our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask,

CALL TO PRAYER No. 516 - SILENT PRAYER

PRAYER SUGGESTION

Almighty and ever-living God, who art beyond the grasp of our highest thought but within the reach of our frailest trust, come to us in the beauty of the morning's light, in the tasks of this day, and reveal Thyself to us.
Enrich us out of the heritage of seers and scholars and saints into whose faith and labors we have entered, and quicken us to new insights into Thy mind for our time, that we may be possessors of the truth of many yesterdays, partakers of Thy thought for today, and creators with Thee of a better tomorrow, through Jesus Christ, the Lord of all ages. Amen

O God, we bring Thee our minds and strength that our every thought may be informed by Thy wisdom and our every power employed by Thy will. Accept us as we take up our tasks; purify our inmost selves and the outward selves we share with those who shall meet us this day; and use us beyond aught we ask or think for Thy purpose in Jesus Christ our Lord.

POSTLUDE - "Suite Gothique" I Choral, Boellman

Ye that have faith to look with fearless eyes
Beyond the tragedy of a world at strife,
And know that out of death and night shall rise,
The dawn of ampler life;
Rejoice, whatever anguish rend the heart,
That God has given you the priceless dower
To live in these great times and have your part In Freedom's crowning hour.

MEASURE ME, SKY

Measure me, Sky!
Tell me I reach by a song,
Nearer the stars.
I have been little so long.

Weigh me, High Wind!
What will yon wild scales record?
Profit of pain,
Joy by the weight of a word.

Horizon reach out!
Catch at my hands, stretch me taut,
Rim of the world:
Widen my eyes by a thought.

Sky, be my depth;
Wind, be my width and my height;
World my heart's span:
Loneliness, wings for my flight.

CALL TO PRAYER No. 516 - SILENT PRAYER

PRAYER SUGGESTION

"O God, great companion of our troubled hearts, bringer of peace, meet us at our altars where we turn aside from the busy streets to find Thee. In the quiet of our Churches, thou art present with two or three because they meet in Thy house. Not by might nor by power but by Thy Spirit we seek strength and rest. Make every one of our Churches radiant with love and hope. May every tired mind, every tempted soul, every worn body, find help within these holy places. Make thy servants holy and winsome. Teach them gracious speech to make sinners ashamed of sin and eager to be noble and useful. Gird them with powers of mind and heart to show men the glory of Jesus Christ and to win them to his service, so that folly and lust and mammon shall lose their hold upon all who worship with us. Amen

O God, we bless Thee for the Gospel of Thy grace in Jesus Christ, for apostles who have spread it throughout the earth, for martyrs who have testified their faith by their blood, for scholars who have interpreted it to the mind of successive generations, for pastors and leaders of Thy Church who have counselled young and old in the way of Christ, and for countless men and women, learned and simple, in whom His Spirit has lived and wrought through the centuries. Amen

POSTLUDE - "Adagio from the Overture to the Occasional Oratorio" Handel

Welcome into our Service today. May your coming and going be richly blessed.

AN OLD ENGLISH PRAYER

Give us, Lord, a bit O' Sun,
A bit O' work and a bit O' fun,
Give us in all the struggle and sputter,
Our daily bread and a bit O' butter;
Give us health, our keep to make,
An' a bit to spare for others' sake.

Give us, too, a bit of song,
And a tale, and a book to help us along.
Give us, Lord, a chance to be,
Our goodly best, brave, wise, and free,
Our goodly best for ourself, and others,
Till all men learn to live as brothers.

LET US PRAY

So hangs the world between the dark and day.
If we could see the dawn rim faintly white
We would not need to say:
"Lord, send the light."

And if the world were lost beyond recall,
We would not pray at all.
But what we love is balanced on a thread
Between our hope and dread.
The slightest breath can blow it either way,
"Come, let us pray."
