Oy Mates! We wish to thank all those who join us in the Walk-About at the 2009 St. Brigid Carnival Down Under.

Good on ya! Whether you were on our planning committee, were part of the bush telegraph effort & did the chin waggin' with the tall puppies, the joe bloggers & cobbers to get donations or set up & decorated the Outback & Bush, baked, manned the BillaBong Cafe & served the tucker, worked the sheds & galleries or were an offsider. You are important & we could not have done it without you!

God bless all you Blokes, Sheila's, rellies & ankle biters. Wishing you "no worries" & have a Dinki-di time! Ta Ta...

In Loving Memory Of My Beloved Husband
Raymond McLouski.

I dedicate this poem by an unknown author. Sunsets will never be as beautiful without sharing them with my soul mate.

Beyond The Sunset

Should you go first and I remain
to walk the road alone,
I'll live in memories garden dear,
with happy days we've known.
In spring I'll wait for roses red,
when faded, the lilacs blue.
In early fall when brown leaves fall,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.
Should you go first and I remain,
for battle to be fought.
Each thing you've touched along the way
will be a hallowed spot.
I'll hear your voice; I'll see your smile,
though blindly I may grope,
The memory of your helping hand
will buoy me on with hope.
Should you go first and I remain,
one thing I'll have you do:
Walk slowly down that long long path,
for soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take,
so I may take the same.
For someday down that lonely road you'll hear me call your name.

The family of Ray McLouski wish to express their appreciation to all those who took the time from their busy lives to pray, visit, call, email, send cards, flowers, bring food, & console us during a most devastating time. We'll always remember your kindness. Peace be with you. Joyce McLouski

When you see someone in a uniform
Someone who serves us all, Doing military duty, Answering their country's call, Take a moment to thank them for protecting what you hold dear; Tell them you are proud of them; Make it very clear. Just tap them on the shoulder, Give a smile, & say, "Thanks for what you're doing; for
