NEXT SUNDAY

The 1st Sunday of Lent brings a new Order of Worship and message by Pastor, on the Gospel of the Day. Services 8:00 & 10:15 a.m.

FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR AND BAKESALE

We invite each one present tonight to remain for our Coffee Hour and Bakesale immediately following this service, in Friendship Hall. Take time to come downstairs for a cup of coffee/tea and a bun. Enjoy the friendship of the other folks at your table. No charge for this. Bake sale by our Ladies Aid held at the same time in the same hall.

LENTEN SALES REQUIRE WORKERS AND BUYERS

Just this past week the decision was made to begin our Lenten sales on Fridays, with the first one this Friday. This means preparation of food on Thursday, and Friday mornings. Won't you give time these weeks of Lent to making this venture a success. Only if we have sufficient volunteers to prepare the food will the sales continue.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER SERVICE

The service is this Friday night at Emmanuel Church, Baltimore St. at 8 p.m. Take one of the flyers with you and attend the service. It is for all women, with the men invited also.

ONE GREAT FELLOWSHIP

"It began, this one great fellowship, in an upper room long ago when Jesus met with His disciples to keep the Passover. It was on the night when He was betrayed by Judas and just before His death on a cross. Who was the friend who provided this "upper room"? We do not know. He was one among many of the friends of Jesus who did a kindness for Him but whose name we do not know. A fellowship was begun that night which has now spread until it covers the earth."

A LESSON IN HUMBLE SERVICE

Thursday evening during supper the disciples began to quarrel jealously among themselves concerning which of them should rank the highest. Jesus rose from the table, took off His outer garment, and tied a towel around His waist. He then poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciples' feet and to dry them with the towel. But Peter asked Him: "Lord, are You going to wash my feet? I won't let You." Jesus replied, "Unless I wash you, you have no share in Me." "Then, Lord," Peter said, "Not my feet only but my hands and head as well." When Jesus had finished and sat down, He asked, "Do you realize what I, whom you call Lord and Teacher, have done to you? I have set an example; you also ought to wash one another's feet."
