My dear Mrs Schmidt

I was very much surprised to hear late last night of the death of your husband, my wife coming home from Church Sunday night, told me that she had seen Mr Schmidt was sick again and last night when I got home she told me of his death. Please accept my deepest sympathy in this great trouble, and be much rest content with the Lord's will in this matter, as we must all some day fare away. You have one great consolation that the last year of his life was passed in the Church bound doing the Lord's work, and that he fared away in the Lord's service

With sympathy
F. W. Kakel
