HYMN 297

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God:
He whose word cannot be broken
Formed thee for His own abode:
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal Love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint, when such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage;
Grace, which like the Lord the Giver,
Never fails from age to age?

Saviour, if of Zion's city
I thro' grace a member am,
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in thy name:
Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
All his boasted pomp and show;
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Zion's children know.

HYMN 306

We bid thee welcome in the name
Of Jesus, our exalted Head:
Come as a servant, so he came,
And we receive thee in His stead.

Come as a teacher: sent from God,
Charged His whole counsel to declare;
Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.

Come as a shepherd: guard and keep
This fold from hell and earth and sin;
Nourish the lambs and feed the sheep,
The wounded heal, the lost bring in.

Come as a messenger of peace:
Filled with the Spirit, fired with love;
Live to behold our large increase,
And die to meet us all above.
