Pastor: As we come unto God in the sense of imperfection, of needing His strength and His forgiveness, He does truly forgive our sins and grant us His forgiveness. Let us then make unto Him our confession.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: We are not worthy of the love of God nor of His mercy and forgiveness. Yet He would love us and grant us His absolution from sins, if we are sorry for these sins. May we therefore, humbly, and in cognizance of our need for cleansing, now come in faith and make our confession, People: Dear God, we are your children come home this morning unto yourself. We know that though we may try very hard, still we are not without sin, and so, for those sins we have unwillingly committed as for those purposely done, we ask your pardon and cleansing. Grant us new grace and new strength in your presence, we ask, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: We are not worthy of the love of God nor of His mercy and forgiveness. Yet He would love us and grant us His absolution from sins, if we are sorry for these sins. May we therefore, humbly, and in cognizance of our need for cleansing, now come in faith and make our confession.

People: Dear God, we are your children come home this morning unto yourself. We know that though we may try very hard, still we are not without sin, and so, for those sins we have unwillingly committed as for those purposely done, we ask your pardon and cleansing. Grant us new grace and new strength in your presence, we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

A CHURCH THAT CARES FOR ALL PEOPLE

REMBRANDT VAN RIJN (1606-1669), a Dutch portrait painter, was one of the great artists of all time. This head of Christ is taken from an etching, "Christ Healing the Sick," in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. Frequently in the Gospels, the evangelists say of Christ, "He had compassion. . . ." This is the look which Rembrandt has portrayed. This is the Christ Who gave of Himself, and gave Himself, that men might live. He has compassion on all men.

HOUR OF SHARING, MARCH 16 It is important that you do not forget this special offering for the people of the world are looking for the material aid we church people can give them in this their continuing hour of need.
 So, in your family circle discuss the amount of your special offering (envelopes coming to you in mail) and let this be really an offering which expresses your joy in being an American, and your sense of sharing.

JESUS
TO MEN
THE GLORY
OF GOD—
"HE WHO
HATH SEEN
ME HATH
FATHER!"

PAUL B. REMMEY, an American artist, was on the faculty of the School of Fine Arts of the University of Pennsylvania. This portrait of Christ, painted in 1951, shows the Lord with a direct, straightforward look—as if He's looking us right in the eye and challenging, "Well, what are you going to do about it?" About what? About the Cross. The hymn asks, "Do we pass that Cross unheeding, breathing no repentant vow?" Or do we see in Christ the glory of God, and worship and adore, and serve?

Pastor: Beloved in the Lord, let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God, our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

Wherefore we flee for refuge to Thine infinite mercy, seeking and imploring Thy grace for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ. Have Mercy upon us, and for His sake grant us remission of all our sins, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

JESUS CALLS US; O'ER THE TUMULT
✠ OF OUR LIFE'S WILD, RESTLESS SEA,
DAY BY DAY HIS CLEAR VOICE SOUNDETH,
✠ ✠ SAYING, "CHRISTIAN, FOLLOW ME!"

JOHANN MICHAEL FERDINAND HEINRICH HOFMANN (1824-1911) was a German artist who painted many portraits of Christ. The one on this bulletin is taken from his larger work, "Christ and the Rich Young Man," which was painted in 1889, and now hangs in Riverside Church, New York City. The Christ shown here is typical of conceptions portrayed during the Victorian era, but differs from the rugged Christ more in favor today. This is the "good and gentle" Christ, with almost an other-worldly aura about Him. Regardless of how we picture Him, it is the same Christ Who calls to all men, "Follow Me!"

JESUS CAME TO CALL MEN INTO HIS KINGDOM-
"AND OF HIS KINGDOM THERE SHALL BE NO END."

GEORGES ROUAULT (1871-1958), a French artist, was a devout Roman Catholic. His early apprenticeship to a stained-glass window maker is apparent in much of his work. This "Head of Christ," painted in 1937-1938, is in the Cleveland Museum of Art, and is typical of many of his works. It is created more to give us a feeling of awe and reverence than to make us see a photographic likeness. Since we have no life-portraits of our Lord, we have to grant to every man the right to imagine, and to picture, Him in his own way. Said Rouault: "My only ambition is to be able some day to paint a Christ so moving that those who see Him will be converted."

JESUS PRAYED: "O MY FATHER,...
NOT AS I WILL,
BUT AS THOU WILT."

CLEVELAND L. WOODWARD is a contemporary American artist, of New England background, who now maintains studios in Truro, Massachusetts, and in Fairhope, Alabama. This head of Christ in prayer is from a larger painting, entitled "Gethsemane," which was completed in 1958. The artist, through research in the Holy Land, has attempted to inject a true historic atmosphere into his work, and is noted for his accuracy in details. Here we see Christ in the anguish of prayer, dreading and yet accepting willingly that which lies ahead for Him. May we, too, pray honestly to our Father: "Not as I will, but as Thou wilt."

now when the even was come he sat down with the twelve ... and as they were eating Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, take, eat, this is my body... and he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, drink ye all of it ... THE QUIETNESS IN THE DARKNESS
THE DEPARTURE FROM THE SANCTUARY

As the music plays very softly and the lights are brought up to a very dim position this is the signal to depart from the sanctuary. We request that all depart in absolute quietness, saying nothing until being outside the church building. Let us observe the Discipline of Silence this night.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES

4. As you kneel at the altar to receive the wafer, please extend your hand as a receptacle into which the wafer can be placed rather than reach for the wafer.

A WOODCARVER IN OBERAMMERGAU, THE BAVARIAN ALPS CARVED this head of Christ from a single block of lindenwood. Oberammergau is the village where the world-famous Passion Play is presented every ten years; other than the Play, woodcarving is the town's biggest industry. This sculpture, among the most recent of representations of our Lord, is in many ways the most traditional. This is the Christ, dying for all, Who is known, beloved, and adored.

O sacred Head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded with thorns, Thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory, what bliss till now was Thine!
Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call Thee mine.

JESUS, IN THY DYING WOES, ✠ ✠

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: Because of the goodness of our God, He is desirous that our fellowship with Him be strong and vital. And to this end He has promised us the forgiveness of our sins and a renewal of association with Him as our heavenly Father. If we desire this, may we now bring to Him our concern.

People: Dear God, we do desire a closeness with Thee, which sin prevents. We would pray for Thy forgiveness of our wrongdoings and a cleansing of our lives from sin, that we can have this sense of inner peace. Grant us this forgiveness, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

THE KYRIE ELEISON, #518 in Hymnal

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us,

People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us,

People sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us,

People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor: As our hearts are sincere and our petitions are earnest, thus does God forgive our sins. For as many as this affects, I announce the forgiveness of God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE PRAISE VERSICLE, #517 in the Hymnal

Pastor: O Lord, open Thou our lips

People sing: And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

*THE HYMN No. 333

THE RECOGNITION OF MOTHER AND FAMILIES

Statement by the Pastor

Litany on our Homes

Pastor: Homes are very important to us. Lest we take for granted these homes and the good things we enjoy, let us thank God for them,

People: Loving Father, we would thank thee for our homes, and for folk who love us and take care of our needs. In the Name of Him who was always thankful.

Pastor: Jesus made his home in Nazareth a happier place for his family to live in. Let us ask God to help us think of ways in which we can help make our homes pleasant.

People: Our Father, we wish we might be as cheerful, fun-loving, and helpful as we know Jesus was. May we think of kindly surprising things we can do for our folk at home - and then may we do them.

Pastor: Sometimes we do things that break the happiness of our homes. Let us ask God to keep us from grumbling or showing ill-temper in our homes.

People: Our Father, because we're so thankful for the good fun we can have together in our homes, help us never to do or say things that will make others unhappy. Keep us cheerful when things go wrong and our own plans are upset; and may we grow in love and understanding of each other.

Pastor: He who would be popular must first begin the ways of thoughtful sharing at home. Let us pray that we may be 'delightful persons to have around' in our homes.

People: Our Father, help us to be worthy of the friendship of our parents and brothers and sisters. Amen.

Distribution of Memento Pictures to each family present.
