do so with a profound sense of thankfulness for the gift to us of our mothers, fathers and families.

We are blessed people to have had such good gifts from Almighty God. Our lives have been and always will be enriched by the experience and memory of having God-fearing and love-practising parents.

May these lives we live always be expressive of this gratitude.

June 20, 1976

It has been rightfully said that a person has difficulty developing a mature concept of the fatherhood of God without knowing what it is like to experience the love, concern and leadership of a human father. Even substitute fathers, as in the case of adoption, are important for this concept to be developed within a growing child or young person. Therefore, what Father's Day helps us celebrate is the Christian love, concern and leadership of fathers who, by God's grace, exhibit in their personal lives what God the Father, made available to our Lord Jesus Christ.

Remembering our fathers through memorial gifts such as are represented by this booklet, indicates our continuing gratitude to God for the gift of fathers which he has given to us. Deeds of Christian love, concern and leadership in the past can also be expressed by each one of us through similar kinds of deeds in the present and in the future.

UNITED EVANGELICAL UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
MEMORIAL SUNDAY

November 21, 1976

MEMORIAL SUNDAY
November 21, 1976

1 9 7 6

Throughout this Bicentennial Year we have made known our desire to remember those honored dead who gave of themselves in service to their country. Such a fitting tribute is especially meaningful for those who gave their last full measure of devotion in order that the freedom and justice we enjoy here might continue for us and our posterity.

Our Christian faith points us beyond even that kind of tribute. We can say with St. Paul that through Jesus Christ we are "more than conquerors" through Him who loved us. Our hope for eternal life is built upon a personalized witness that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

To remember those of our Christian fellowship who are no longer with us in this life means we recognize a continuing Christian fellowship with the "Church triumphant". It also means we express our gratitude to God for their gifts of love and care to us and to others during their lifetime.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters;
He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
For his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the Valley of the shadow of death;
I fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

CHRISTMAS TRIBUTES

A PRAYER AT CHRISTMAS

Lord, feelings flow freely at Christmas.
Joy floods the soul.
Gratitude swells in the heart.
Love looms larger in the family circle.
Goodwill gladdens the spirit.

For some, unhappy feelings increase at Christmas.
Grief grows over a lost friend or family member.
Sadness comes from unhappy childhood memories.
Irritability intensifies over frustrations.
Loneliness lingers from long-ago experiences.

Lord, we want not only to be aware of our own feelings but in this season to be aware of the needs of others in the world.

This Christmas there are those who are hungry
those who are homeless
those who are at war
those who are sick
those who are lonely.

You so loved the world that You came to us.

And in Your coming You minister to us and our feelings.

Are we to so love the world in Your name?

We want Christmas to be more than an indulgence in happy or unhappy feelings. Make this Christmas a time for commitment to love as You loved.

Amen

SILENT NIGHT

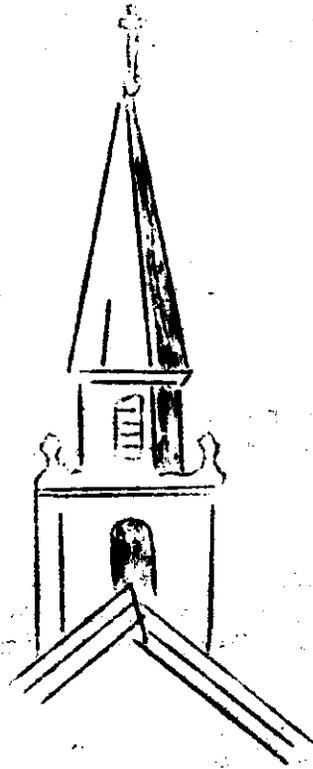

Silent night! Holy Night!
All is calm, all is bright;
Round yon virgin mother and Child,
Holy Infant so tender and mild;
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night! Holy Night!
Darkness flies, all is light;
Shepherds hear the angels sing:
Allelula! hail the King!
Christ the Saviour is born.
Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent night! Holy night!
Guiding Star, lend thy light!
See the eastern wise men bring Gifts and homage to our King!
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent night! Holy night!
Wondrous Star, lend thy light!
With the angels let us sing
Alleluia to our King!
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.
