FATHER'S DAY

We've set aside a day in Spring,
 We call it Father's Day;
 As if Dad needed a special date
 For us to think of him.

For, every day is Father's Day,
 From the minute we are born
 Who keeps us sheltered, clothed and fed
 And toils for us, both night and morn?

No one but Dad would do all this,
 For us, his saucy kids.

Now we are grown, have homes of our own
 And know what it is to have trials and cares,
 We won't forget Dad, we only have one,
 That goes for Daddies everywhere - - -

Our Father, which art in Heaven,
 Hallowed be Thy Name,
 Please take care of our Daddies down here
 We ask this in Thy Name.

Make us strong in truth and right,
 So Dad can be proud through all his life.

And this day we also think of our Dads who are no longer with us, and we honor them in our memory and with our memorial gifts.

So, to all fathers, here and beyond, we honor you this day as your family. And, we thank God for you.

In loving memory of our fathers, George Sauer, Sr. and John Mack from Lillian and George Sauer.
