I THANK GOD FOR THESE

God holds the earth within his hands
And moves the clouds around...
He lets His sunlight glow and then
Sends rain to moisten ground.

He made the sparkle on the trees
Where sunlight throws its beams...
He formed the peace that follows
When golden moonlight gleams.

The fragrance seeping from a flower,
The rustle of a breeze;
There is so much that God has made,
But I thank Him for all these.

We need actually about 8 teachers as replacements and for new classes. Surprise the pastor and tell him you'll be willing to pitch in. Also we need people who can type and help with the Church School office work, plus the department secretarial work on Sundays. So, we do have a place for you to assist in the efforts of Christian education.

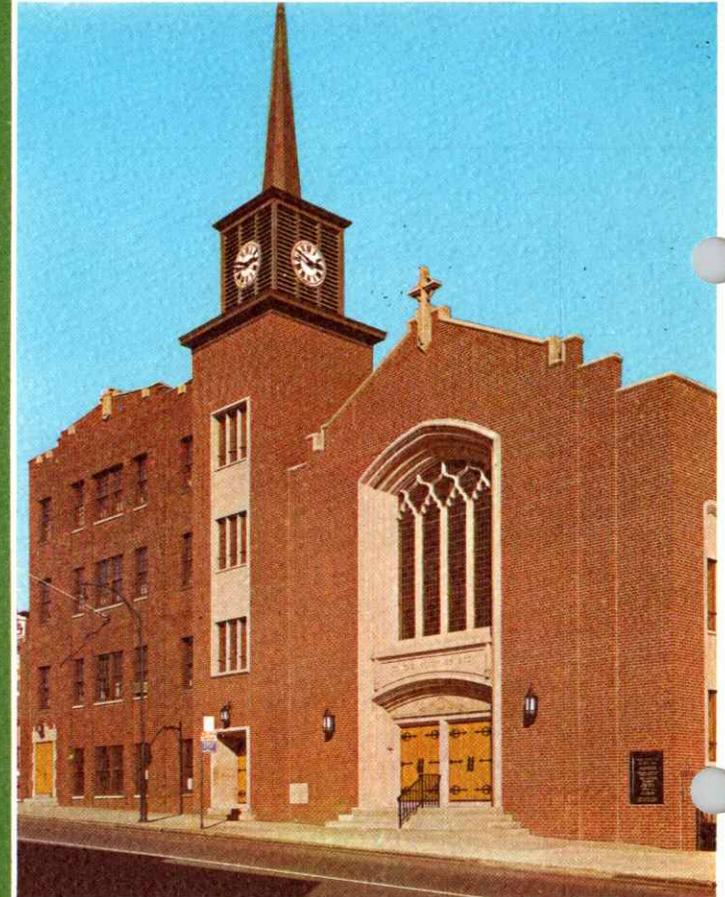

One more request Right at the present Mrs. Fader is in need of people with typing ability who could give some hours at the office during the day in compiling some new record forms. We have the typewriters, all we need is your ability to type. Give us a hand.

As of this date it seems that all the work in the School building will be complettouches. Soon, very soon, we can say, "See how wonderful are our facilities for Christ-of the church." Now, to pay for it pronto, our continued monthly liberal offerings in the Pink envelopes need to continue. We want to secure at least $5000 annually in these.

THE THANKSGIVING LITANY

Pastor: Lord, with thankful hearts we come unto Thee. For our country, the fatherland we love, and for the security and peace which it has enjoyed,

PEOPLE: O LORD, WE THANK THEE

Pastor: For the material blessings of our lives; blessings of home and food and shelter, for the crops of our fields, the harvest of our prairies, the work of the worker's hands,

PEOPLE: LORD, WE THANK THEE

Pastor: For the beauty of the seasons, especially for the beauty and grandeur of the autumn months when every hillside bush has been aflame and every scarlet tree has spoken to us of Thee,

PEOPLE: O LORD, WE THANK THEE

Pastor: For the approaching Christmastide when our minds travel back to the Bethlehem manger and our hearts bring gifts to the Christchild; for the opportunities which the Christmas season affords us of understanding Thee better through giving to others,

PEOPLE: O LORD, WE THANK THEE

Pastor: But most of all, for the spirit in each of us which can reach out and call Thee Father; for the heart and mind of men which, in spite of obstacles, can push on, determined to lay hold of reality; for the questing, adventurous yearning spirit of man, ever hungry until it finds its satisfaction in Thee.

PEOPLE: WE THANK THEE, O GOD. AMEN.

O GIVE THANKS

THANKSGIVING

Giving thanks is a creative act. It awakens, yields, and radiates kindness, friendship, and love. Thanks-giving to God is a creative act in the midst of life's problems and human needs. Jesus recognized it to be so. When he faced a multitude of hungry people, when he stood before the grave of Lazarus, when he broke the bread and gave the cup, he first gave thanks to God the Father for the Father's providential care in providing for every human need. Then with faith, love, and dedication he shared God's bounty in ministering to human need.

Our Thanksgiving Day was born of such a creative act. When "the days were dark" the Pilgrim Fathers experienced a fresh disclosure of God's presence and providence. Thereupon they held a Day of Thanksgiving. They shared God's bounty and benefits with others, friends and would-be foes, and "they held steadfastly to the purpose to subdue the unknown continent."

This is the authentic three-fold act of Thanksgiving: a fresh awareness and acknowledgment of God's presence and providence; a genuine expression of thanks to God for God himself and his provision for every human need, our own and the world's; a grateful dedication of life in sharing his goodness with all his people on earth.

O give thanks to the Lord for he is good!

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES

Two identical services, save for choral music, will be held at 8 p.m. and 10:45 p.m. These services, featuring our three choirs, will also include the Candlelighting Service in which the Christmas Scriptures will be read and appropriate carols sung by the congregation. The pastor's message at these services will be "Christ At Your Door". You will be deeply impressed with the beauty of our sanctuary on Christmas Eve and we do urge you and your families to be in attendance upon one of these services.

A special feature again this year will be a Carol Sing from the balcony of the church, beginning approximately one half hour before each service. Come, sit in quietness in God's House on this Holy Night and listen to the music of Christmas by choral group and individual soloists and combinations. How better can you spend a portion of the blessed Christmas Eve than to come into God's House to worship the new-born king, even Jesus.
