for February 1, 2004

Meeting was called to order – Clarence Rowell (Council President)

Prayer - Pastor Cathy

There were 57 members who attended this meeting.

Last meeting minutes were approved.

Financial Report – Harvey and Calvin are no longer on Council. Clarence stated a Finance Committee had been organized. The Committee includes Clarence, Harvey and Calvin. The church's financial records, reports, statements and financial procedures were reviewed by the Auditing Committee – Treasurer Harvey Jacob, Financial Secretary Calvin Gundlach and Chairman J. Edwin Myers - on January 28, 2004. The books are in balance and all transactions were found to be accountable. See the financial report for 2003.

New Business – Please see organizational report. Bill Meyers presented the renovation project. The congregation decided to inspect the Sunday School building for structural concerns. A committee was formed to develop a plan. The committee included George Nassner, Pastor Oatman, Diane Borkman, Bill Meyers and Julie Hovermill.

Pastor's Comments - Pastor thanked the Congregation for all of their help and support. She explained how we can't expect for things to just happen. We must step up if we want to move forward. There are needs that must be met.

Comments from Membership – It was decided to have Gardner Engineering provide an estimate for the Sunday School building repairs.

Closing Prayer - The Lord's Prayer.

The meeting adjourned at 2:00 p.m.
