THE MORNING PRAYERS
THE PATRIOTIC EXERCISE

Pastor: On this Sunday prior to the day on which we celebrate the fact of our national independence, let us now manifest our allegiance to our country and our God.

*The National Anthem - people sing
O say can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming. Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming? And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there. O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

*The Pledge to the American Flag - stand facing flag, with hand over heart.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands. One nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

*The Christian Song of Allegiance

Stand up, stand up for Jesus, ye soldiers of the cross; Lift high His royal banner It must not suffer loss: From victory unto victory His army He shall lead, Till every foe is vanquished, and Christ is Lord indeed.

*The Pledge to the Christian Flag - stand facing flag, with hand over heart.

I pledge allegiance to the Christian flag and to my Saviour for whose kingdom it stands. One Brotherhood, uniting all mankind, in service and in love.

"TWO PRAYERS"

Only for these I pray,
Pray with assurance strong;
Light to discover the way,
Power to follow it long.

Let me have light to see,
Light to be sure and know,
When the road is clear to me
Willingly I go.

Let me have power to do,
Power of the brain and nerve,
Though the task is heavy and new
Willingly I will serve.

My prayers are lesser than three,
Nothing I pray but two;
Let me have light to see,
Let me have power to do.

WHAT IS PRAYER?

Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed -
The motion of a hidden fire,
That kindles in the breast.

Prayer is the burthen of a sigh,
The falling of a tear -
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try -
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The majesty on high.

Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, "Behold! He prays!"

O Thou by whom we come to God -
The Life, the Truth, the Way!
The path of prayer Thyself hast trod;
Lord, teach us how to pray!

A GIFT OF LOVE

"A couple in the Long Beach, California area loved music and had been buying a grand piano on time payments. They gave up the piano but continued making equivalent payments so that the church might have an organ.
Sometime later, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, I met this couple in a church I was serving. The husband had been transferred from the Long Beach community to Tulsa. The last Sunday they were in Long Beach the organ had been dedicated. They told me the thrill that had been theirs when they heard the tones of the new organ.

I asked, "Did you ever regret having given up the grand piano?" I was never more humbled in my life than by the reply, "Why, that was a gift of love, and no one ever regrets having loved." Curtis Schumacher.

SOME MOST INTERESTING FACTS

The claim that welfare rolls are full of free-loaders, able-bodied deadbeats and chis, elers should have been punctured for good by Presidential Assistant J. Califano's address earlier this year in Washington when he said: "...of the 7:3 million Americans on welfare, only 50,000 males may be capable to getting off of welfare, even if every program, public and private were adequately staffed and efficiently run. Of the 7:3 million citizens on welfare," he reported -

2.1 million, mostly women, are over 65 yrs. or over, with a median age of 72

700,000 are either blind or so severely handicapped that their work potential, if any, is extremely limited.

3.5 million are children whose parents cannot support them

The remaining 1 million are parents of these children, about 900,000 mothers and 150,000 fathers

2/3 rds of the 150,000 fathers on welfare are incapacitated. Only some 50,000 are capable to being given job skills and training that will make them self-sufficient.

He concluded that the problem is not "whether there should be handouts to the poor, but.... how we are going to break the poverty cycle."

Grant this, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

We shall herald the coming of Advent with the display of our beautiful Advent Creche and the first of our Advent ceremonies. Sermon for the 1st Sunday of Advent, entitled, "Where Are You Going For Christmas?" This will be the sixth anniversary of the pastor's coming to United Church, the first Sunday in Advent of 1961 being his first Sunday here.

MEDITATION ON OUR GOSPEL READING FOR TODAY

As Christians, we are not called to be an 'in-group', closed in by walls which keep the world out, but a community built with an open door to let an inviting light shine out upon the world's life. For Christians, there is never a time for darkened lamps. The Christian life is always lived 'full-time.' The Christ who shall come at an unknown end of history is the Christ who comes to us now at unexpected times and in unexpected places. He comes to feed us, the lamp-bearers, in order that the open and lighted door of his house may beckon others to a food we have to share. "Let your loins be girded and your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the marriage feast."

Be sure to be here

PICK UP 1968 ENVELOPES

A WAY TO A HAPPY NEW YEAR

To leave the old with a burst of song,
To recall the right and forgive the wrong;
To forget the thing that binds you fast
To the vain regrets of the year that's past;
To have the strength to let go your hold
Of the not worth while of the days grown old,
To date go forth with a purpose true,
To the unknown task of the year that's new;
To help your brother along the road
To do his work and lift his load;
To add your gift to the world's good cheer,
Is to have and to give a Happy New Year.

Robert B. Beattie
