UNISON PRAYER - "Epiphany"

O Divine Tenderness, low lying in a Manger, with grave kings and hoary seers from afar we, too, would come, star-led, to the Manifestation of Love.

Wherefore should we marvel to behold faces we have never seen, and hear tongues spoken we have never understood? Are not pilgrim feet abroad to-day in every land, journeying where loads are heavy and roads are dark, in quest of a Truth to solve the riddle of life and a Love to heal its heartache? O Love of God, behold us gathered at Thy cradle, Thou who wast an outcast at the threshold of the inhospitable Inn that still and yet again has no room for Thee. By thy blessed power make Thy Love to shine in our lives, that wandering feet may stay and darkened eyes may see, and the wild heart of man be led into the way of peace. Still thou waitest to reveal Thyself to the world; make us messengers of Thy beauty and pity.

O Heart of God, humbly we bow at Thy lowly Manger, bringing the treasures of our hearts, seeking what others see not, hoping for things unborn, held in secret steadfastness by a light that journeys before; beseeching Thee for grace to keep the feast of life's Epiphany, finding its meaning in eyes that search our own and a hand outstretched in the dawn; that we may learn a holier wisdom than even the stars can teach, and worship Thee where the hearts of those that love are made glad.

In His name. Amen

WHY I SHOULD JOIN A CHURCH

1. I ought to belong to the Church because I ought to be better than I am.
2. I ought to belong to the Church because of what I can give to it, do through it, get out of it.
3. I ought to belong to the Church because every man ought to pay his debts and do his share in discharging the obligations of society.
4. I ought to belong to the Church because of memories.
5. I ought to belong to the Church because of hope.
6. I ought to belong to the Church because of strong men in it who need reinforcing; weak men in it who need encouraging. I need to be an active partner with Christ.

God of the prophets! Bless the prophets' sons;
Elijah's mantle o'er Elisha cast;
Each age its solemn task may claim but once,
Make each one nobler, stronger than the last.

Anoint them prophets! On Thy service bent,
To human need do Thou their hearts awake,
With heavenly speech their lips make eloquent,
To preach the right, and every evil break.

Anoint them priests! Strong intercessors they,
For pardon and for charity and peace!
O that with them might pass the world, astray,
Into the dear Christ's life of sacrifice!

Make them apostles! Heralds of Thy cross,
Forth may they go to tell all realms Thy grace;
Inspired of Thee, may they count all but loss,
And stand at last with joy before Thy face. Amen

O God, who hast blessed us with the knowledge of the gospel of Christ, make us glad to give of ourselves and of our possessions to carry his gospel to peoples and nations who lack what we have had. Not unto us, O Lord, but unto Thee be glory and praise for the light which has been kindled in our own land. Cleanse us from false pride of race and blood, from self-complacency, and from indifference to the hunger of any human soul. Teach us that life can nowhere find fulfillment except in Christ, and that in our universal need of him we are one with all mankind. And this we ask in the name of him who died for the whole world. ## ANNOUNCEMENTS

"CHRIST IN A WORLD OF CRISIS"

There is a special crisis in each one of the seven countries in which the Evangelical and Reformed Church has a mission field. In China it is communism; in Iraq, oil; in Japan, a post-war situation with national and international implications; in Africa, turbulent energies demanding expression; in Ecuador, a grinding serfdom; in Honduras, a moth-eaten ecclesiasticism, and in India, a statehood facing overwhelming economic and social problems.

We believe that Christ, the Light of the World, has the solution for each one of these situations. Are we willing to translate that belief into a stronger missionary action?

Most holy and merciful Father, we are humbled by Thy glory, and by the wrongs we have done. We confess that we have not put our trust in Thee, but in ourselves. We have often blurred the atmosphere by our noisy lives and have not heard Thy call.

We confess we have not loved our neighbors, our unkind words, our mean, little deeds, our refusal to share, have not reflected Thy love. Forgive us our hatreds, our wars. For us there is no alternative but to serve God in every moment of our lives, to treat all men as brothers, to work toward the day when suffering and strife will be replaced with cooperation and love and when peace shall abide in place of war.

We are not alone in this task. The strength of Christ is ours. Divine resources flow through us, and human fellowship sustains us as we give ourselves to the Church of Christ and its mission in the world. Amen knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold thou art there. Pastor: For those who do us harm,

For those who take from us what is ours,

Pastor: For those who succeed where we fail,

For those who are more fortunate than we are,

Cong: Grant us, O Lord, a Love that does not envy.

Pastor: If we should succeed where others fail,
Or if in outward appearance or gifts of mind we should surpass those about us,

Cong: Grant us Love that is not puffed up with pride.

(See next page)

Pastor: For those who boast and lord it over us,
For those who are helpless to defend themselves against us,

Cong: Increase in us a Love that is never rude.

Pastor: Whenever power is placed within our hands,
When through a superior advantage in age or race or position we are able to command,

Cong: Give us a Love that is never selfish.

Pastor: When we see others take what we hold dear,
When we are hurt or embarrassed, whether unjustly or with cause,

Cong: Make us strong in a Love that is not easily

Pastor: When others act in ways offensive to us,
When not understanding, we are tempted to impute wrong motives to their deeds,

Cong: Keep us firm in a Love that thinks no evil.

Pastor: When we see men suffer through indifference or selfishness of others, When we see children robbed of all that makes life rich,

Cong: Let not our Love be happy in injustice.

Pastor: When we hear lies spoken or false rumors spread,

Cong: Grant us a Love that is happy only in truth.

Pastor: When it is our lot to suffer, as we must,
When weary days come and the burden of Thy Cross is too heavy for our carrying,

Cong: O Lord, make strong our Love to endure anything with Thee. Love never fails.

ALL: So faith, hope, Love, abide, these three;
but the greatest of these is Love. Amen.

Almighty and most merciful Father, who hast given us a new commandment that we should love one another give us also grace that we may fulfill it. Make us gentle, courteous, and forbearing. Direct our lives so that we may look each to the good of the other in word and deed. And hallow all our friendships by the blessing of thy Spirit; for his sake who loved us, and gave himself for us, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

O Jesus, our Master, who didst show unfailing patience and generosity in thy judgment of the people round Thee, forgive us the careless criticism and the unkind gossip which cause so much suffering to others. Save us from the habit of harbouring malicious or revengeful thoughts against those who have wronged us. Help us to think and speak of everyone with fairness. Show us how to find the best in them, and, having found, to use it: that we may be perfect, even as our Father in heaven is perfect. We ask it for thy sake. Amen

Love's Kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. His dominion endureth throughout all ages. Come then, O Lover of our race, and reign among us in love and joy and peace. Extend thine empire over human hearts. Let the burning vision of thy beauty shine out clear before the eyes of the world. Hasten the consummation of thy kingdom in which Love shall be the only King: that the love where with the Father hath loved Thee may be in us, and we be made one in Thee. Amen

THE PENALTY OF LOVE

If Love should count you worthy and should deign
One day to seek your door and be your guest,
Pause! ere you draw the bolt and bid him rest,
If in your old content you would remain.
For not alone he enters; in his train
Are angels of the mist, the lonely guest
Dreams of the unfulfilled and unpossessed,
And sorrow, and life's immemorial pain.
He wakes desires you never may forget,
He shows you stars you never saw before,
He makes you share with him, forevermore,
The burden of the world's divine regret.
How wise you were to open not, and yet,
How poor if you should turn him from the door!

O God of Peace, who hast taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and confidence shall be our strength; By the might of Thy Spirit lift us, we pray Thee to Thy Presence where we may be still and know that Thou art God. through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Almighty and most merciful God; this earth is the dwelling place of Thy besetting Presence. Everywhere and always Thou art with us; but often we cannot discern Thee nor feel Thee to be near. The darkness and confusion of our hearts hide Thee from us and the struggle and burden of our lives makes us forget. Recall us now, good Father, to ourselves and to Thee. Help us ever to cultivate and cherish the spirit which changes pain into patience and pity, temptation into a discipline of strength, and sorrow into joy. And when the fair dreams pass far away, and our mortal day is dark with storm, help us to live that we may pass through our trouble into a deeper peace; and through the cross of our sacrifice, into closer fellowship with Christ Jesus our Lord. The doors of this Church are open wide. We are a fellowship of friendly people, young and old, who seek to proclaim by word and deed the "good news" of Jesus Christ. We welcome every man, woman, youth and child who is disturbed by a sense of need, who hungers for a nobler life and seeks a better world and who aspires to follow Jesus more faithfully until His mind governs, inspires, and informs everything he does. This Church has no purpose save to point men to Jesus, their Saviour and rightful Master. It seeks no beauty save the beauty of reverent worship of the Eternal. It recognizes no class created by wealth or position, but regards all men as children of one Father.

Keep from me all sin and error,
Lead me to Gethsemane.

Teach me pray with pure devotion,
"Thy Will, Lord - not mine be done;"
Help me share in Thy Salvation,
Never let me walk alone.

Grant me courage true and fearless,
To withstand all worldly claim;
Make my life be ever ceaseless,

on thy brow,
We must have Thee, O Jesus of the scars.

The heavens frighten us; they are too calm,
In all the universe we have no place,
Our wounds are hurting us; where is the balm?
Lord Jesus, by thy scars we claim thy grace.

If when the doors are shut, thou drawest near,
Only reveal those hands, that side
of thine;
We know today what wounds are,
have no fear;
Show us thy scars, we know the countersign.

The other gods were strong; but thou
wast weak;
They rode, but thou didst stumble
to a throne;
But to our wounds God's wounds alone
can speak,
And not a god has wounds, but thou alone.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

"The Temple of God's Wounds"

is the story of a quiet church in the country, a secluded place for a Christian retreat. In the temple is a series of pictures of our Lord. Three are from His time of suffering, three after His resurrection and the seventh points to the victory in the future. Through meditations upon these pictures we can be brought to a deeper sense of devotion to Christ. We need to take time during these Lenten days to quietly think about the meaning of Christ's suffering and resurrection for us. Come to the services and bring someone with you.

DIVINE WILL TO CHANGE THE WORLD

as our theme for Lent will be continued in our services. On Friday, March 14, at 7:45 P. M. we think of "Christ-Priest and Mediator." We had a fine response for our services so far. Keep it up. Sunday - March 16 - 8 A. M. and 10:15 A. M. the theme will be - "Weight of the Cross." Our prayers, our attentiveness and spirit of worship and attendance will make all services more fruitful.

God laid upon my back a grievous load,
A heavy cross to bear along the road,
I staggered on and lo! one weary day,
An angry lion sprang across my way.
I prayed to God and swift at his command,
The cross became a weapon in my hand,
It slew the raging enemy, and then
Became a cross upon my back again.

I faltered many a league, until at length,
Groaning, I fell and had no further strength,
"O God" I cried, "I am so weak and lame
Then straight my cross a winged staff became.

It swept me on till I regained the loss,
Then leaped upon my back, again a cross.

I reached a desert. O'er the burning track
I preserved, the cross upon my back.
No shade was there and in the cruel sun,
I sank at last and thought my days were done,
But lo! The Lord works many a blessed surprise
The cross became a tree before my eyes.

I slept; I woke, to feel the strength of ten
I found the cross upon my back again,
And thus thru all my days from that till this
The cross, my burden, has become my bliss
Nor ever shall I lay the burden down
For God some day will make my cross a crown.

Our crosses are hewn from different trees,
But we all must have our Calvaries;
We may climb the height from a different side,
But we each go up to be crucified;
As we scale the steep, another may share
The dreadful load that our shoulders bear,
But the costliest sorrow is all our own -
For on the summit we bleed alone.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

"THE WEIGHT OF THE CROSS"

Tom's sin had been against himself, the sin of isolation and retreat. When he reversed the direction of his life, through the grace of God, and sent it outward toward those who were in worse shape than himself, then the weight of the sin and the cross was taken off his shoulders. It is this thought we keep in mind for our service today. Stand fast for Christ the Savior and carry His cross, like Simon of Cyrene after Him.

LENTEN SERVICES AHEAD

Next Sunday - "One Great Hour of Sharing" with many other Christians. You have received your blue envelopes. Please return these and give generously, sacrificially, in His Name and for their sake - the sake of those who are in need. Our theme for this service is - "Heart-Break Hill - Golgatha."
March 30 - Presentation and examination of our confirmands of the class of 1952 in the 10:15 Service. Pray for these young people.

PAGEANT

"The Challenge of the Cross" - as presented by a group of young girls under the direction of Mr. Albert Witzke on Friday, March 21, at 7:45 P. M. ALL the Lenten Services ahead are of utmost importance. Our prayers, our attendance, our spirit of worship will be helpful in all these.

YOUNG WOMENS' GUILD

And lead us to Thy throne.

Around Thy Cross, dear Saviour,
We humbly worship Thee,
From every land and nation,
We hope Thine own to be,
Tho war and hate enfold us,
And darkness fills our day,
'Tis Thine own blood that saves us,
And is our strength and stay.

Under Thy Cross, dear Saviour,
Thy children humbly stand;
Assured Thy death and passion,
Has met all law's demand.
We thank Thee precious Saviour,

Oh grant us faith each hour,

PROCESSIONAL - No. 261 "Before The Cross of Jesus"

Before the cross of Jesus, Our lives are judged today;

The meaning of our eager strife,

Is tested by His way.

Across our restless living,

The light streams from His cross,

And by its clear, revealing beams,

We measure gain and loss.

The hopes that lead us onward,

The fears that hold us back,

Our will to dare great things for God,

The courage that we lack,

The faith we keep in goodness,

Our love, as low or pure,

On all the judgment of the cross,

Falls steady, clear, and sure. Amen

O Sacred Head what glory,
What bliss till now was Thine!
Yet though despised and gory,
I joy to call Thee mine.

What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered,
Was all for sinners' gain;
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain.
Lo, here I fall my Saviour,

1. Sing with all the sons of glory,
Sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,

All around the clouds are breaking,
Soon the storms of time shall cease,

Join, O man, the deathless voices,
Child of God, lift up thy head!
Patriarchs from distant ages,
Saints all longing for their heaven;
Prophets, psalmists, seers, and sages,
All await the glory given.
3. Life eternal! O what wonders
Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
When, amidst earth's closing thunders,
Saints shall stand before the throne.
O to enter that bright portal,
See that glowing firmament,
Know, with Thee, O God immortal,
Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent. Amen.

God, our Father, this day as we honor the time of our confirmation and rethink its meaning, accept our thanksgiving for the Church that has called us to be its members.

For the Privilege of Membership in the Christian Church, We Give Thee Thanks. We confess, shamefully, that we have accepted the Church receiving its fellowship but forgetting its great purpose, and for this we ask thy forgiveness. For our Indifference and Blindness to the Meaning of the Church, we ask Thy forgiveness. Grant us Faith and Vision, We Pray.
We would share the responsibilities and work of our Church, our Father. With the assurance that Christians possessed by Christ's Spirit can do great things
We Pray that his spirit will come to us, that we may find the great meaning of Life and so work through the Church to share it with others. Amen

Make a joyful noise, O, all ye works of man: ye eight o'clock whistles; ye trolleys and buses; ye commuters' trains; ye trucks and wagons; ye opened shutters and uprising windows. Swell the fast-growing chorus, O, all ye milkmen; ye cooks making fires; ye janitors and 'White Wings' preparing the highways of all the people; ye postmen and delivery men; ye florists and grocers and bakers; ye printers and sign-painters and carpenters; ye housekeepers and mothers; ye young men and maidens in joyful outgoing; ye patient school-teachers, and all ye little children; ye builders and makers and laboratory workers; ye ministers and doctors of mind and of bodies; ye nurses by bedsides with soft hands pain-soothing.

O, come let us worship, and stand up. Let us work beside the Lord, our Comrade, for we are His people and made in His image - in ideals boundless, in joy of the effort, in thrill of achieving, in beauty of wholeness.

O, come let us worship and bow down, though our efforts be tiny and earthbound. Swing picks and shovels! Hammer nails, and paint signs! Move pens and typewriters! In one swelling chorus of praise in creating! For the Lord, He is God, and we His people would serve Him. Amen

UNISON PRAYERS

God of love, we thank Thee for the warmth and security felt in a home where Thy love is known. Help us now to learn again of Thee what we first heard from our Mothers: To deny ourselves even that which is our own, through love; to rejoice in the welfare of our brother and sister, through love; to be courteous and kind, through love; to be pure and honorable, and upright, lovers and speakers of the truth, through love. Strip from us all the hard layers of deception and help us to make love our aim. So bring us now to a dedication of ourselves to Thee. May we surrender ourselves to Thee without fear of the consequence. We ask it in the Name of Him who glorified His home and did honor Thee upon the earth, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Forgive us our Father, the crowning folly of our lives, the neglect of our homes. Bring us to repent. We have boasted of saving the world and have forgotten our lost kindred. We have talked of ridding ourselves of corruption but we have not made pure our homes. We would call the nation back to Thee, yet leave our families to wander away. Call us back to Thee in family devotion. Let Thy favor rest upon our homes to strengthen them, that parents and children, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives, may be bound together by strong cords of understanding and affection, each seeking the interest of the other above his own. So from a consecrated family life may purity be found in our civic life, and in all relations with our fellows. Amen

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THIS IS MOTHER'S DAY, but it is also National Family Week. Although we all want to honor Mother, many people feel that Mother can be more honored by help and appreciation throughout the year than by an excess of recognition on one day. Perhaps the biggest thing that any family can do to show its members, including Mother, real consideration, is to live together in friendliness, to respect the rights of each other, and to enjoy everyone from the oldest to the youngest.

NEXT SUNDAY

Reveals the path of life;

We seek not ease or glory,
But courage for the strife.

We look for broad horizons,
For glimpses of the gleam,
For deeds that need great daring,
For vision and for dream.
We pledge a faith enduring,
Unmastered by our doubt;
A confidence so certain,
All fears are put to rout.

Our voices join this morning,
With all the good and true;
In all our hearts the promise,
Our Master's work to do.

We hope for new adventures,

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ROGATION SUNDAY, which we observe today stands for prayer. We ask God to bless the labor of the hands upon the fields, so that produce might be raised to feed the people of the world. That is a part of God's Providence, which is so marvelous. God provides enough, but are we, as human beings, willing to share that which God gives?

DOES LIFE MAKE SENSE?

This is a question that was asked in "Questions People Ask." One of the most important factors in life is that it might have meaning for us. We will consider this question next Sunday, May 25, in both services. Since this is National Memorial Sunday, we will be able to observe it by thinking some about God's purposes for life.

WHITSUNDAY - June 1 - is to be observed in a special way. We will receive new members into the Church at that time and also enter fellowship with our Lord in Holy Communion.

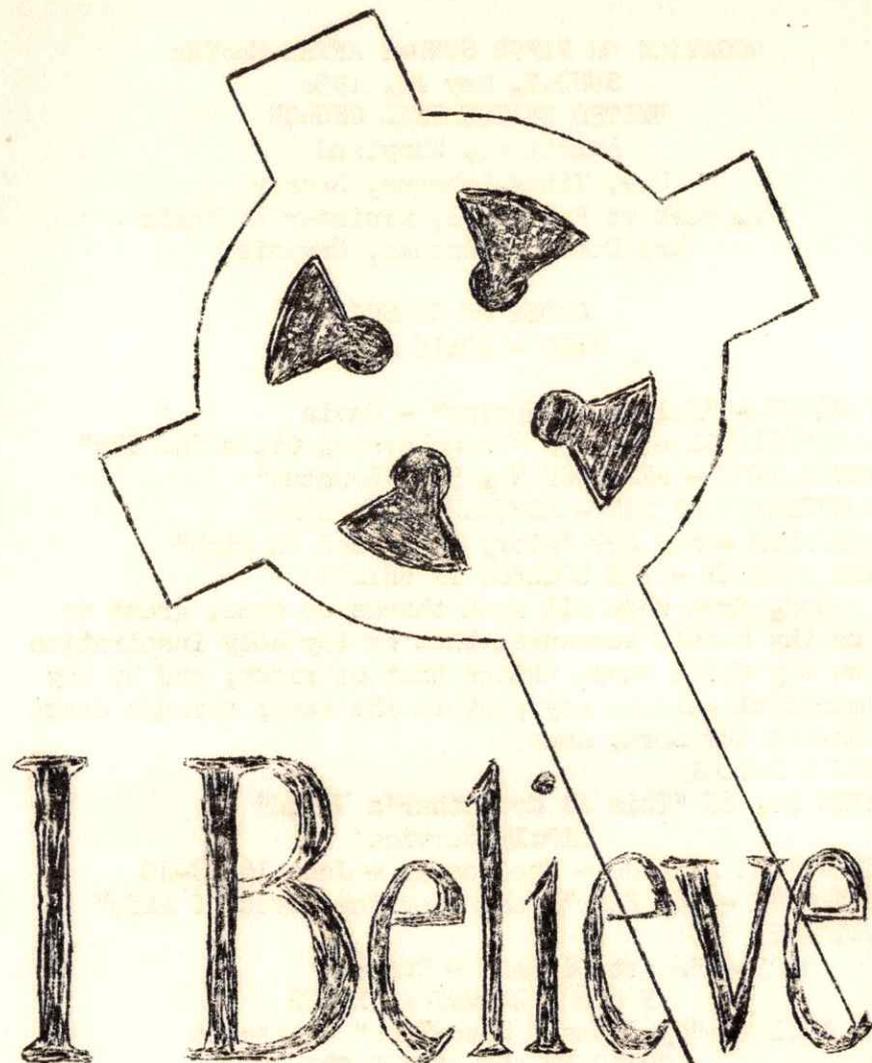

CHILDREN'S DAY - June 8 - with special observance at 10:15 A. M.

UNITED MEN'S CLUB - YOUNG WOMEN'S GUILD Meeting this coming Wednesday. Note change of week for Men's Club. The Men's Club will also have election of officers at this meeting.

O God, our true life, in whom and by whom all things live, Thou commandest us to seek Thee, and art ready to be found; Thou biddest us knock, and openest when we do so. To know Thee is life, to serve Thee is freedom, to enjoy Thee is a kingdom, to praise Thee is the joy and happiness of the soul.

I praise and bless, and adore Thee, I worship, and glorify Thee, I give Thee thanks for Thy great glory.

I humbly beseech Thee to abide with me, to reign in me, to make this heart of mine a holy temple, a fit habitation for Thy divine majesty.

O Thou, who hast made us for Thyself alone, restless till our souls find rest in Thee, open the eyes of my soul this day that I may behold the wondrous things of Thy will and purpose for me.

O God, whose eternal purpose runs through our tangled lives from end to end, help us to fit our little plans into Thy great plan, and thus enable us to see the meaning of life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN IN UNISON

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we acknowledge and confess our manifold sins, which we have committed against Thee by thought, word and deed. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We do earnestly repent and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous to us.
With the Prodigal Son, we say; "Father, we have sinned against heaven, and in Thy sight, and are no more worthy to be called Thy children." Trusting in Thy grace and goodness, manifested in Christ Jesus our Lord, we ask of Thee pardon and peace. Give us strength to lead a new and righteous life by the power of the Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

"BREAD"

He knew what hunger a man can feel,
So he broke the fishes and bread,
That the weary thousands who followed Him,
Might be strengthened and fed.

He knew what hunger a soul can feel,
Sharing the husks with swine,
So He gave His broken body and blood,
For bread and wine. (Leslie S. Clark)

LITANY OF BEATITUDES

(Led by William Single, Jr. - 10:15)

Leader: Deliver us from pride and self-satisfaction and make us willing to confess that we cannot walk in our own strength or by ourselves live good and useful lives.

Congr.: Blessed are the poor in spirit.

Leader: Give us, O Lord, sorrow for our sins, and for sins of world, that through our sorrow there may be joy in Thy presence. May we never lack sympathy for those who suffer pain.

Congr.: Blessed are they that mourn.

Leader: Teach us, O Lord, to think less of our own importance, help us to overcome desire to push ourselves at the expense of others. Fill us so with the spirit of service that we may watch to be of service to others.

Congr.: Blessed are the meek.

Leader: Give us, O Lord, a reverence for truth, a desire to both think and speak truth. Teach us to seek for right at all times.

Congr.: Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.

Leader: Help us, good Lord, to see good in others and not evil only; and always strive to understand before we hastily condemn.

Congr.: Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Leader: Let us, O Lord, be singleminded in our devotion to Thee, so that we might see Thee.

Congr.: Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Leader: Give us peace of mind stayed on Thee, O Lord. Give us a courteous and forbearing spirit and take away all hatred from our hearts.

Congr.: Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

Leader: O, Lord, hear our prayer:

All: And let our cry come unto Thee. Amen

Our Father, help us to be true today; help us to be faithful; help us to be kind. May thy presence go with us and watch over us so that no evil may surprise us. Keep us from falling, keep us from stumbling. If temptation assails us, may we be given strength to resist it; if trouble awaits us, may we go forth courageously to meet it and may thy grace be sufficient for us in the hour of our need.

Especially, we pray Thee that sin may have no dominion over us; save us from becoming hardened by its deceitfulness, or softened by its false soothing flattery.

Make us generous in our judgments, tender-hearted in our feelings, sweet-spirited and loving in all our dealings; preserve us from being impatient and irritable.

Implant within our hearts a genuine hatred for every form of defilement, and a sincere love for what is pure and Christ-like. Whatsoever things are honorable, whatsoever things are lovely, may we think on these things today. For Christ's sake. Amen.

THE DATE - July 23 - Sunday School-Church Picnic

BEFORE I was born MY CHURCH gave to my parents ideals of life and love that made my home a place of strength and beauty. IN helpless infancy MY CHURCH joined my parents in consecrating me to Christ and in baptizing me in His name.

MY CHURCH enriched my childhood with the Romance and Religion and the lessons of life that have been woven into the texture of my soul. In the stress and storm of adolescence MY CHURCH heard the surge of my soul and She guided my footsteps by lifting my eyes toward the stars. When first my heart knew the strange awakenings of love MY CHURCH taught me to chasten and spiritualize my affections; She sanctified my marriage and blessed my home.

When my heart was seamed with sorrow, and I thought the sun could never shine again, MY CHURCH drew me to the Friend of all the Weary and whispered to me Hope.

Now have come the children dearer to me than life itself and MY CHURCH is helping me train them for a clean, Christly living.
