ASH WEDNESDAY
Service of Prayer
March 3, 1954
7:30 P. M.

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH
Baltimore, Maryland

Rev. Titus Lehmann, Pastor

"THE SONGS OF
CROSS"

A Prayer: Again, O Lord and Savior, the hallowed days begin, that view Thy willing shame and death to save our souls from sin. We ask Thee to guide us with Thy gracious spirit as we think of and sing the "songs of the cross" in these days of remembrance. Accept the offering of our love for Thy mercies' sake. Amen.

INVOCATION - Almighty and Everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

O Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who didst send thy Son to suffer and die for us on this earth, a gracious gift to the ungrateful race of men, make us truly and sincerely thankful for this and for all thine other benefits. We thank Thee, O Lord, for thy long-suffering with the sins and sorrows of men from the beginning even until now. For the sufferings of Christ in the flesh and his intercession for mankind in glory, we thank Thee, O Lord. For the redemption of the world through the shame of the Cross and the pain of the Passion, we are indeed grateful, O Lord. We thank Thee for all who have filled up the sufferings of Christ in their own bodies for love of him and of their fellowmen. For martyrs and confessors, for all who have chosen poverty or solitude for thy sake, for all men of prayer, and for all saints in common life, we thank Thee, O Lord. We thank Thee, O God, for all our daily blessings, for health, for homes, and food for ourselves and those we love; Our God, we thank Thee.

For strength of body, and clearness of mind;
for work to do and strength to do it.

For freedom to choose the work for which we are fitted, and in which we find a challenge to do our best.

For these tools which thou hast placed in our hands, for the quality of their material and workmanship.

For their reminder of the sacramental nature of our work; for their constant demand that we do our best; for the joy of work well done. Upon those who labor; joining hands with our fellow laborers throughout the world, Father, we pray thy blessings. For those who labor in difficult places, for those who must do monotonous and uninteresting work, for a better understanding between employer and employee, and for a deepening realization of the divine nature of daily labor, we pray thy blessings. Upon our own tools, whatever they may be, whether exalted or humble, as we are joined by them in the true democracy of labor, and knowing that all service is holy in thy sight. Amen
