Gentlemen:

Your check in payment of this account has not been received.

It is apparent that claimant has granted you a liberal extension of time and a further delay in payment will not be permitted. Therefore, you are given this last opportunity to pay this account before steps to enforce collection are taken by claimant.

Unless your remittance reaches this office by 2/26/81 we will have no alternative but to follow claimant's previous instructions without further delay.
This is our final notice on this account.

Sincerely,
