Stephen M. Anderson

The Rev. Stephen M. Anderson has been selected as Interim Area Conference Minister for the Chesapeake Association. He began his duties January 1, 1981 and will serve through June 30, 1981. His duties will include all general administration/communication requirements; crisis intervention and consultation with local churches and pastors as required; and staff support to the Association structures and programs. Mr. Anderson is serving on a part-time basis with flexible hours. He will be in the Association office at 5410 Leaf Treader Way, Columbia, Md. 21044 on Wednesday mornings - Phone: 301-997-2310; other times he may be reached by phone at his church office 301-426-0109 or home 301-823-4085.

Born and reared in Nacogdoches, Texas, he received his college education at Oberlin College and completed theological studies at the Graduate School of Theology, Drew University. Of Methodist heritage, Stephen chose the United Church of Christ and was ordained at Stanley Church, Chatham, New Jersey, in 1968. He has been pastor of Zion United Church of Christ, Baltimore, since 1970. He and his wife, Jane, have two children, Luke and Marian.

We welcome Steve as Interim Area Conference Minister and look forward to our work together.
