UNISON PRAYER

O young and fearless Prophet, Of ancient Galilee, Thy life is still a summons, To serve humanity, To make our thoughts and actions less prone to please the crowd, To stand with humble courage for truth, with hearts uncowed. We marvel at the purpose that held Thee to thy course, While ever on the hilltop Before Thee loomed the cross; Thy steadfast face set forward where love and duty shone, While we betray so quickly and leave Thee there alone. Create in us the splendor that dawns when hearts are kind, That knows not race nor station, as boundaries of the mind; That learns to value beauty, In heart, or brain, or soul, And longs to bind God's children, into one perfect whole. Amen

For thy Name's sake be merciful unto my sin, for it is great.

Be merciful unto me, heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.

Cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, keep thou the door of my lips.

He Leadeth me in the lowly paths of Learning,

He Prepareth a Lesson for me every day,

He findeth the clear fountains of instruction,

Little by little he showeth me the beauty of truth.

The World is a great book that He hath written,

He turneth the leaves for me slowly. They are inscribed with images and letters. His face poureth light on the pictures and the words.

Then I am glad when I perceive his meaning. He Taketh me by the hand to the hill top of vision.

In the valley also he walketh beside me. And in the dark places he whispereth to my heart.

Yea though my lesson be hard, It is not hopeless,

For the Lord is very patient with his slow pupil.

He will wait awhile for my weakness, He will help

Me to read the truth through fears.

Surely Thou wilt enlighten me daily by Joy and Sorrow: And Lead Me at Last, O God, To the Perfect Knowledge of Thee. Amen
