UNISON PRAYER - (Led by Betty Gallup - 10:15 Service)

O Church of God triumphant above this world's dark fears, Wherein our souls seek refuge through all our earthly years; While in these walls we gather, renew in us God's will, With prayer and praise we worship, our hearts with purpose fill. Before this holy altar, we pledged our love in youth, Within these sacred portals our children learn of God's truth; In manhood's sterner battle we gain fresh courage here, While in the hour of sorrow we shed our parting tears. The Church must live the vision that shone in Jesus' face; Though mists of doubt drift round us, faith's beacon lights our way. Our pilgrim feet press onward, toward never-ending day; Once more into the conflict, the Spirit's sword we raise, Invisible and visible the Church unites in praise. O Church of God triumphant, at last her warfare won, When saints in glory hearken to hear the King's "Well Done!" For then, O faithful servants, your Lord Himself you'll greet. Amen
