UNISON PRAYER - "God of our History"

God of our History,
Our Fathers worshipped Thee
With One Accord.
They were from many lands,
Of many creeds and clans,
But Thee with lifted hands,
They all adored.

God of the present hour,
Send forth thy saving power,
In this our Day;
Grant us the grace to see,
In our Diversity,
Thy bond of Unity,
Father, we pray.

Blend Thou our Liberty,
With true Fraternity
The world around;
'Til every land be free,
To trust not only Thee
But all humanity;
And peace abound.

God of our Destiny,
Be this old Litany,
Our Staff and Rod:
"Do Justly" while we may,
"Love Mercy" Day by Day,
"Walk Humbly" All the Way,
With Thee, our God! Amen

SERMONIC HYMN - "The Lord's Song" (Tune No. 5)
Enlarge our vision, Lord;
Make clear to us Thy word.
Inform our Mind -
For if we know, we care,
And if we care, we share,
The heavy loads to bear
Of all mankind.

Committed, Lord, to Thee,
May we, Thy children, see
Through eyes of love
That wars must cease to be;
That men should brothers be,
All one great family
Of God above.

Lord, we would forceful be
And use our strength for Thee.
In this great hour,

Though tasks are very great,
We do not hesitate
Our lives to dedicate.
Grant us Thy power.

Informed, committed, strong,
We'll sing the Lord's great song,
With hearts aflame.
Accept our song today -
For this we humbly pray;
O Thou, the Living Way,
We praise thy name. Amen

THE TASK OF THE MINISTER AS IT IS SET FORTH IN THE ORDINATION SERVICE

"The first ministers were the Apostles, who were called and sent forth by Jesus Christ himself. Other men were chosen as pastors and teachers in the Church to succeed them; and thus from generation to generation the office of the Ministry has continued unto the present time. Ordination, therefore, is a most solemn rite in which those who are called are set apart for the service of Christ and his Church.

The Ministers of Christ are set in the world to be the representatives of his authority and the ambassadors of his grace. To them it belongs to preach the Word and to administer the Sacraments. They are appointed to serve the Church of Christ, to offer in his Name the prayers and the supplications of his people, to nurture, to instruct, to watch over and guide the sheep and lambs of his flock."

CALL TO PRAYER - No. 516

UNISON PRAYER FOR THE MINISTRY

"Most gracious God, our Heavenly Father, who hast so loved the world as to give thine only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life; increase, we beseech Thee, the faith and zeal of thy people, that they may more earnestly desire, and more diligently seek, the salvation of their fellowmen, through the message of thy love in Christ Jesus, our Lord. Send forth a mighty call unto thy servants to preach thy word; multiply the number of those who labor in the gospel; and so bless the witness of all believers, that multitudes may be brought from the kingdom of evil into the kingdom of thy dear Son. Make all of us to see that souls are perishing for the lack of knowledge of Jesus Christ and him crucified; and since thou hast intrusted to us the knowledge of thy truth and the gift of thy bounty, help us to use them as good stewards, so that thy word may be proclaimed and thy kingdom enlarged, to the glory of thy Name and the salvation of men; through Jesus Christ. He first served as Assistant Pastor to Dr. Paul Menzel, at Richmond, Virginia. After that he ministered in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Baltimore, Maryland, and at St. John's Evangelical Church, Columbus, Ohio.

Then he presided as President of Elmhurst College for almost twenty years. The last few years of his ministry have been spent at Edinburg, Virginia.

We have appreciated his services in our Church during the month of August for the past few years and we have set this Service aside as a tribute to the Christian ministry of Pastor and People.

Eternal God and Father of us all, we thank Thee for the consecrated and scholarly men who have preserved the Bible through the centuries and who have translated its age-old truths so that we may read them. For the many persons, those now living and those passed on, whose lives have been to us a daily witness to thy truth - we give Thee our heart-felt thanks. Hear our prayer, O Lord, for the final lodgment of this Book in our lives and in the service of our hands. Grant to us the knowledge to understand more and more of its truth. So fill us with Thy love that every life which touches ours may find strength for the day and guidance for the morrow. "Word of the Living God"

Word of the Living God,
Lighting the souls of men,

With heavenly wisdom from on high,
Inspiring lips and pen;
Their hearts athirst for truth,
With truth did God inspire;
In words of men God spake the Word,
His word a burning fire.

Changeful, the ages passed;
The Word was still the same;
Still from the ancient beacon-fires
Men caught the living flame;
Unchanged the truth of God,
Unchanged his righteousness,
His hand stretched out to judge the world,
His arms outstretched to bless.

Still burns the fire of God,
From age to following age;
New mornings break,
New light is thrown upon the hallowed page;
Still sounds the trumpet-call,
Still speaks the Living Word;
Rings out, as in the ancient days,
The cry, "Thus saith the Lord." Amen

O God, our help in ages past, our hope today and forever; Have mercy upon our humanity in its blindness, its bitterness, and its confusion. Thou who hast granted to our age to discover such wonders of thy mind and such mysteries of thy handiwork as to give man such vast power for good or ill, let us not use thy beautiful power for cruel and unworthy ends. Stay our hands and teach us to use thy power to serve thy will on earth. Deliver our world and us, O Lord, from lust of power, from vanity of spirit, envy, and ill will; fill our minds with wisdom from above, which is pure, peaceable, full of mercy. Touch our minds with light, that, having a right understanding, we may have compassion, courage, and patience - working with thy help for the better order of the ages. Create in us a clearer insight, a juster and wiser spirit, and by thy spirit temper our minds to forbearance. Bring each of us to a sound mind and a kind heart; restore good will and mutual trust. Visit not upon our children the horror of an age whose spirit was not steadfast with Thee. Lead us in the ways of justice and honor, in paths of truth and brotherly kindness, till we are delivered from the bondage of hate and fear into the light of love; in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

O God, our Father, we pray for thy Church, which is set today amid the perplexities of a changing order, and face to face with new tasks. Baptize her afresh in the life-giving spirit of Jesus. Bestow upon her a greater responsiveness to duty, a swifter compassion with suffering, and utter loyalty to the will of God. Put upon her lips the ancient gospel of her Lord. Help her to proclaim boldly the coming of the Kingdom of God. Fill her with the prophet's scorn of tyranny, and with a Christ-like tenderness for the heavy-laden and the downtrodden. Bid her cease from seeking her own life, lest she lose it. Make her valiant to give up her life to humanity; that like her crucified Master, she may mount by the path of the cross to a higher glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Almighty and most merciful God, grant us fervently to desire, wisely to search out, and perfectly to fulfill, all that is well-pleasing to Thee. Multiply our devotion in these momentous days, making us living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to Thee. Enter anew into our hearts and into the ways of men that thy Name may be glorified and thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer as Citizens - At Voting Time

We pray Thy guidance especially today for him who will be elected President of the United States. Grant him wisdom, courage, and understanding sufficient unto his tasks. May his love for the poor exceed his fear of the powerful. May he place the public welfare above his own profit, and inspire others to do the same. May he be delivered from malice, from all bitterness, and narrow partisanship.

May he be given the support he needs in every righteous effort and the restraint to check him from the more evil course. Grant him grace to bear well such burdens as he can and help him to cast on Thee such burdens as he cannot bear. And in all his deeds may he seek to please Thee, as a good steward of that which has been entrusted to him.

Forgive us if we have expected miracles from those who govern us. Forgive us when we expect them to deliver us from the consequences of our own sin. Have mercy on us who have called on the State when we should call on the Saviour. Bring us now to yield our whole lives to Thee. We ask that we may be good citizens in this free land where Thou hast cast our lot, that after the election we shall work together with others for the welfare of our community. We ask more that we may be citizens of the Divine Community, of the City with Eternal Foundations, whose ruler and maker art Thou. So lead us, we pray, into Thy Kingdom. Amen.

Hear our prayer for spiritual insight to realize our influence upon others and grace to use it only and always for Thee. SERMONIC HYMN - "God Make Us Men"

God make us men whose aim 'twill be
Not to defend some ancient creed,
But to live out the laws of Christ
In every thought and word and deed.

God make us men alert and quick
His lofty percepts to translate,
Until the laws of Christ become
The laws and habits of the state.

God make us men of steadfast will,
Patient, courageous, strong, and true,
With vision clear and mind equipped,
His will to learn, His work to do.

God send us men, with hearts ablaze,
All truth to love, all wrong to hate;
These are the patriots nations need,
These are the bulwarks of the state.

Dear God, this is a wonderful world, this world in which we live. It is a world ever changing, ever growing, ever new. It is a world in which lie potentialities of abundance and freedom for every man and woman. However, it is a world in which You have given us free will, to exercise salvation or to wreak terrible destruction as we choose. Help us then, all the seeking, searching millions of us, to choose Thy way, the way of Life. Help our scientists to push beyond, as they are fast doing, beyond the realm of the purely physical until they reach the spiritual realities of life underlying the whole universe and its pattern. Help every man and woman to take that step, to go beyond the things seen and felt, tasted and smelled, until they acknowledge from the heart and soul that You, our God and Father are the source of life and the One Way to Life. Help us Father, to be a leaven throughout every nation on every continent in every hemisphere to raise the whole body of the people into that same acknowledgment. Help us so to pray and work as to bring Thy Kingdom into earth as it is in heaven. Help every nation in the world to become a truly Christian nation, acknowledging Thy power, Thy wisdom, Thy mercy and Thy love. Let all the leaders seek Thy guidance. Let the World choose the Way, Thy Way, of Life. Amen

We are grateful to Thee, the Father of Light, from whom all perfect gifts flow, for the Light of Jesus Christ shining into our world of darkness. We thank Thee for the lesser lights of this world, which mean so much to us. Teach us to use the lights Thou hast given us to glorify Thee. We are assured that the True Light, Jesus Christ, shines into this world of sorrow and trouble and that the darkness cannot overcome it. We would receive this Light which brings us news of Thy love, which helps us to find our way about the world, which promotes growth, reveals beauty and banishes gloom and darkness. We would follow the gleam of the Living Light, which has brought to light life and immortality, into eternity and thus find hope and comfort for our souls. Grant that the creative and healing power of the Light might be evident in our hearts.

Our Father, teach us to shine into the darkness of this world with the radiance of the true Light our Lord Jesus Christ. Grant that we may "make tracks of fire and light." Help us to magnify Thee by the glow of our lives. Make us sensitive to Thy Love and to human need, that we may become beacons of light. Let Christ shine through us. In the light of the Eternal Light may our paths be lighted toward eternal life in Thee. In the name of Jesus, who said I am the Light of the World, we ask it. Amen

Heavenly Father, Thou Giver of every good gift, we ask Thy forgiveness for not recognizing Thee as One to whom we owe all. Forgive us when we think more of the outward than the inward, the superficial rather than the deeper aspects of life. Forgive us selfish uses of the many gifts Thou hast bestowed upon us and where we have not seen the needs of others. We are sorry for these transgressions and ask Thy pardon. Transform us into persons through Christ, who express their thanks-giving by thanks-living. Amen

Eternal God, I thank Thee for every channel down which thou dost come to me, for every highway by which I may approach to the knowledge of Thee. For thy power and thy beauty revealed in the loveliness of nature, I praise and adore Thee. For all the witness of thyself in history, and in man's slow upward march through time, I bless thy name. For hero and martyr, for poet and prophet, for mystic and saint, and for all envisioned men of God, I praise and thank Thee. For all that I may learn concerning Thee in great books, music, and art I adore and worship Thee. For the testimony of thy Church, age by age, which spite of all its failures and its weaknesses, has never wholly lost Thee nor entirely forgotten its sublime mission, I praise and adore Thee. For all the gentle and courageous souls whose lives have impinged upon mine, and in whose ways and countenances I have read the marks of the divine, I bless thy name. Amen.

ADVENT

The Christian Year begins with the Advent season, which is the period including the four Sundays preceding Christmas. The first Sunday in Advent is the one nearest November thirtieth (Saint Andrew's Day) During Advent, the Old Testament prophets and John the Baptist are much in the minds of Christians, because they all stressed the necessity for repentance and the coming of the awaited Messiah.

Advent is a season of preparation for the coming of Christ into the world, and should be used as a time of penitence and special prayer that we may be worthy of him who is God's great gift.

The second Sunday in Advent traditionally has emphasized the Scriptures. The third Sunday often is used as a day of rejoicing because of the promised coming. The liturgical color is violet.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

O God, who didst prepare of old the minds and hearts of men for the coming of thy Son, and whose Spirit ever worketh to illumine our darkened lives with the light of his gospel;
prepare now our minds and hearts, we beseech Thee, that Christ may dwell within us, and ever reign in our thoughts and affections as the King of Love and the very Prince of Peace.
Grant this, we pray Thee, for his sake. Amen

O heavenly Father, whose light and love search the depths of men's hearts; prepare us, we pray Thee, for thy coming. AS we come to Thee for forgiveness, fill our souls with humility, as we remember before Thee the things we ought not to have done, and the good things left undone.
Purify our thoughts, strengthen our wills, kindle again in us the spirit of devotion; and above all lift us into thy very presence; that, consecrated anew to thy service, we may, with gladness and serenity, follow in the footsteps of him who came not to be ministered unto but to minister, thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen

UNISON PRAYER FOR WHITE GIFT SERVICE

Thou hast been good to us, Heavenly Father, in all past years. Thou hast brought us joy with this Christmas Season. Our cup has overflowed with Thy blessings. Thou hast given us beautiful homes, loving members of the family and friends, joyous and happy-making tasks. May we have in our hearts to share these good gifts with those who have not been so blessed. We wish to share, because Thou, O Christ, didst share Thyself and Thy life with us. May we not hug to ourselves the gifts of substance, love and opportunity, but may we find highest joys in the grace of sharing.

As we give, may it not be in the spirit of bare charity; may we give ourselves with every gift. Take from us the spirit of greed, pride, and superiority.
Give us sympathy, mercy and lovingkindness. Grant that through us something of the spirit of the Christ child may come into other hearts and homes.
Help us to understand that if we would fully enjoy the blessings that have come to us, we must pass them on. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Our heavenly Father, we give thanks unto Thee for this greatest of thy mercies; that thou didst send the Holy Child, the Price of peace, the Lord of life, to lead us into a truer knowledge and to lift us to a larger love of Thee. We are gathered for prayer, but prayer is praise upon our lips for that thou hast spoken to us so simply, hast come to us so fully, and hast revealed thy redeeming power and purpose so movingly. O grant us eyes to see and ears to hear, and minds to know that thou desirest only to pour thy spirit into our lives, even as thou didst pour it into the life of Jesus Christ our Lord. He is proof of thy power, prophecy of thy purpose, the morning star of life's fuller meaning. Be born in us, we pray.

So touch us now that we may make room for thy coming; we ask it in the Name and for the sake of Jesus Christ whose birth into the world and whose life in Thee, we celebrate. Amen

QUESTION AFTER CHRISTMAS**

When fragrant needles dry and spill,

Why pack away the heart's good will

As though it were a specialty

To hang upon the Christmas tree?

Why, when Christmas Day is done,

Do we mortals quickly run

Back into the commonplace?

Where yesterday each passing face,

Was eager with a secret chore,

Each holly-hung and ribboned door,

Breathed welcome to the passer-by,

Now hurriedly the busy eye

Skims ahead as though good will

Were something Christmas hearts distill,

Then dissipate, as though the air

Could no longer hold it there;

A change as though the very hour

That Christmas ends is like a flower

Which closes when the day departs -

So, too, the closing Christmas hearts

Drop their spent humility, like needles from the tree.

CALL TO PRAYER - No. 516 - SILENT PRAYER

UNISON PRAYER

O Lord, unto whom one day is as a thousand years and a thousand years as one day; unto Thee do we lift up our souls. Thy mercy endureth for ever, and thy compassion faileth not.
Amid the shadows of the closing year we thank Thee for all that it hath brought us of goodness and truth. Thou hast given us life and reason, and hast set us in a world which is full of thy glory. Thou hast comforted us with kindred and friends. In darkness hast thou been our light; in our joys, the spirit of joy.
For all these thy gifts, we praise thy Holy Name.

"Dear Master, in Whose life I see
All that I long and fail to be;
Let Thy clear light forever shine
To shame and guide this life of mine.
Though what I dream and what I do
In my poor days are always two,
Help me, oppressed by things undone,
O Thou, Whose dreams and deeds were one."
