OUR HONORED CONFIRMANDS

* * PALM SUNDAY * *

His coming made the great afraid;
They feared a Man so meek;
Since common people round Him stayed,
And joyed to hear Him speak.

Of Him the rich and proud had heard.
They thought Him Herod's foe,
To bitter rage their hearts were stirred
To see Him welcomed so.

The poor with palm leaves strewed
His way
And greeted Him with song,
Where'er He went that Sabbath day,
They followed Him along.

Of Him the humble had no doubt,
The wise misunderstood
The gentle Man who went about
The cities doing good.

Edgar A. Guest

Christ For The World We Sing

Words of Isaiah - Choir

Luke 2, Verses 1 to 7 - Narrator

"Go Tell It on the Mountain" - Spiritual

(Soloist sings verses, Choir and Congregation sings Chorus)

The people walk in darkness, Until they see the light;
Our God will come from heaven, Upon a winter's night.

Chorus: Go tell it on the mountain
Over the hills and everywhere,
Go tell it on the mountain
That Jesus Christ is born.

He'll be to us a saviour, As sure as God is one;
And men will live at peace, When His whole will is done. (Chorus)

So comfort ye, my people, Put warfare at an end;
Iniquity is pardoned, Make every man your friend. (Chorus)

Go up into the mountain, And do not fear the length,
Be heralds of good tidings - Lift up your voice with strength. (Chorus)

"Burgundian Carol" - French (Youth Choir)

The winter season of the year, When to this world our Lord was born,
The ox and donkey so they say, did keep His Holy Presence warm.
How many oxen and donkeys now, if they were there when first He came,
How many oxen and donkeys you know at such a time would do the same?

And on that night it has been told, These humble beasts so rough and rude,
Throughout the night of Holy Birth, Drank no water, ate no food.
How many oxen and donkeys now, Dressed in ermine, silk, and such,
How many oxen and donkeys you know at such a time would do as much?

As soon as to these humble beasts appeared our Lord, so mild and sweet,
With joy they knelt before His grace, and gently kissed His tiny feet.
If we, like oxen and donkeys then, in spite of all the things we've heard,
Would be like oxen and donkeys then, we'd hear the truth, believe His Word.

"Calypso Noel" - G. Kunnfusz - (Youth and Senior Choirs)

Sing we Noel, sing we Joyously Noel! Joyously sing of the news we have to tell!
Born to us in the little village of Bethlehem on this day,
Is the little Christ Child so pure and holy; He's sleeping there in the hay.
Poor little Baby, no other place was found,
Except in a manger with cows and sheep around.
Yet the glory of this wee Baby was sung by angels so fair;
There were Wise Men and shepherds to give Him honor and bring Him presents so rare.
Sing we Noel, sing we Joyously Noel! Joyously sing of the news we have to tell!

"Do You Hear What I Hear" - Regney-Shayne - (Youth and Senior Choirs)

Said the nightwind to the little lamb, "Do you see What I See?
'way up in the sky, little lamb. A star, dancing in the night,
With a tail as big as a kite."
Said the little lamb to the shepherd boy, "Do you hear what I hear?
Ringing thru the sky, shepherd boy. A song, high above the tree,
With a voice as big as the sea."
Said the shepherd boy to the mighty king, "Do you know what I know?
In your palace warm, mighty king. A child shivers in the cold,
Let us bring Him silver and gold."
Said the king to the people everywhere, "Listen to what I say:
Pray for peace, people everywhere! The child, sleeping in the night,
He will bring us goodness and light.

PART TWO

Caribbean Carol - Traditional - (Duet)

The Virgin Mary had a baby boy, and they say that His name was Jesus,
He come from the glory, He come from the glorious kingdom,
Oh yes, believer, He come from the glorious kingdom.
The angels sang when the baby born, and proclaimed Him the Saviour, Jesus.
The Wise Men saw where the Baby born, and they saw that His name was Jesus.

"Carol of the Russian Children" - Traditional

Snowbound mountains, snowbound valleys, snowbound plateaus, clad in white,
Fur-robed Moujiks, fur-robed nobles, fur-robed children, see the light.
Shaggy pony, shaggy oxen, gentle shepherds wait the light.
Little Jesu, little mother, good St. Joseph, come this night.

"Who Will Come to Bethlehem?" - Old Spanish Carol

Shall I tell you who will come to Bethlehem on Christmas Morn,
Who will kneel them gently down before the Lord, new-born?
One small fish in the river with scales of red, red, gold,
One wild bee from the heather, one gray lamb from the fold.
One ox from the high pasture, one black bull from the herd,
One goatling from the far hills, one white, white bird,
And many children, God give them grace,
Bringing tall candles to light Mary's face.

"The Star Carol" - Neapolitan Carol

'Twas on a night like this, A little babe was born;
The shepherds gathered 'round to guard Him till the dawn.
Above them shone a star, a star so wondrous light;
Never since in all these years have we seen one half so bright.
Shining so truly, shining so brightly, guiding their footsteps from afar
It led them through the night, A path to love and brotherhood by following its light
Oh, come with us tonight, and join us on our way;
For we have found that star once more to greet a better day.
For though throughout our land men search the skies in vain,
Yet turn their glance within their hearts, They would find this star again.
Shining so truly, shining so brightly, guiding our footsteps from afar,
It leads us through the night, A path to love and brotherhood by following its light.

"What Strangers Are These" - Old Scottish Carol

What strangers are these that wander through the town?
Hush, 'tis Joseph and weary Mary.
And what does he seek so hopeless and in vain?
He is seeking shelter for Mary, For she is blest and chosen of the Lord,
Who will bear to men a goodly King.
And who is this King of whom ye proudly sing?
Know ye not the Christ, Jesus the Saviour?
What wee bairn is this, that in the manger lies?
Hush, 'tis Jesus, Christ, son of Mary.
Say, what fair maid is this whose joy is mixed with awe?
Oh, 'tis Mary, holy mother of Jesus.
Oh, these are the shepherds, and those the Magi Kings
Who have brought Him their gifts of gold and myrrh.
But why kneel they in homage here before a babe?
They adore their King, Jesus the Saviour.
Who are these that march from death to life?
These are they who love Jesus, the Christ Child.
And how do they triumph o'er the gates of hell?
Through the grace of Him, Jesus, the Christ Child.
He is born to redeem the sons of God and man,
To bring peace, joy, love, and brotherhood.
Oh, where shall I find Him, where shall I seek?
He is here and now, Jesus, your Saviour.

NARRATOR

"O COME ALL YE FAITHFUL"

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant, O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem!
Come and behold Him, born the King of Angels!

Chorus : O come, let us adore Him, O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him, Christ, the Lord!

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, O sing, all ye citizens of heaven above,
Glory to God, all glory in the highest! (Chorus)

Yea, Lord, we greet Thee, born this happy morning, Jesus, to Thee be all glory given
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing! (Chorus)
