Pastoral Search:

New sub-title to be used.

OLD BUSINESS:

No old business to report.

NEW BUSINESS:

Interim pastor – three Pastors have been interviewed. Rev. Anderson from Catonsville – turned down the position; Rev. Taylor from New Jersey – would need to transit back and forth; and Rev. C. Baker – Loch Raven Blvd. – was liked by Committee members.

Search committee recommended we go with Pastor Baker. Pastor Armstrong kept money received from funerals, weddings, etc.; Pastor Baker feels that the Church should associate with Church members only.

John Price felt $71,000 was too much to pay for an Interim Pastor.

Suggested that we keep Pastor Baker for 1 year – then 6-month intervals thereafter.

Suggested that we put in the contract – can not join in any other responsibilities outside of the Church.

Stan Huber motioned; Baptist Hoffmann seconded to ask Pastor Baker to join our Church as interim Pastor. See attached for salary breakdown. Pastor Baker will be preaching on September 5, 1999.

Services held on August 29, 1999 the Church would do something special for Pastor Armstrong. Presentations will be made at this service.

Clarence Rowell mentioned gift of $1,000 for Pastor Armstrong along with plaque or something else. Motioned made and approved.

Pastor Joellenbeck will receive $500 as a gift certificate. All in favor.

There will be a reception at Pastor Armstrong's residence from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. for cake and ice tea.

Robert Gundlach will set up a speakerphone for Pastor Armstrong the last Sunday.

Calvin Gundlach suggested the Church donate $200 to the Choir of Chesapeake for their wonderful performance.

Meeting closed with the saying of the Lord's Prayer.

Meeting adjourned at 9:15 p.m.
